PROCEEDINGS 1 2 ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: The Senate will come to order. 3 4 Please rise and join me in the 5 Pledge of Allegiance to our Flag. (Whereupon, the assemblage recited 6 7 the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.) 8 ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Today we have the Reverend Peter G. Young, from Mother 9 10 Teresa Community here in Albany, to lead us in a 11 prayer. 12 REVEREND YOUNG: Let us pray. God, by Your love You made a world 13 14 where we have become neighbors to each other and 15 we are enabled therefore to love one another. Grant that we too may use the Senate to strive 16 toward a way of life in keeping with God's plan. 17 18 You have on this preparation for Memorial Day given us marvelous examples of 19 20 charity in those who have been in this house and 21 those who have served to love one another. Send down Your blessings on these 22 Senators who are now with God, and we pray too 23 for the Senators that are in this assembly, to 24 25 make sure that they generously devote themselves to helping others as the example of those who 2 have past served in such an honorable way.

 3 Amen.
 4
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              The

17
                  THE SECRETARY:
                                    Senator
18 DeFrancisco, from the Committee on Finance, 19 reports the following nominations.
20
                  As superintendent of the New York 21
     State Department of Financial Services, Benjamin 22
     M. Lawsky, of New York City.
                  As a member of the Small Business 23 Advisory Board, James S. Alesi, of East 24
25 Rochester.
```

```
As members of the Mental Health
 1
 2 Services Council, Glenn A. Martin, of Forest
 3 Hills, and Ann Marie Theresa Sullivan, of 4
     New York City.
 5
                  As members of the Public Health Planning Council, Jeffery A. Kraut, of East 6
 7
     Meadow; Victoria Godwin Hines, of Fairport;
 8 Christopher C. Booth, of Pittsford; Ann Marie 9
     Theresa Sullivan, of New York City; Angel Alfonso 10 Gutierrez, of Buffalo; Arthur Aaron Levin, of New York City; John M. Palmer, of Forest Hills; 11 12
     Howard S. Berliner, of Brooklyn; Anderson Torres, of the Bronx; Ellen E. Grant, of Grand Island;
14
     John Rugge, of Queensbury; and Glenn A. Martin, 15 of Forest Hills.
16
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              Senator
     Alesi.
17
18
                  SENATOR ALESI: Mr. President, I would ask for unanimous consent to be excused 19 20 from voting on the member of the Small Business Advisory Board.
21
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
22 Without objection.
23 Senator DeFrancisco.
24
25 SENATOR DEFRANCISCO: Yes, I would
```

```
1 first like to move the nomination, for 2 superintendent of the New York State Department of Financial Services, Benjamin M. Lawsky, of
 4
     New York City.
 5
                  Mr. Lawsky appeared before our committee, the Finance Committee, and was
 7 unanimously recommended to the full house.
 8
                  I would wholeheartedly endorse his 9
                  It's an excellent, excellent nomination.
10 nomination by the Governor. He's got the educational background, the work experience, the
12 intelligence and the integrity necessary for this 13 very, very important position.
                  And I would ask that you would
15 please recognize Senator Seward to second this great nomination.
16
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
17 Thank 18 you, Senator DeFrancisco.
19 Senator Seward.
20
                  SENATOR SEWARD:
                                     Thank you,
21
     Mr. President. I'm delighted to rise to second the confirmation of Ben Lawsky to be the first 22 superintendent of the new Department of Financial 23 Services.
24
25
                  You know, Ben has had a very

distinguished career which has included a number of very, very important titles. He's been an attorney in the U.S. Department of Justice, chief counselor to U.S. Senator Charles Schumer, Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Southern District of New York, deputy counselor and special assistant to the Attorney General, and then, for the last number of months, chief of staff to Governor Cuomo.

You know, Ben was one of the driving forces behind the merger of the Insurance and Banking Departments into this newly created Department of Financial Services. And as chair of the Insurance Committee, I had the pleasure of working very closely with Ben as we negotiated the creation of this new department. And I think we all collectively, in the administration and we in the Legislature, can be very proud of the final product.

But throughout that process, I got to know him. And a number of words come to mind when I think of Ben Lawsky. He's smart, he's effective, articulate. He has an outstanding grasp of the issues. He has a businesslike but very pleasant manner. And as Senator DeFrancisco said, he has the highest integrity. All of these characteristics will serve him and the people of the State of New York very well in this new endeavor.

I believe he's uniquely qualified to take on the challenges, and there are many challenges that await him as the head of this new department. I've had the opportunity to discuss the issues with Ben both privately and before our Insurance Committee. He certainly understands and recognizes the contributions that the insurance industry provides to our New York State economy from an employment point of view.

Thousands and thousands of New Yorkers are employed through the insurance and financial services industry.

The industry provides financial security for the families of New York, the businesses of New York, and of course is very important in meeting the consumer needs of our state.

And I believe that he also shares my goal of the need to create a modernized, streamlined and effective regulatory structure so that New York State can maintain and enhance our

1 preeminent role and status as the financial 2 services capital of the world. 3 So I, Mr. President, stand to 4 congratulate Governor Cuomo on this outstanding, 5 outstanding appointment. And I look very much forward to the opportunity to work with our new 6 7 superintendent Ben Lawsky as he works to put this 8 new department together and work on these very, very important issues confronting not only that 9 10 department but New York State. 11 So, Ben, I rise to congratulate you 12 and your beautiful family on this very, very special day. Congratulations. 13 ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 14 Thank 15 you, Senator Seward. 16 Senator Griffo on the nomination. SENATOR GRIFFO: 17 Thank you, 18 Mr. President. I also stand today to second the nomination of Ben Lawsky.

As chairman of the Banks Committee, I was fortunate to have an opportunity to also work with Ben very early on. And I think what Senator Seward said today, the attributes that he described, truly fit Ben Lawsky. He is truly an exceptional individual.

And I think the Governor chose wisely. I commend the Governor for hiring him in the first place to bring him onto his team. And then we're happy -- a lot of times we'll hear speculation, and this is one time the speculation was good, because it was rumored that this would be the choice of the Governor for this new important department. And I'm happy that he was nominated by the Governor.

Ben I found to be an individual with a lot of energy and true passion for not only the job that he's doing but for the State of New York. And I admire that because that is what we need. We need talented people who possess the potential and capacity to do good things for this state.

And there are great challenges that face us economically and in the financial institutions, and that's why during this process of this consolidation Ben was an integral part throughout the entire operation. And he was very accessible, he was very attentive, and he was very responsive. And as a result of that, I think we were able to achieve a good result.

Governor prides himself on and I think all of us 1 want to pride ourselves on, that working together 2 we can produce results for the people that we 3 4 serve. 5 So, Ben, I look forward to working with you. I, as I said, believe that you have an 6 7 exceptional resume, that you have extraordinary potential, and we can continue to do good things 8 to ensure that this state and New York City and 9 10 the State of New York continue to remain the financial services capital of the world. 11 12 So congratulations to you, my best wishes, and I second the nomination. 13 ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 14 Thank 15 you, Senator Griffo. Senator Breslin on the nomination. 16 17 SENATOR BRESLIN: Thank you, 18 Mr. President. I echo the remarks of Senator Seward 19 20 and Senator Griffo. Starting in college at 21 Columbia and going on to law school at Columbia, 22 through his clerkships, two separate clerkships, on to time in not only the U.S. Attorney's office 23 but the Justice Department, the Attorney 24 25 General's office, working as legislative counsel in the United States Senate with Senator Charles 1 2 Schumer, back to the Attorney General's office, and then ultimately as chief of staff for the 3 4 Governor, Ben Lawsky has just exhibited all of 5 the characteristics necessary for this most important merger of banking and finance. 6 7 administrative skills, his academic background and his honesty come together to form a person 8 who we can all be proud of and commend the 9 10 Governor for making this choice. 11 Banking and Insurance, the 12 departments, when put together, will affect I believe the most lives of any, any agency in the 13 State of New York. And I firmly believe Ben 14 15 Lawsky will balance the needs of the consumer to probably combine the most important industries in 16 the State of New York, insurance and banking. 17 18 And he will do that I think in a seamless way, 19 making all of us proud of him for hopefully 20 unanimously approving him in several minutes. 21 I wish you every success. 22 delighted to see your family with you on this most happy day. 23 24 Thank you very much, Mr. President. 25 ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Thank you, Senator Breslin. 1 2 Senator Farley, on the nomination. 3 SENATOR FARLEY: Thank you, 4 Mr. President. I also rise to second this 5 nomination. You know, as somebody who's been 6 7 involved in the banking area for over three decades, this was a merger that many thought 8 might not ever happen, putting two cats in a 9 10 bag. It was a very difficult situation. And as I followed the negotiations, 11 12 Ben Lawsky proved the example that he is as a brilliant lawyer, a brilliant negotiator. And he 13 made something that was very much a part of the 14 15 Governor's platform for consolidation, in the 16 largest merger that I have seen in all my years in the Senate. 17 18 And Ben Lawsky not only has a background that is so vast for a young man, and 19 20 he knows the Legislature, he knows the Executive, 21 he knows the Attorney General's office, he knows 22 so much about state government and federal 23 government. And as we look at this merger, it's 24 25 so important that banking, which New York State has always been the leader of the whole nation --

