THE PRESIDENT: Substitutions ordered.

Senator Present.

SENATOR PRESENT: Mr. President. I ask for unanimous consent that Calendar Number 517 be advanced from first report to third reading.

THE PRESIDENT: Without objection.

SENATOR GOLD: You want it, you got it.

THE PRESIDENT: So ordered.

SENATOR PRESENT: Mr. President. Take up the noncontroversial calendar.

THE PRESIDENT: Secretary will read.

THE SECRETARY: On page 14, Calendar Number 277, by Senator Saland, Senate Bill Number 1065A, an act to amend the General Municipal Law and the Education Law.

SENATOR GOLD: Lay it aside.

THE PRESIDENT: The bill is laid aside.

THE SECRETARY: On page 20, Calendar Number 496, substituted earlier, by Member of the Assembly Weinstein, Assembly Bill Number 10159, an act to amend Chapter 502 of the Laws of 1992, relating to certain non-judicial officers and employees.

THE PRESIDENT: Read the last section.

THE SECRETARY: Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

THE PRESIDENT: Call the roll.

(The Secretary called the roll.)

THE SECRETARY: Ayes 47.

THE PRESIDENT: The bill is passed.

THE SECRETARY: Calendar Number 526, by Senator Marino, Senate Bill Number 7239, an act to amend the General Municipal Law, in relation to the designation of Economic Development Zones.

THE PRESIDENT: Read the last section.

THE SECRETARY: Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

THE PRESIDENT: Call the roll.

(The Secretary called the roll.)

THE SECRETARY: Ayes 47.

Reading Calendar Number 517, by Member of the Assembly Feldman, substituted earlier today, also, Assembly Bill 9670, an act to amend Chapter 887 of the Laws of 1983, amending the Correction Law.

THE PRESIDENT: Read the last section.

THE SECRETARY: Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

THE PRESIDENT: Call the roll.

(The Secretary called the roll.)

THE SECRETARY: Ayes 46. Nays 1. Senator Nozzolio recorded in the negative.

THE PRESIDENT: The bill is passed.

THE SECRETARY: Page 20, Calendar Number 528, substituted earlier today, by Member of the Assembly Friedman, Assembly Bill Number 10036, an act to amend Chapter 499 of the Laws of 1991.

SENATOR GOLD: Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: Senator Gold.

SENATOR GOLD: I hate to interrupt, but I see you with a pen in your hand. Could we reconsider the vote on 526, when it's appropriate. We can do it after this, but I didn't want it signed and out of the house.

THE PRESIDENT: Last section on 528.

THE SECRETARY: Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

THE PRESIDENT: Call the roll.

(The Secretary called the roll.)

THE SECRETARY: Ayes 48.

THE PRESIDENT: The bill is passed.

THE PRESIDENT: 526. The Secretary will call the roll on reconsideration.

(The Secretary called the roll on reconsideration.)

THE SECRETARY: Ayes 48.

THE PRESIDENT: The bill is reconsidered.

Senator Present.

SENATOR PRESENT: Mr. President. I believe we have two bills on controversial calendar.

THE PRESIDENT: That's right.

SENATOR PRESENT: Can we take those up?

THE PRESIDENT: That is correct. Secretary will read.

THE SECRETARY: On page 14, Calendar Number 277, by Senator Saland, Senate Bill Number 1065A, General Municipal Law and the Education Law.

SENATOR GOLD: Mr. President. Most respectfully, give me one minute on this.

THE PRESIDENT: Yes. Before that, there is a local fiscal impact note at the desk.

SENATOR GOLD: Mr. President. There are other members interested, also. If we can get a short explanation from Senator Saland, we would be very grateful.

THE PRESIDENT: Senator Saland.

SENATOR SALAND: I will endeavor, Mr. President, to make it as short as I can to the satisfaction of Senator Gold.

Basically, this bill is a mandate relief bill that says if the state wishes to impose any type of a law or regulation that is going cost any particular municipality or level of municipal government or school district $10,000 or more or collectively all of the municipalities or school districts within that classification $1 million or more, the state would have to foot the bill, effectively requiring the state to put its money where its mouth is, so to speak.

SENATOR DOLLINGER: Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: Senator Dollinger.

SENATOR DOLLINGER: Mr. President. Will Senator Saland yield to a question?

SENATOR SALAND: Certainly, Senator.

SENATOR DOLLINGER: I'm going to vote in favor of this bill, but I am intrigued by one thing. We passed two bills in the last two weeks. One that involved school bus attendants, in which we mandated that school bus attendants be subjected to criminal justice checks, and we also passed a bill that required process servicers -- police officers to serve process for Family Court.

SENATOR SALAND: Mr. President. May I just have a little bit of order over here.

THE PRESIDENT: Senator Saland's point is well-taken. There will be order in the chamber.