     and the world, for that matter. But, you know, banking has been somewhat diminished because of the feds eating our lunch, if you will. And I know that it's so important for Mr. Lawsky that he protect the state charter and encourage banking to grow and prosper in this great state, because it is a wealth source and we are an 8 example to the rest of the nation. All of the 9 10 great legislation that has happened in banking throughout the United States has emanated from 11
 4
     New York State.
12 13
                  I think that Governor Cuomo has 14 really given up his prize counsel and one of the 15 most brilliant people that has ever served the government to take on the Department of Financial 16 Services and make it an example for the whole 17 18 nation.
19
                  We're very proud of your career.
20 look forward to working with you. And, Ben, all the best to you and your lovely family.
21
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
22
                                              Thank
     you, Senator Farley.
23
                  Senator Smith on the nomination.
24
25
                  SENATOR SMITH:
                                   Thank you very

much, Mr. President.

Colleagues, I rise today also to second the nomination of Ben Lawsky. Allow me to first recognize the caliber of the individuals that our Governor has selected to steer some of the more critical agencies that will be impacting and affecting the lives of the people that we represent in our districts.

Mr. Lawsky, as many have heard about his background, academia as well as practical experience, is heading one of the premier agencies that the Governor has focused on with regard to more transparency, efficiency, and consumer protection.

Putting together the Insurance and the Banking Department is a very forward-thinking effort by the Governor. And his choosing of Mr. Lawsky, who has a tremendous background not only in what he has done for dealing with the student loan issue, but also as it relates to the foreclosure market, clearly represents a selection that has one with a tremendous amount of respect for an industry that you will be covering.

To your wife, Jessica,

1 congratulations to you. I know you have stood by 2 his side for many years as he moves into a tremendous career. And I'm sure with this new 3 4 chapter in his life, you will be there along with 5 your lovely children. Your mother and father, Vivian and 6 7 Dr. Alan, obviously they have taught you well. And they should be proud, because as they sit in 8 this audience in a chamber that is revered by 9 10 many in the country and around the world, this is a big day for the Lawsky family. 11 12 So I stand on this floor, Mr. President, not only to congratulate the 13 Governor on his selection, not only to 14 15 congratulate Ben on all of the stellar work that he has performed as an advocate for the public, 16 but more importantly to congratulate his mother 17 18 and father and his wife. Because it is that foundation and support that makes a man who he 19 20 If you were not there for him, he would not be able to do the things that he does for so many 21 22 other people who are now part of his extended family. 23 Congratulations to you, God bless 24 25 you to you and your family, and we will keep you in our prayers as you continue to do your stellar 1 2

     work.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 3 Thank 4 you, Senator Smith.
 5 Any other Senator wishing to be heard on the nomination?
 6
 7 Seeing none, the question is on the 8 nomination of Benjamin M. Lawsky as 9 superintendent of the Department of Financial Services. All in favor signify by saying aye.
10 (Response of "Aye.")
11 12
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Opposed, 13 nay.
14
                  (No response.)
15
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Benjamin 16
     M. Lawsky is hereby confirmed as superintendent of the Department of Financial Services.
17 18 Congratulations, Mr. Lawsky.
19 (Applause.) 20
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
21 Congratulations.
22
                  And joining Mr. Lawsky today is his wife, Jessica; his children, Mo and Lexie; his 23 mother and father, Vivian and Alan Lawsky.
24
25
     Welcome to the Senate chamber today.
```

1 Senator DeFrancisco.
 2 SENATOR DEFRANCISCO: I'd now like 3 to move the nomination, as a member of the Small 4 Business Advisory Board, of James S. Alesi, of 5 East Rochester, New York.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
 6 7 question is on the nomination. All in favor 8 signify by saying aye.
 9 (Response of "Aye.")
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
10 Opposed, 11 nay.
12
                  (No response.)
13
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              The
     nomination is hereby confirmed.
14 15 Senator DeFrancisco.
16 SENATOR DEFRANCISCO: I'd like to move as a group the next nominations, first to 17 18
     the Mental Health Services Council, and then 19 we'll do the next group as a group, none of whom 20 need to appear today.
21
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Without 22 objection, we'll move the entire group of 23 appointees.
                  SENATOR DEFRANCISCO:
24 Excuse me.
25
     Just so I'm clear, there's two appointees to the
```

```
Mental Health Services Council. I'd like to move 1 2
     those two first.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 3
                                              The 4 question is on the nomination of the two members 5 to the Mental Health Services Council. All those in favor signify by saying aye.
 6
 7 (Response of "Aye.")
 8
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Opposed, 9
     nay.
10
                  (No response.)
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
11
                                              The 12 nominations are hereby confirmed of Glenn A.
     Martin and Ann Marie Theresa Sullivan to the 13 Mental Health Services Council.
14 15 Senator DeFrancisco.
16 SENATOR DEFRANCISCO: Now I'd like to move as a group the members of the Public 17
18 Health Planning Council. And I request that you would read each of their names so that it's clear
20 who we're voting on. Thank you.
21
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              The 22 question is on the nominations to the Public 23 Health Planning Council of Jeffery A. Kraut, of East Meadow; Victoria Godwin Hines, of Fairport; 24
25 Christopher C. Booth, of Pittsford; Ann Marie

     of the Bronx; Ellen E. Grant, of Grand Island;
     John Rugge, of Queensbury; and Glenn A. Martin, 6
     of Forest Hills. The question is on these 8 individuals' nomination to the Public Health 9 Planning Council. All those in favor signify by 10 saying aye.
                  (Response of "Aye.")
11
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:

                  Senator Libous.
                  SENATOR LIBOUS:
 3
                                     Thank you,
 4
     Mr. President. At this time I have a number of 5 motions I need to read.
                  Mr. President, on behalf of Senator
 6
 7
     Lanza, I move to commit Senate Print Number 5290, Calendar Number 761 on the order of third 8 reading, and commit it to the Finance Committee, 9 10
     please.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
11
                                              So 12 ordered.
                  SENATOR LIBOUS: On behalf of 13 14 Senator O. Johnson, on page 47 I offer the 15 following amendments to Calendar Number 708, Senate Print number 5086, and ask that said bill 16 retain its place on the Third Reading Calendar.
17 18
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              The
     amendments are received, and the bill will retain 19 20
     its place on Third Reading Calendar.
                  SENATOR LIBOUS: Mr. President, on 21 behalf of Senator Grisanti, on page 48 I offer 22 the following amendments to Calendar Number 720, 23 Senate Print 5332, and ask that said bill retain 24 25
     its place on the Third Reading Calendar.

ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
 1
                                              The 2 amendments are received, and the bill will retain 3 its place on the Third Reading Calendar.
 4
                  SENATOR LIBOUS: And,
 5
     Mr. President, on behalf of Senator Hannon, on page 32 I offer the following amendments to 6 Calendar Number 524, Senate Print 4875A, and ask 7 that said bill retain its place on the Third 8 Reading Calendar.
 9 10
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              The
     amendments are received, and the bill will retain 11 12
     its place on the Third Reading Calendar.
13 SENATOR LIBOUS: Mr. President, at 14 this time may we please adopt the Resolution 15
     Calendar, with the exception of Resolutions Number 1873, 1915, 1922, and 1948.
16
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: All in 17 18 favor of adopting the Resolution Calendar, with 19 the exceptions of Resolutions 1873, 1915, 1922, 20 and 1948, please signify by saying aye.
21 (Response of "Aye.")
22
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Opposed,
23
     nay.

                  Senator Libous.
 3
                  SENATOR LIBOUS:
                                     Thank you,
     Mr. President.
 4
 5 At this time could we please read in its entirety Resolution Number 1948, which is at the desk. And then if you could call on me and 8 then Senator Breslin before we adopt it.
 7
 9
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              The 10 Secretary will read.

Libous on the resolution.

SENATOR LIBOUS: Mr. President, I appreciate the applause.

Mr. President, later on this evening we will be taking part, all 62 members of this house will be taking part in a ceremony that will honor the women that were mentioned in the Senate resolution.

They come from a number of various backgrounds and professions, but what's most important about what was mentioned by all of these outstanding individuals is that they have given to their communities and asked to take nothing back.

And the more that they have given to their communities, because of the wonderful things that they have done -- whether it be in education, working in our school libraries, physical therapy, working in our hospitals, just a plain community activist doing what's right for the community, doing what's right for the neighborhood that they live in, or a member of the farming and agricultural community -- they have dedicated their lives and their time and their commitment to making this a better state and to making their communities a better place to live.

Later on this evening when we go to the ceremony at 5:30 in the Well, we will hear about the outstanding individuals that are up in the gallery today, we will hear about their accomplishments. And some of the stories are heart-wrenching. Some of them are very touching. Some will make us laugh, and some will make us cry because of the wonderful things that they've done.

So, Mr. President, it is indeed an honor to stand before this body today to speak on this resolution, to honor the outstanding women that are with us today and that will be with us later this evening as we have our ceremony.

ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Thank you, Senator Libous.

Senator Breslin on the resolution.

SENATOR BRESLIN: Thank you,

Mr. President. I join with Senator Libous in acknowledging the Women of Distinction.

Each year we hope that we take our job seriously, but when we enter into the process of seeking out Women of Distinction, as you might imagine, there are a number of extraordinary 1 2 candidates for that distinction. And the biographies of the Women of Distinction this year 3

     I think humble all of us with what they have done
 5 in the various aspects of their lives.
                  Most of it narrows down, no matter
 6 7 what business you're in or what profession you're in, it's making the lives of your neighbors
 8
              It's the singular element throughout the 9 better.
10 biographies that impressed me about this group.
                  And we will have the opportunity 11 later, as Senator Libous said, to highlight each 12
     individual Woman of Distinction. But we are delighted to have you here with us, and we look forward to later being able to honor each and every one of you in a special way.
16
17 Congratulations from the entire 18 Senate.

     know. Otherwise, everybody's name will be on it. Thank you, Mr. President.
 3
 4
                  Mr. President, at this time there's 5 a resolution at the desk by Senator Valesky, Number 1915. Could you please read its title and then call on Senator Valesky.
 7
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
 8
                                             The 9 Secretary will read.
10
                  THE SECRETARY: Legislative Resolution Number 1915, by Senator Valesky, 11 12 memorializing Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim May 2011 as Older Americans Month in the 13
     State of New York.
14 15
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                             Senator Valesky.
16
17
                  SENATOR VALESKY: Thank you, 18
     Mr. President.
19
                  This year we continue a tradition 20 here in the State Capitol to memorialize our 21 Governor to proclaim May as Older Americans Month here in New York State. And we do so as a way to 22 recognize the numerous contributions from older 23 Americans, from senior citizens across New York 24
25 State.

I'm sure each and every one of us in our own Senate districts can think of dozens and dozens of older Americans who go out of their way to make a difference of in the lives of all who live in communities across our state.

As part of our recognition today, in the Blue Room here in the Capitol, the Legislature joined with the State Office of the Aging to honor specific individuals from across New York State -- many of them are with us today in the gallery -- as outstanding seniors who go above and beyond the call in their own communities. We also presented awards to the Senior Citizen of the Year -- Ardie Bennett, of Ithaca -- and the Outstanding Contribution by a Senior Citizen -- Diane Pomeroy, of Spring Valley -- and other awardees from each of the counties across the State of New York.

So, Mr. President, I also would move that this resolution be opened for cosponsorship by all members of the house and would ask that you extend the courtesies of the house to our visitors here who are making such a difference in the lives of so many New Yorkers.

Thank you, Mr. President.

```
ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Thank
 1 2
     you, Senator Valesky.
                  The question is on the resolution.

                  (No response.)
 9
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              The 10 resolution is adopted.
                  Per Senator Valesky's request, the 11 resolution will be open for all members. Anyone 12 not wishing to be on it please see the desk.
13 Congratulations and welcome to the 14 15 Senate chamber today. And we extend to you the 16 courtesies of the house and thank you for being here.

                  SENATOR LIBOUS:
                                    Thank you,
     Mr. President.
22
                  I believe at this time Senator 23 Huntley has Resolution Number 1922. She would 24
     like it, please, read in its entirety, and if you

Janice Reiff was very important to me.

During the time of her passing, we were doing the budget and I was not able to go down to the funeral. I had to make the decision of what Janice actually would want me to do. And because she was an educator and someone who cared about people and children in our schools, I made the decision to stay here and vote on the educational budget.

So since that time, I have thought about her and I've spoke to her sister, Arlene. And Janice and I basically were like sisters. She's a person I can actually tell you I loved very much. She loved people. She had a great, great personality. She didn't think about herself, she wasn't selfish. She was a regular person.

And her and I used to laugh because when we'd have certain conversations, she'd always say to me, "You know, there's a lot of Jew in you." And I'd say to her, "Well, you know, we're mixed up here and there, because there's something else in you too." So those are the kind of conversations that we would have.

We shared a lot. We lunched regularly. We've done committees together.

We've done things with different organizations.
 1 And I truly miss her. And I know that 2 District 28, the school district which I 3 4 represent, will also miss her.
 5
                  And you know, I stand here and I talk about her and our other dear friend Neil 6
 7 Shanahan, who was here the day I was installed, who also passed away a few years ago with cancer, 8 and we were like a threesome. And I truly, truly 9 10
     loved both of them, and they loved me.
     will think about her for the rest of my life.
11 12
                  So again, I welcome her sister Arlene, who's there, and Alan.
13
14
                  And listen, when people pass away we 15 all know that deep feeling that you have in your heart for a very long time. But eventually -- it 16 never goes, but you just live with it.
17
18
                  And again, I thank them for coming.
     And I just want Janice to know -- I'm sure she's 19 20
     looking down -- that we love her, respect her,
     and she's really, really missed.
21
22
                  Thank you.

Senator 1 ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 2 Kennedy. 3 SENATOR KENNEDY: Thank you, Mr. President. 4 5 I'm very proud to commend the Erie County Council VFW and Ladies Auxiliary upon the 6 7 occasion of their 77th Annual Convention. West Seneca VFW Post 8113 hosted the event this 8 9 past weekend. 10 The Erie County Council VFW has made countless contributions to the Western New York 11 12 veteran community, and they are most deserving of our praise. 13 The impact the Veterans of Foreign 14 15 Wars organization has made on our nation's history is impressive and inspiring. The VFW's 16 voice has been instrumental in securing the 17 18 rights and benefits that our nation owes our 19 veterans. American veterans risk their lives to 20 serve our nation and protect our freedom, and 21 when they return home it's our duty to protect 22 and serve our veterans and their families. organization has played a critical role in 23 establishing the Veterans Administration, 24 creating the GI Bill, developing the national 25 cemetery system, and fighting for compensation 1 2 for disabled veterans. The vision of the VFW is to, quote, 3 4 ensure that veterans are respected for their 5 service, always receive their earned entitlements, and are recognized for the 6 7 sacrifices they and their loved ones have made on 8 behalf of this great country. That is a vision 9 that I share and that my colleagues in the 10 New York State Senate share along with the VFW. 11 I am honored to extend my 12 appreciation and gratitude to the VFW and to the Erie County Council VFW and Ladies Auxiliary for 13 14 all that they have done to protect and serve 15 New York veterans. And I am proud to vote my 16 commitment and the commitment of this chamber to our state's veterans. 17 18 Congratulations again to the Erie County Council VFW and Ladies Auxiliary, and 19 20 thank you to all the veterans of this honorable 21 body and to this great state and nation. 22 Thank you. Thank ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 23 you, Senator Kennedy. 24 25 The question is on the resolution.

                  First, before I do that, I just want to acknowledge a couple of my colleagues who were 19 20 instrumental in helping me with this bill.
     First, Senator Pat Gallivan, the former sheriff 21
     of Erie County, whose knowledge of the system was just invaluable in getting this bill here. And 23 also Senator Diane Savino, the chairperson of the 24
25 Children and Family Services Committee, and her knowledge of the system in the City of New York in protecting people who are unable to care for themselves.

Mr. President, this law is being passed in memory of a young woman by the name of Laura Cummings. And this bill, just very briefly, is going to allow social services caseworkers greater access, the ability to have access to court orders to get inside of an establishment or a home, a private home, where they may have been denied access.

The second portion of this bill is going to allow information to be shared between different segments of a Social Services Department, the Child Protective Services section and the Adult Protective Services section. And I'll explain why in a minute.

And the final section of this bill provides for criminal penalties for individuals who may deny access inside a residence, access by Social Services to a particular individual.

The case of Laura Cummings is one of the most tragic ever to touch Western New York.