SENATOR SALAND: I heard the first part about the school buses, and you were saying something about -

SENATOR DOLLINGER: The second bill was a bill that required police officers to serve Family Court orders of protection. Both of those bills imposed mandates on local communities. Neither of them provided funding. Are both of those bills inconsistent with the bill that we're talking about today?

SENATOR SALAND: Both of those bills are consistent with the policy that's heretofore been the policy of the Executive and the Legislature. I'm attempting to change that policy and forever more prevent that from happening. That's really what this bill is all about, Senator.

SENATOR DOLLINGER: Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: Senator Dollinger.

SENATOR DOLLINGER: Just on the bill, Mr. President.

I appreciate Senator Saland's candor in that. I agree we need a new direction. I agree we need a new approach. It seems to me that we haven't followed the wisdom of this bill up to this very moment as we sit here in this chamber.

We have passed unfunded mandates this year. My guess is that even if this bill passes this chamber, as I expect it will, that sometime between now and July 1, July 2, July 5, July 8, we may pass a couple unfunded mandates too, because as Senator Levy, to his credit, said the school attendant bill had lots of good reasons behind it; but, nonetheless, it was our making a decision that local school districts could have made.

In the case of the process servers, it was a decision that we are imposing upon a Family Court system and upon police departments that, at least my sense is, they could probably make that decision themselves.

But my hope is if this bill passes that both sides of this house and perhaps particularly the other side will not put any more of those kinds of bills in front of us.

THE PRESIDENT: Last section.

Senator Gold.

SENATOR GOLD: Will Senator Saland yield to a question?

SENATOR SALAND: Yes, Senator.

A little under the weather today, Senator.

SENATOR GOLD: You are? I'm sorry.

SENATOR SALAND: You sound a little under the weather today.

SENATOR GOLD: Actually, I did an hour and a half of tennis and I feel pretty good.

Senator, I'm trying to figure out, philosophically, what we're trying to accomplish because -- I mean I've got a number of bills here -- 679, by Senator Saland, in relation to transportation of nonpublic school students, which I think is an unfunded mandate.

SENATOR SALAND: No, that's not, Senator.

SENATOR GOLD: That's what I wanted you to explain.

SENATOR SALAND: That bill basically expands under what is the existing law the ability for school districts -- I believe there is provision in the Education Law for one and a half miles to current 15 or 16 miles, and that basically says that school districts can continue to get state funding within the parameters of that bill. It's been on the books since the 1940s, I believe, those parameters.

SENATOR GOLD: What about 666? This one talks about requires testing of school bus drivers in the use of controlled substances. How does that fit in?

SENATOR SALAND: Well, that -- if my memory serves me correctly, that bill makes reference to an appropriation.

SENATOR GOLD: What about 943. This one requiring boards of education to provide transportation to all children living more than one and a half miles from a school up to a distance of 15.

SENATOR SALAND: Oh, I'm sorry. I thought you were referring to that bill the first time. That's the bill I was addressing the first time. I'm sorry.

SENATOR GOLD: Well, Mr. President, on the bill.

THE PRESIDENT: Senator Gold is recognized.

SENATOR GOLD: Mr. President. After consulting with the highest authorities available, I am going to support the bill because, unquestionably, the bottom line philosophy does make sense.

But I have in my hand Senator Maltese bill 517, which, we passed today; 527, by Senators Larkin and Libous, which I think is still on the calendar; 235, by Senator Maltese; 64, by Senator Kuhl.

I got dozens here, which we believe violate the philosophy of what this bill is all about. And it's wonderful to put in bills suggesting that we don't do this as far as the localities are concerned, when philosophically -- I mean we seem to put in the same kind of bills when it deals with state agencies, and we do it all the time.

You know, Senator Levy and I have debates all the time as to whether or not the state agency should have to be his research resource in doing all of the reports he always calls for which he puts in without funding.

But I think if this is philosophy that we want to maintain as to our relationship with other governmental bodies, I think it would be just as appropriate if we put those constraints upon ourselves when we're dealing with the state agencies.

THE PRESIDENT: Read the last section.

THE SECRETARY: Section 4. This act shall take effect April 1, 1995.

THE PRESIDENT: Call the roll.

(The Secretary called the roll.)

THE SECRETARY: Ayes 54.

THE PRESIDENT: The bill is passed.

SENATOR HOFFMANN: Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: Senator Hoffmann.

SENATOR HOFFMANN: Senator Dollinger just made a reference a few minutes ago which reminded me that I had intended to vote against a bill which passed when I was out of the chamber about two weeks ago, Calendar Number 88. Had I been present at that time, it was my intention to vote in the negative. I would like the record to so reflect.

THE PRESIDENT: Without objection, so ordered.