In November of 2010, Eva Cummings, Laura's mother, was sentenced to 53 years in prison for torturing, beating, brutally suffocating and murdering her 23-year-old disabled daughter Laura. Laura's brother, Luke Wright, this morning in Buffalo was sentenced to 40 years to life in prison for being an accessory to that torture, repeated rapes. What they did to Laura Cummings was just unbelievable and beyond description, the horrific nature of Laura's life and the tragedy of her death.

Several times brave neighbors, other relatives would go to the Department of Social Services, would go to the authorities and say "Something is not right in that house." Laura, who was mentally disabled, was an adult in years but a child in her mental capacity. Neighbors, as I said, and other family members would say that she was being abused. And all the times that first Child Protective Services, then Adult Protective Services tried to get inside that house, they were denied access.

The system didn't work for Laura.

Hopefully with this bill, with the support of all my colleagues, hopefully an instance like this will never, ever happen again anywhere.

So I would ask all my colleagues to support me in passing this legislation. I would 2 ask and plead with my colleagues in the other house -- we have a majority sponsor in the other

1
 4 house. We have a lot of support, many cosponsors 5 in the other house. Clearly, if this bill made it to the floor in the other house, it would pass. This is something that's needed.
     going to protect people who are unable to protect 8 9 themselves.
10
                  It comes too late for Laura.
                                                 Ιt comes too late for this beautiful young girl who 11 lived obviously a very horrific life at the hands 12 of her mother and her brother.
13
                  Mr. President, I vote in the 14 15 affirmative. Thank you.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Thank 16 you, Senator Maziarz. You will be recorded in 17 18 the affirmative.
19
                  SENATOR MAZIARZ:
                                     I ask that you 20
     please recognize Senator Gallivan.
21

     Grisanti is ahead of Senator Gallivan.
22 Senator Grisanti, do you wish to 24

25
                  SENATOR GRISANTI:
                                      Yes, just

briefly. 1 2 I want to commend Senator Maziarz 3 for bringing and sponsoring this legislation. 4 The bottom line, quite simply, is this. Access 5 to this home would have saved Laura's life, simple access. 6 7 The bill will now allow this access 8 to the home to ensure that there is no abuse of 9 children or adults that are under county program 10 supervision. CPS and APS now will have these tools to gain access. It doesn't make up for any 11 12 excuses that happened in the Laura Cummings 13 There were on the books, under Federal Court Act and other acts, and New York law that 14 15 allowed access. This now makes it a little bit 16 more clearer for them to go forward to have access to these houses to protect children and 17 18 adults. I vote in the affirmative. 19 20 ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Senator 21 Grisanti to be recorded in the affirmative. 22 Senator Gallivan to explain his 23 vote. 24 SENATOR GALLIVAN: Thank you, 25 Mr. President.

I would also like to thank Senator Maziarz and Senator Savino for their leadership on this issue.

This is just a terrible, tragic case. It would be heartbreaking under any circumstances, but made much worse by the fact that Laura Cummings' life could have been saved, she would not have suffered with a better system and a more appropriate response.

This legislation attempts to fix those things to make sure that these same mistakes are never made again and those that fail to cooperate with an investigation are held accountable.

Children and impaired adults are some of our state's most vulnerable citizens. We of course have a responsibility to try to protect them. This bill seeks to offer them the maximum protections possible against anybody who might try to abuse them, and to ensure that government agencies act in time to save others who might find themselves in the same situation as Laura Cummings.

I'm hopeful that we won't have any more Laura Cummings, that we won't have any more abuse of this type. And I'm asking all my colleagues to join in support. Senator Maziarz, 3 in this legislation do what you can to encourage 4 the Assembly to pass this legislation. I vote in 5

 2
     the affirmative.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
 6
                                              Senator
 7 Gallivan to be recorded in the affirmative.
 8
                  Senator Kennedy to explain his vote.
 9 SENATOR KENNEDY:
                                     Thank you, 10
     Mr. President.
11 This is extraordinarily tragic. And extraordinarily disturbing. First and foremost, 12
     I want to thank the bill sponsor, Senator 13 14
     Maziarz, for bringing this to the floor today.
15
                  You know, it's tragically ironic that the sentence was handed down today to the 16 perpetrator of the abuse and the murder of Laura 17
18 Cummings on the same day that we pass a bill in her honor and in her memory.
19 20 Laura Cummings' life ended in unthinkable pain and unthinkable suffering.
21
     a heartbreaking tragedy that should never happen again and that, by the passage of this bill today 23 in this house and in the Assembly, we can prevent 24 25 from every happening again.

Her story is made even more tragic by the fact that Child and Adult Protective Services failed Laura Cummings. This suffering could have ended and Laura's life could have been saved if only protective services intervened as they should have.

Today we honor her memory by passing important legislation in her name, legislation that will keep the vulnerable safe and help to save lives. New York needs to do all that we can do to protect the most vulnerable members of our society. This bill will help prevent such devastating cases of abuse of children and impaired adults, and it will hold people accountable, most importantly, if they fail to protect the safety of those most in need of our help.

Keeping New Yorkers safe must always remain a primary focus of this body. And while it's too late to save Laura's life, tragically, this bill will protect New York's most vulnerable and help save the lives of many, moving forward, and help protect those from needless suffering.

Thank you again to the bill's sponsor and those that helped to make this legislation possible. And thank you, 1

 2
     Mr. President.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 3
                                              Senator
 4
     Kennedy will be recorded in the affirmative.
 5 Senator Montgomery to explain your 6 vote.
 7 SENATOR MONTGOMERY: Yes, thank you, Mr. President.
 8 9
                  I am certainly intending to vote yes 10 on this legislation, and I certainly appreciate the attention that Senator Maziarz is paying to
12
     this extremely difficult and important issue.
                  I certainly do caution, however,
13 14 that it's a situation where vulnerable people, 15 most often young children, are in a situation that is of danger to them where they are tortured 16 or neglected or abused in some way and very often 17 18 we cannot get to them. It is, in many, many 19 instances -- I certainly have had a number of 20 cases in my own district where children end up being killed by someone in their home.
21 can't seem to deal with the situation until the 22 person, the child, has been killed and we are 23 looking for answers and excuses and approaches.
24
25
     And very, very often -- too often, I think -- we end up trying to address it through the criminal justice system.

And that has not worked. It will never work. I believe that one of the things that we must do, and I hope that we will do in the very, very near future, is look to building a system that seeks early intervention through signals that we all know are stress signals in a family that will allow us to intervene into situations, whether they are adults of children, early enough to protect them and save their lives, and at the same time provide a support system for the families so that they are strengthened as opposed to attempting to penalize people and to do punishment as opposed to prevention and public assistance to families in stress.

And so I certainly am going to vote yes on this, but I hope that there is not an assumption that this satisfies the need for families in our state who, for whatever reasons, find themselves in a situation where they endanger their own loved ones because of the stresses involved.

So thank you, Senator Maziarz, for paying attention to it. And certainly I look 2 forward to when we can begin to address this problem systemically, systematically, as opposed to piecemeal, as we have tried to do in the past.

1
 4

20 I'd like to begin my remarks by 21 letting everyone know that as of the close of business last Friday, the price of crude oil was 22 just around a hundred dollars a barrel, depending 23 on the contract. And this will come in handy 24
     later on in my remarks.

entertaining here today is at best a temporary relief at the gas pumps, simply understood as a Band-Aid to a very complex problem. In fact, it's only a relief if gas stations and other retailers do not maintain elevated prices or increase replacement costs in order to augment for profit. That's why many are skeptical that this measure will just be another windfall for the gasoline industry, being that the state will lose around $60 million.

Nevertheless, we must take all available opportunities to help ease the pressure on working families. There have been countless news stories and reports in recent days and weeks describing the pain that working families are going through, stories of families deciding whether they should put gas in their car or whether they should buy food for their table.

And here's just a sampling of some of the hurt that our families are going through and are facing throughout the State of New York.

Over the last year, prices have increased throughout the state and they've increased substantially. In Albany, New York, they've increased by $1.10. In Binghamton, they've 1 2 increased by $1.05. In Buffalo/Niagara Falls, 3 they've increased by $1.03. In Nassau, they've 4 increased by $1.15. In New York City, they've 5 increased by $1.16. In Rochester, by $1.03. In Syracuse, by $1.00. In Utica/Rome, $1.05. 6 7 Part of helping working families is taking every measure to ensure that families are 8 not gouged at the pump, especially by the 9 10 practice of fluctuating gas prices within a 24-hour window. This practice, often masked as 11 12 replacement or anticipated replacement costs, is 13 a common practice to increase profits. This legislation or this amendment 14 15 that I am proposing has passed the Assembly in 2010 by a margin of 144-1; in 2009, by a vote of 16 147-0; in 2008, by 140-0. And it's getting ready 17 18 to pass again this week. 19 This legislation would end the 20 practice of elevating or increasing oil prices within a 24-hour period. This legislation will 21 22 make it unlawful for anyone engaged in the sale of motor fuel to increase the price of any grade 23 or quality of motor fuel sold at a retail outlet 24 more than once in a 24-hour period. This measure will help prevent the fleecing of New Yorkers when they go to fill up their cars.

As we all know, our economy has gone through troubling times. We have seen the mortgage foreclosure issue, we have seen high unemployment rates, we have seen Wall Street crumble and try to get back on its feet.

Increased gasoline prices could derail continued economic recovery. We must take all measures, whether small or significant, to prevent this from occurring.

And while the gasoline market and the components that make up the market are some of the fastest and the most volatile markets in the world, the market does not move so fast to feel the need to increase prices several times a day. The practice of increasing gasoline prices has to do with increasing profits for retailers and not covering increased costs. Multiple price increases during a single day is part of a broader set of price-gouging and manipulation practices that take advantage of rapidly moving prices.

And that's why in New York, right here, Attorney General Eric Schneiderman has recently announced a formal examination of gas prices throughout New York. This investigation will compile data on the prices charged by gas retailers and information on the chain of distribution to determine the cause behind the recent spikes.

That's why, nationally, Attorney

General Eric Holder recently created the Oil and Gas Price Fraud Working Group, which will identify civil or criminal violations into oil and gasoline markets. This group will coordinate and foster cooperation between the Department of Justice and other relevant agencies, including state attorney generals.

We must move on this measure today because, as has been noted, we are set to begin the heavy driving season now during Memorial Day. As we all know, gas prices are determined by a few key factors, including the cost of crude oil, which is the most significant, which is made up of 61 percent of the price; the cost of refining the crude oil into gasoline, which is made up of 11 percent of the price; sales tax imposed by the federal government and the state government, which makes up about 18 percent of the price; and the cost of getting the gasoline to the retailer and its storage, which is about 10 percent of the price.

And while gas prices are mostly determined by supply, demand, competition and profit, manipulating the market to get to a set profit is absolutely wrong.

Preventing the increase of prices more than once during a 24-hour window will enable consumers to make educated spending decisions and help cushion the impact of rapid price increases.

This measure is also necessary because the market does not always set prices according to cost or supply and demand. This is highlighted by the near record high in the cost of consumer gasoline prices despite falling crude oil prices. In fact, the price of crude oil in February of this year was $113 a barrel, and like I mentioned earlier, has since dropped to just around $100 a barrel just a few days ago. Yet the cost for regular gas in February was $3.40, and today it remains at $4.20, about 80 cents higher since we reached a cruel oil price high.

In fact, according to Moody experts, for every dollar that crude oil is increased, the 1 2 consumer pays on average 2.5 cents more at the 3 gas pump. So if this is the case when you 4 increase crude oil, why isn't it the reverse when 5 you decrease crude oil? The measure that we propose here 6 7 today is not extraordinary. Other states have followed suit -- Wisconsin, New Jersey, and the 8 City of New York has done so as well. They have 9 10 laws banning more than one increase in prices 11 during a 24-hour period. 12 I hope my colleagues will join me in this amendment in providing some relief to the 13 14 fragile economy and to all New Yorkers. 15 although today we're considering a temporary Band-Aid, we need a permanent solution to this 16 common practice that leads to price gouging. 17 18 Thank you, Mr. President. ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Thank 19 20 you, Senator Peralta. I have reviewed your amendment at 21 the desk, conferred with counsel, and ruled that 22 your amendment is not germane to the bill and is 23

Senate Rule VI, Section 4B, provides therefore out of order.

23
                  SENATOR BRESLIN: A show of hands, please, Mr. President. A show of hands, if we could.
25
```

```
ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: A show of 1 2 hands has been requested.
                  Those in favor of overruling the
 4 chair please signify by raising your hand.
 5
                  The Secretary will announce the results.
 6
 7
                  THE SECRETARY:
                                    Ayes, 28.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
 8
                                              The
     ruling of the chair stands.
9 10
                  Senator Ball on the bill.
                  SENATOR BALL: 11
                                   Thank you,
     Mr. President.
12
13
                  You know, we know that we right now are living in one of the worst economies and 14 15 economic crises that we've seen since the Great Depression. And it has been suggested, at least 16 today, that this is a Band-Aid. And there is no 17 18 doubt that there is a larger problem where we 19 live in a nation that is chronically addicted to 20 foreign oil -- that it is not only an economic issue but it's also, at its very heart, a 21 homeland security issue.
22
                  Above and beyond that great debate, 23 we have blue-collar families here in New York 24
25
     State that really and truly are having to decide the difference between filling up their tank, 1 2 buying food, making a mortgage payment. 3 are certain people who are realizing that it 4 doesn't even pay them to get a job because of the 5 cost of what it takes to fill up that tank. And I think it's entirely important 6 7 that the people of this state, with nearly 2 million have left, many of those 2 million have 8 left because of the taxation, the overregulation, 9 10 and the openly inhospitable environment, not only for small business owners but for working 11 12 families and blue-collar people who really have always made this state great. 13 14 And I think it's important that we 15 send a very clear message and a very clear signal, as a body and as a Legislature, that we 16 understand, that we feel the concerns of the 17 18 people in this state. And whether it be a Band-Aid or a tourniquet, it is well beyond the 19 20 time where this State Legislature should respond 21 to the concerns and the needs of the people in New York. 22 ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 23 Can we 24 have order in the chamber, please.
```

This gas tax holiday

SENATOR BALL:

1 will send that exact message. And I tell you,
     when they see a reduction at the pumps of nearly 33 cents, and possibly more with the local option, it will put in the back of their head how 5 these prices have been inflated over time because of overtaxation. And in my opinion, that will be a very good thing.
 4
 7
 8
                  So I want to thank those who support this piece of legislation. And it's certainly a great step forward during this very important summer holiday season.
10
11 12
                  Thank you.
13
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Senator
14 Liz Krueger.
15
                  SENATOR KRUEGER:
                                     Thank you.
                                                  Will
     the sponsor please yield, Mr. President.
16
17
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Senator
18
     Ball, will you yield?
19
                  SENATOR BALL:
                                  Sure. Yes.
20
                  SENATOR KRUEGER:
                                     Thank you.
21
                  So I heard the sponsor explain and 22 support his bill and that it would save people money. How much do we estimate that people will 23 save through this tax holiday period in their gas 24 25 bill?
```

```
1
                                  The typical family
                  SENATOR BALL:
 2 could expect to save approximately $100. And it's approximately $5 to $6 every time that you fill up.
 4
 5 SENATOR KRUEGER: Mr. President, if through you the sponsor will continue to yield.
 6
 7
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                             Do you 8 yield, Senator Ball?
 9
                  SENATOR BALL:
                                 Yes.
10
                  SENATOR KRUEGER:
                                     What's the total number of days this tax holiday would apply to?
11
                                  It's 12 days total.
12
                  SENATOR BALL:
                  SENATOR KRUEGER: 13
                                     Thank you.
14
     Mr. President, if the sponsor would continue to 15 yield.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 16
                                             Do you continue to yield, Senator Ball?
17 18
                  SENATOR BALL:
                                  Yes.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 19
                                              The 20
     Senator yields.
21
                  SENATOR KRUEGER:
                                     Thank you,
22
     Mr. President.
23
                  So the estimate is 12 days, 33 cents 24 per gallon, and he's proposing a hundred 25 dollars? How many gallons of gas is he
```

3421

estimating the average person uses in a 12-day 1 2 period?
 3 SENATOR BALL: Seventeen gallons to 4 fill up.
 5
                  SENATOR KRUEGER:
                                     Seventeen gallons per fill-up times 33 cents is approximately $6.
 6
     Mr. President, in order for them to save $100, 7 they'd have to fill up their tank how many times 8 during a 12-day period?
 9 10
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Is that a 11 question?
12
                  SENATOR KRUEGER: You're right.
     Fair enough. It's not a question of you, 13
     Mr. President.
14
15 Would the sponsor please explain to me how many times they would have to fill up, at 16 a savings of $6 per fill-up, to save $100 during 17 18 12 days?
19
                  SENATOR BALL: Okay.
                                         So, 20
     Mr. President, we're talking about two cars per 21 household. We're talking about two fill-ups per 22 period. And in that estimate we're also 23 including the local option. We have 33 cents from the state level, but above and beyond that, 24 25 this legislation also allows municipalities to
```