THE SECRETARY: On page 20, Calendar Number 526, by Senator Marino, Senate Bill Number 7239, an act to amend the General Municipal Law.

SENATOR GOLD: Mr. President. Could we get one day on this for Senator Galiber? Would that be in line?

SENATOR PRESENT: Sure.

SENATOR GOLD: Pass it for the day, please.

THE PRESIDENT: The bill is laid aside.

SENATOR PRESENT: Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: Senator Present.

SENATOR PRESENT: So that everyone can maybe adjust their schedules and know a little bit what they are going to do in the balance of the day, on behalf of Senator Levy, I would like to announce there will be a Republican Majority Conference at 3:30 in Room 332.

And I now ask that the Senate stand in recess until 7:00 p.m.

SENATOR GOLD: Mr. President. Before you hit the gavel, on behalf of that distinguished lady from the Bronx, Senator Mendez, may I announce a Democratic Conference at 7:00 p.m. promptly.

What? Well, you know, they also want her in Manhattan and I think both counties are blessed with that kind of representation.

SENATOR PATERSON: Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: Senator Paterson.

SENATOR PATERSON: Where is that Republican conference meeting being held at 3:30.

SENATOR PRESENT: Room 332.

SENATOR PATERSON: Oh, thank you. I will be there, because these people are trying to figure out what boroughs they are from. I thought maybe I could come over to that meeting.

THE PRESIDENT: The Senate stands in recess until 7:00 p.m.

Senator Levy. Wait just one second.

SENATOR LEVY: Mr. President. I would like to reconsider the substitution on Calendar 522.

THE PRESIDENT: Without objection, so ordered.

Now, the Senate stands in recess until 7:00 p.m.

(Whereupon, at 1:27 p.m., Senate recessed.)

(Whereupon, at 10:57 p.m., Senate reconvened.)

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Senate will come to order.

Senator Present.

SENATOR PRESENT: Will you recognize Senator Stafford please.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Senator Stafford.

SENATOR STAFFORD: Mr. President. Could I please call an immediate meeting of the Committee on Finance in Room 332.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY:

There'll be an immediate meeting of the Committee on Finance in Room 332.

SENATOR PRESENT: Mr. President.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Senator Present.

SENATOR PRESENT: Senate will stand at ease awaiting the report from that committee.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: The Senate will stand at ease awaiting the report of the Finance Committee.

(Whereupon, at 10:57 p.m., Senate was at ease.)

(Whereupon, at 11:15 p.m., Senate reconvened.)

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Senate will come to order.

Senator Present.

SENATOR PRESENT: Mr. President. We will return to report of a standing committee.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Without objection, the Secretary will read the report of a standing committee.

THE SECRETARY: Senator Stafford from the Committee on Finance reports the following bills directly for third reading:

Senate Bill Number 6450A, Senate Budget Bill, making appropriations for the support of government, State Operations Budget Bill.

Also Senate Bill 7456, by the Committee on Rules, an act in relation to certain provisions with impact upon the expenditures of certain appropriations.

All bills reported directly for third reading.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: All

bills reported directly to third reading.

Senator Skelos for a motion.

SENATOR SKELOS: On behalf of Senator Bruno, I move that his bill, Senate Print Number 7016, be discharged from its respected committee and be recommitted with instructions to strike the enacting clause.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Without objection, the bill will be recommitted.

Senator Present.

SENATOR PRESENT: Mr. President. May we call up Calendar 529.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Secretary will read 529.

THE SECRETARY: Calendar Number 529, Senate Budget Bill, Senate Bill Number 6450A, an act making appropriations for the support of government.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Senator Present.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: The bill is passed.

Senator Present.

SENATOR PRESENT: Call up Calendar 463, please.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: 463. The Secretary will read.

THE SECRETARY: On page 19 of the regular calendar of today, Calendar Number 463, substituted earlier today, by Member of the Assembly Dugan, Assembly Bill Number 10158A, an act to amend the General Business Law and Chapter 509 of the Laws of 1992.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Read the last section.

SENATOR LEICHTER: Explanation.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY:

Explanation. Senator Velella.

Senator Stafford, do you want to explain this?

SENATOR PRESENT: Lay the bill aside.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Lay the bill aside.

Read the last section of 463, by Senator Velella.

THE SECRETARY: Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Call the roll.

(The Secretary called the roll.)

THE SECRETARY: Ayes 59.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: The bill is passed.

Senator Present.

SENATOR PRESENT: Mr. President. I'm afraid that I'm going to ask that we stand at ease awaiting messages.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Senate will stand at ease waiting for -

(Whereupon, the Senate was at ease.)

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Senator Present.

SENATOR PRESENT: Mr. President.

ACTING PRESIDENT FARLEY: Senate will come to order.