```
opt in as well. And the estimate is a hit of 1 over $60 million at the state level, but the -- 2 it could be, you know, between $60 to $70 million 3 4 is the estimate that we've been getting.
 5 SENATOR KRUEGER: Mr. President, if 6 the sponsor would continue to yield.
 7
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Do you 8 continue to yield, Senator Ball?
 9
                  SENATOR BALL: Sure.
10
                  SENATOR KRUEGER: Particularly because it's a holiday period and we love having 11 12 tourists come to New York during a holiday period, would we give this tax break to visitors 13 14 to New York State as well as New York State 15 residents?
16 SENATOR BALL: Mr. President, this savings would be to those who are coming into the 17 18
     state.
19
                  And there were concerns initially 20 that I also had as placing this burden onto the 21 retailers. But those issues have been addressed 22 in this legislation.
                  So it would indeed include those who 23 come to New York State. And I can tell you that 24 25 in my district, where we're right on the border,
```

I think that you could actually see an increase 1 2 in economic activity. 3 So while you may have an impact of over $60 million a hit to the General Fund at the 4 5 direction of the Comptroller because of the increase in economic activity to the state, we 6 7 could actually see revenues increase overall. SENATOR KRUEGER: Mr. President, I 8 believe that the sponsor did already state that 9 10 his tax holiday would cost the state $60 million. I believe that's what he said. 11 12 What are we cutting out of the state budget to make up for the loss of $60 million? 13 14 ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Do you 15 continue to yield? SENATOR BALL: Yes, Mr. President. 16 17 It was a great conservative 18 Republican, Jack Kennedy, who cut taxes during his administration at the federal level and 19 20 actually realized that by doing so that revenues overall -- actually, he was a Democrat, I'm 21 22 sorry -- and then saw revenues increase overall because of economic activity. 23 At the end of the day, this state --24 25 and I believe it was a Democratic Governor has suggested that this state no longer has a future of being number one in overall taxation, number one in all the wrong ways.

And it has been suggested on the other side that this is merely a Band-Aid approach anyways. We're talking about a very small chunk of money which will go a very long way for the blue-collar families -- Democrat, Republican, vegetarian, vegan, and everywhere in between -- that are struggling to make ends meet.

So I believe that because of increased economic activity, especially during these holiday periods -- and, as you have just suggested, folks coming from out of state to come to this great state to take advantage of this great discount, which certainly will get a lot of press -- that we will actually see the coffers increase.

And let us remember that New York

State government should not be happy nor smile at the misery of taxpayers as sales tax revenues increase over which they have no control.

SENATOR KRUEGER: Mr. President, if the sponsor would continue to yield.

ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 1 Do you 2 continue to yield, Senator Ball? 3 SENATOR BALL: Yes, Mr. President. 4 SENATOR KRUEGER: While I 5 appreciate the discussion of the political party of the great President Jack Kennedy and the 6 7 broad, global impact for vegans and vegetarians from sales tax, right now, if we pass this bill, 8 what does the sponsor intend for us to cut out of 9 10 the state budget? Because it takes $60 million 11 away from money intended for our roads and 12 bridges. 13 Mr. President, this SENATOR BALL: 14 is a great example, for the three or four people 15 who are watching on TV today, of philosophical 16 differences. And it is my belief, and I believe 17 18 many on this side, that by freeing up the private 19 enterprise, by cutting taxes on blue-collar 20 families, by providing economic activity, we will actually see an increase in revenues. 21 22 our philosophy. So there will be no need to cut any further. 23 In fact, it is our contention and my 24 25 belief that because of the cut in taxes and because of the attention brought to these gas-tax 1 2 holidays that we will actually see an increase in overall revenue projection. That's just a very 3 clear difference of that side versus this side.

 4
 5
                  SENATOR KRUEGER:
                                      Thank you.
                  Mr. President, I think Senator Ball
 6 7 is right, the people who are watching -- 8 hopefully more than three or four; there's certainly more than three or four of us here in 9 10 the chamber -- will see that there's a philosophical difference.
11 12 I am extremely concerned about passing a bill that would have an immediate loss 13 of funding for the State of New York without 14 15 explaining what we're going to cut in our budget 16 to make up for that loss of money.
17
                  So again, I would like Senator Ball 18 to please clarify to me what he is proposing we 19 cut out of our budget specifically to make up for 20 the loss of $60 million intended for our roads 21 and bridges in this year's budget.
22
                  SENATOR BALL:
                                  Mr. President.
23
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Senator Ball.
24
25
                  SENATOR BALL: At this point I'm going to answer this one more time, because I understand that sometimes I don't always possess the ability to communicate to the best of my ability. So I'm going to be very clear on this. And it was even suggested by the Senator when she asked about tourists coming from out of state.

Our legislative body has the opportunity today, as well as the Assembly, to move forward and say the Empire State is back, we're open for business. We want tourists, we want folks in the border areas to come to New York State to take your stay-vacation, to take your vacation and come to New York State.

And in order to incentivize that, we are going to cut the gas tax on the method by which you actually can get and travel around this state by a whopping 33 cents. When the local municipalities opt in, you're talking about nearly 50 cents. That's no small dollar added up over time.

By doing that, we will see tourists coming into New York State. And I can tell you that while some of us may not believe it, in my blue-collar community I see an awful lot of people using coupons. I see a lot of gas stations -- there's one gas station in particular, they try to have a bare-bones rate, and there are cars lined up and trucks lined up around the street in order to be able to go to that service station.

and buzz that we need to put New York State back on the map, to bring those tourists in. We will not need to cut, because instead of being statists, instead of believing that it is our job to stand here and defend the revenue streams of New York State government, we have got to realize that it is our job to protect the pocketbooks of the blue-collar people who are struggling and making New York State great but struggling to do so. And the moment that we realize we're here to protect their wallets and not our government coffers is the moment that New York State will once again be great.

And to the extent that we continue to defend the growth of government and to fight against any ending of taxation, that's just another nail in the coffin for a state that was built not by this government but by private enterprise, by blue-collar people, union and

not. And that is exactly what this gas sales tax 1 2 holiday will accomplish.
 3
                  SENATOR KRUEGER:
                                     Mr. President, if 4 the sponsor will continue to yield.
 5
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Will you
     continue to yield, Senator Ball?
 6
 7
                  SENATOR BALL:
                                  Yes.
 8
                  SENATOR KRUEGER:
                                     Thank you.
 9
                  I like that we're talking about that 10 it will be a sales tax break for blue-collar
     New Yorkers. Is this a means-tested program?
11 12
     Are we only allowing this to be a sales tax deduction for those people who meet some legal 13 definition as a blue-collar New Yorker?
14 15
                  SENATOR BALL:
                                  Mr. President, it's not means-tested. We do not want to means-test 16 economic activity coming into the state. We want 17 18
     folks who are lower middle class, poor, rich, everything in between, realizing that New York 19 20
     State has this great opportunity in coming here.
21
                  So that just -- I don't even understand why that would even be considered.
22
                  SENATOR KRUEGER:
                                     Mr. President, if 23 24
     the sponsor would continue to yield.
25
                  SENATOR BALL:
                                  Mr. President, may I
```

```
just ask one question to the Senator?
 1
 2
                  SENATOR KRUEGER:
                                     I'd be happy to 3 yield.
 4
                  SENATOR BALL: Would it be your 5 objective that gas in New York State -- just very simply, would it be your objective that gas in 6
 7
     New York State at the pump cost less or cost 8 more?
 9
                  SENATOR KRUEGER:
                                     I would like 10 every item in New York State to cost less.
11
                  And at the same time, when you're 12 going after our tax revenue, when you cut tax revenue you have to answer the hard question of 13 14 what are you going to cut in government spending.
15
                  Would the sponsor yield?
16
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              Do you
     continue to yield, Senator Ball?
17 18
                  SENATOR BALL:
                                  Yes.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 19
                                              The 20 sponsor yields.
21
                  SENATOR KRUEGER:
                                     Thank you.
22
                  So I understand that his proposal 23 would be to cut sales tax for a 12-day period to the tune of 33 cents per gallon. I think he and 24
25
     I disagree on how many times anyone will be
```

filling up their car or cars during the holiday period. I certainly don't think it will be anywhere near the $100 per family described.

But we have a problem with price gouging 365 days a year. Attorney General Eric Schneiderman has started an investigation into price gouging. My colleague Senator Peralta attempted to do an amendment to this bill addressing price gouging and yet it was ruled non-germane to the topic of the price of gas at the gas pump.

So does Senator Ball think that price gouging is a problem for the cost of gasoline at the gas station?

SENATOR BALL: Mr. President, I absolutely do.

And to the extent that those concerns have been addressed in the bill, I just want to very specifically read the portion of the bill. It says: "Every person engaged in the retail sale of motor fuel and/or diesel motor fuel or distributor of such fuel, as defined in Article 12-A of this chapter, shall comply with the provisions of Section 392 of the General Business Law by reducing the prices charged for motor fuel and diesel motor fuel in an amount equal to any reduction in taxes prepaid by the distributor."

"Shall comply by reducing the prices charged for motor fuel and diesel motor fuel in an amount equal to any reduction in taxes prepaid by the distributor." I can tell you, as the sponsor of this bill -- and I know that our entire conference would in no way support this legislation if we thought in any way that certain retailers were just going to put those savings back into their own pocket. That's why we worked very hard to make sure that those protections were put into the bill.

And you yourself have suggested -and I thank you for reminding me -- the aggressiveness of our current Attorney General, because it's certainly in his purview, not ours, to enforce the law. And I am absolutely certain that if any price gouging were to come because of this, that he would be on top of it quicker than can be imagined.

SENATOR KRUEGER: Mr. President, if the sponsor would continue to yield.

ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Yes, he 1 2 continues to yield. 3 SENATOR KRUEGER: Thank you very 4 much. 5 I'm glad we both agree that we have a very aggressive Attorney General who will work 6 to be on top of it. But the catch with this kind 7 of sales tax holiday is it's very hard to figure 8 out whether the consumer is ever getting the tax 9 10 savings, particularly when retailers can simply up their price several days before the tax 11 holiday to adjust for their continuing to have a 12 higher rate even with a sales tax holiday. 13 What specifically in this bill would 14 15 prevent retailers from increasing their prices before the holiday? 16 SENATOR BALL: Mr. President, as I 17 18 read before, and it is very specific in the 19 legislation, these retailers are actually going 20 to be forced to comply to make sure that there is a reduction in their prices commensurate with the 21 cut in the 33 cents, plus, in some areas, the 22 local option. 23 To the extent of legislating every 24 25 single scenario, that is certainly why we have an

Attorney General, who no doubt would enforce the 1 laws that are already on the books to go after 2 price gouging or any other violation of existing 3 4
     law.
 5 SENATOR KRUEGER: Mr. President, if 6
     the sponsor would continue to yield.
 7
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                             Do you
 8 continue to yield, Senator Ball?
 9
                  SENATOR BALL:
                                  Yes.
10
                  SENATOR KRUEGER:
                                     So I think we agree we lose $60 million to our existing 11 12 financial plan, and we hope somehow that will be made up someday with increased economic activity.
13
                  I think we agree -- or we don't 14 15 agree with how much gas any given household will be filling up. I don't think we agree that this 16 bill specifically outlines how we can prevent 17 18 retailers from increasing their prices before the 19 holiday or continuing current gouging or even 20 prevent them from, once the holiday is over, 21 continuing at the higher rate.
                   So can we talk about how do we 22 ensure that the tax savings will actually be 23 passed on to the consumer at the point of 24 25 purchase? Could the Senator explain to me what mechanisms are or will be in place to ensure that the savings, total savings, would not be actually realized by the retail establishment or the fuel distributor, instead of the consumer as intended by the legislation? Who would be providing the extra oversight to ensure that the savings are passed directly on to the consumers?

SENATOR BALL: Mr. President, in a nutshell, some of the issues that are being brought up in this particular dialogue do come under the purview of the Attorney General. But let it be clear that we're talking about 33 cents. And local option, the municipalities that opt in, there can be an additional upwards, I believe, of 15 cents. So you're talking about nearly 50 cents.

So the hypothetical that's put out there is that a couple of days before the certainty, the retailer is going to go ahead and increase prices by nearly 50 cents and then go ahead and take those proceeds.

To the extent that that was done, it would be highly visible because of the large percentage of tax that we have in New York State, being 33 cents plus the local option. To that

1 point, because of the laws that already exist on 2 the books to govern price gouging, the Attorney General and other law enforcement would have it 3 4 within their powers to investigate that. And the 5 Attorney General has already shown a proclivity to do that. 6 7 And I would say that the questions that you ask are ones that were asked during the 8 formation of this bill. They're well-taken, 9 10 they're well-placed. And that's why we are forcing the retailers, to the extent possible, to 11 12 comply and to, commensurate with the 33-cent reduction or more, to place that in their price 13 14 rate. 15 SENATOR KRUEGER: Mr. President, if the sponsor would continue to yield. 16 ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 17 Do you 18 continue to yield, Senator Ball? 19 SENATOR BALL: Yes. 20 SENATOR KRUEGER: Thank you. 21 I'm really trying to get at the nuts and bolts of how we're going to make sure that 22 the consumer gets the money, because we know the 23 24 state is going to lose the money. 25 We know it's not a benefit that's going to apply only to New Yorkers, because 1 non-New Yorkers can take advantage of it. And we 2 3 know that it's not a program that will 4 specifically advantage low-income New Yorkers, 5 blue-collar New Yorkers, or even New Yorkers who drive fuel-efficient cars as opposed to 6 7 gas-guzzling cars. Ironically, the bigger the 8 9 gas-guzzler you've got, the better your deal is 10 under this. So I've got a problem with that too. 11 But again, trying to pinpoint how we 12 can assure that these taxes actually are saved at 13 the pump by the consumer as opposed to pocketed 14 somewhere along the supply chain. 15 So the motor fuel tax, Article 12A, in New York State imposes an 8-cents-per-gallon 16 tax on motor fuel at the point of first taxable 17 18 sale or use in New York State. 8-cent-per-gallon tax also applies to other motor 19 20 fuel, including gasoline, upon first import or production within New York State. 21 22 The tax law requires the pass-through of these taxes to the consumer, the 23 retail point. Therefore, because this tax is 24 25 essentially prepaid, doesn't this feature of Senator Ball's law make it difficult to pass the savings on to the consumer at the point of last sale, retail?

So doesn't the prepaid feature of our model of petroleum tax collection make it very difficult to determine the actual amount of the tax reduction that should occur at the retail level, partially because gasoline and diesel are shipped in very large amounts and these taxes are applied earlier in the process?

So again, how do we make sure anybody's calculating it right and anybody is providing it to the consumer correctly?

SENATOR BALL: Mr. President, first, the prepaid portion is only an issue in the sense of it being an issue with the state portion, because at the local option that's paid at the pump.

And what also we didn't want to do in this legislation was create a bureaucratic nightmare for retailers, mom-and-pop types. And that's why they actually, as you play this through, are going to be able to -- the tax is prepaid, and against future sales taxes. In many instances it will probably even out or equal out, according to the sales tax that they're going to have to pay on other items.

So to your point of how are we going to know that each and every retailer is doing the right thing, I think at some point we've got to get back to the basics of this legislation. We are here to pass a piece of legislation to let blue-collar families -- and I'll say that. You know, you suggested that, well, you know, people that drive bigger cars, the limos and helicopters and whatnot, they're the ones that are making the biggest savings.

It's the folks who are blue-collar who are having to decide between filling up their cars or being able to make a mortgage payment, being able to afford health insurance, being able to put money away in the bank or go on vacation and spend money throughout this state. So it's really the blue-collar folks and lower middle class and the poor who spend the largest percentage of their salary and the money that they have in their pockets on things like food and clothes and, yes, gas.

So this really is a bailout during critical holiday times for the lower middle class, the middle class, blue-collar folks in 1 this state, and works as an economic incentive to 2 tourists who are seeking to come into this state. 3 4 Now, we can go into a thousand 5 different ways how Big Brother could do a better job of looking over the shoulder of some retailer 6 7 or pulling the money out of somebody's pocket. But I would suggest that this is a move in the 8 opposite direction to suggest, you know what, 9 10 yes, as a body we realize that New York State 11 taxes way too much and we are number one in all 12 the wrong ways. 13 And sure, is this one small step in 14 the right direction? Yes. But it's also a huge 15 call and sign to the folks, the taxpayers in this state that we hear their pain and that we're 16 trying to do the right thing. 17 18 SENATOR KRUEGER: Mr. President, on the bill. 19 20 ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: On the 21 bill. 22 SENATOR KRUEGER: We could go on with the questions. I have a lot more 23 questions. But I think the fundamental issue 24 25 here is the State of New York should want to do something to try to lower taxes for those people whose lives are suffering for inability to buy food or pay their mortgage or pay their rent or pay for health insurance.

But there's an endless stream of models for tax policy and progressive taxation that will get us there much more effectively and much more significantly than this holiday sales tax proposal. I would go so far as to say that this is a voodoo-economics tax solution.

And actually, the Lower Hudson

Valley Lohud newspaper called it a "gas tax holiday gimmick." The New Republic called it a gimmick, as well as did any number of other journals and newspapers.

This isn't the way to address the economic needs of our population. It is a way to cut $60 million out of our budget for road repair and bridges. And last time I checked, many of my colleagues were very concerned that we had inadequate funding for road repair and bridges.

It's not a model that assures the savings go to the blue-collar users of gasoline most in need. It's not even a way to guarantee the tax savings go to the consumer at all, whether he's Donald Trump or a visitor from 1 across the state, because it's unbelievably 2 3 complicated to calculate the savings, to 4 calculate who, what, where, why on the different 5 taxes, how to address the refund payments between Tax and Finance, the retailers, the wholesalers. 6 7 It is a tax reduction on petroleum products, which many people would say is about 8 9 the last thing you want to do tax reductions in. 10 Yes, the cost of gas is high. just filled up for $4 a gallon here in Albany, 11 12 and the tax is approximately 11.8 percent, I 13 believe, currently on a gallon of gasoline. Yes, 14 at $4 a gallon our taxes translate to 15 11.8 percent tax. So it's not the most heinous of tax rates that we see across the board in 16 New York State. 17 18 But at least in other kinds of taxes, or even proposals to reduce taxes, we have 19 20 the ability to see whether the person paying the taxes actually gets the reduction in taxes. 21 22 can't prove that here. We can't find any evidence that that's worked other places. 23 We can't determine that it goes to 24 25 people most in need. Although I'd hazard a guess, if we have to cut $60 million out of the state budget, those cuts probably will affect those people most in need.

It does nothing to address the concerns of gas price gouging and in fact, I believe, as a model encourages more gas price gouging by retailers who may figure out that if they up their prices right before the holiday goes into effect and then don't quite really ever master figuring out how to transfer that sales tax reduction at the pump during the holiday and then see no reason to reduce their prices after the holiday, there can be a real win for those people who want to game the system.

We didn't get into my questions about the county matches. But when I review the counties who at one time did have a county match, most of them pulled out because they recognized that the loss of county sales tax, if they went into a matching program, translated in real life for their budgets and they would have to cut something in their local budgets.

In fact, the Onondaga County

Division of Management and Budget did a report showing that the sales tax loss would serve as having to do an offset against property taxes, requiring them to raise their property tax if they lowered their sales tax on gasoline. So there's one location who said, I see the immediate gain and loss. The loss is to government, and it has to be made up, and it will be made up in some other kind of tax.

So I don't think this really is about reducing taxes. I think this is about a fabulous press hit. And I don't think it works, and I don't think we should support it. And I don't think it will become law. That's the good news today. I don't believe it will become law, because it's bad public policy. And it will not have its effected goals. And in fact, it can have just the reverse.

And what a shame that we could have been having a discussion about legislation to reduce gas gouging 365 days a year, or increase energy efficiency, or encourage alternatives to petroleum product use. That's the shame in our spending time on this bill that doesn't make sense, will I'm sure pass this house, but not become law.

I vote no, and I urge my colleagues to vote no.

                  Thank you, Mr. President.
 1
 2
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              Senator
     Ranzenhofer on the bill.
 3
 4
                  SENATOR RANZENHOFER:
                                          Thank you,
 5
     Mr. President. Just very briefly.
                  I'd like to commend my colleague
 6
 7 Senator Ball for what is really a common sense piece of legislation here.
 8 9
                  In my neck of the woods this is very Because what's happening in my community 10 real.
11 are people are deciding whether or not they're 12 going to travel these holidays, on Memorial Day, July 4th, and Labor Day, probably some of the 13 busiest travel times of the year.
14
15
                  What people are telling me as I travel throughout my community is because the 16 price of gasoline is so high, they're simply not 17 18 traveling. They're staying home. In my opinion, I think that will result in less money coming 19 20 into the state than more money, because people are not going to do what they normally do over 21 Memorial Day, July 4th, and Labor Day.
22
                  This concept is actually very 23 similar to something that this Senate has done in 24 25 the past with respect to clothing. These very same arguments that I've heard back and forth are the very same arguments which you would use when you discuss the sales tax holiday on clothing.

Yet the Senate and the Assembly and the Governor decided that that was a good public policy, because when kids were going back to school and families were doing their clothes shopping, this would actually encourage more spending at that particular time.

Well, this legislation is actually patterned over the type of legislation that has passed before, only this time it doesn't apply to clothing, it applies to gasoline.

The fact is people are not going to be traveling over these holidays. They're very concerned about the effect that the high price of gasoline has. I think they want to see the Senate and the Assembly and the Governor reacting to this problem that they have to deal with each and every day. They don't sit at home and discuss these very high-minded policy issues. What they know is that more money is coming out of their wallet because the price of gas is going up.

And this is simply a measure which helps them, which gives them some limited relief 1 2

     during a time when they would travel most.
                  So I want to commend my colleague
 3
 4
     Senator Ball for his foresight in patterning this 5 legislation over the very legislation that has passed before dealing with clothing, only this 6 7 time it deals with gasoline. So I want to commend you, and I'll be voting yes on this 8 9 legislation. Thank you.
10
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              Thank
     you, Senator.
11 12 Senator Little.
                  SENATOR LITTLE:
13
                                     Thank you,
     Mr. President.
14
15
                  And I too would like to commend Senator Ball for putting forth this really bold 16 proposal. And it's coming at a time when it can 17 18 help New York State tourism.
19
                  The I Love New York program is 20 putting their summer program in as it's just a tankful away to go and travel and travel within 21
     New York State. Some Cornell students just did a 22 study, and what they found is that more people 23 travel to New York State by car than any other 24 25 means. And for us to be promoting "just a
```

```
1 tankful away" and giving this incentive of not 2 having the taxes on your tankful of gas is really 3 going to help with tourism in New York State.
 4
                  And if tourism improves, the sales 5 tax improves, the income taxes for the people working in tourism improves, the business 6 improves. So I think we all gain. I don't think 7 this is a loss. You might want to call it a 8 gimmick, but if you ask me, it's a good gimmick.
9 10
                  So I vote aye. Thank you.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Senator 11 12 Rivera.
13
                  SENATOR RIVERA:
                                    Thank you, 14
     Mr. President.
15
                  So I stand today, I will be voting no on this legislation for a few reasons. I 16 think that Senator Krueger was very good at 17 18 pointing out different issues that we've had with 19 this particular legislation.
20
                  I would have to disagree with my 21 colleagues, particularly Senator Little, when she 22 said this is a good gimmick. A gimmick is still a gimmick. It is not actually something that 23 24 resolves anything.
25
                  It will make for a great press hit.

But if we have problems with its enforcement, if we have problems with its implementation -- I mean, think about it. We have one of these weekends that is actually coming up. If we were to pass it today and the Assembly were to pass it today, how would it actually get implemented by the Department of Taxation?

So if we have problems with its enforcement and problems with its implementation -- and particularly problems with what will happen with the loss of revenue. It is interesting that here we are talking about how we can actually make life easier for some of the working-class people in this state, and yet we are once again not discussing the fact that there are $4 billion that we're leaving on the table with our personal income tax surcharge that is going to run out on December 31st.

And I know I am a broken record on this, ladies and gentlemen, but I will continue to say it, because it is -- when we're talking about working-class people in this state and those that are impacted by the cuts in revenue that we have, it is those blue-collar workers in your district, Senator Ball, it is those blue-collar constituents in your district, 1

 2 Senator Little, and certainly my constituents, the constituents in my district and all over this 3 4 state that are impacted when we have less 5 revenue.
                  So if we are not talking about how 6 7 to continue a tax that is not burdensome, that is 8 not burdensome on wealthier New Yorkers, but we are talking about a gimmick that will actually 9 10 give us $60 million less in revenue, I think we're talking about the wrong thing.
11 12
                  So I will be voting no on this piece of legislation, and I will encourage all my 13 14 colleagues to do the same.
15
                  Thank you, Mr. President.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Thank
16 17 you, Senator.
18 Senator Marcellino.
19
                  SENATOR MARCELLINO: Thank you, 20
     Mr. President.
21
                  I hadn't intended to get up, but I'm 22 hearing this mantra coming back, there's a $60 million loss in this bill. A loss to what?
23
     A loss to whom? A loss to government.
24
25
                  On the other side, there's a

$60 million gain. A gain to whom? To the people. We're putting $60 million back in people's pockets. What are they going to do with that money? They're going to go out and spend They're going to go out and spend it on goods and services. They're going to buy food, they're going to buy other things. Maybe even clothing, who knows. Maybe go out to dinner, take the family out to dinner. Whatever it is, it's going to be put back into the economy of this state. And that's what the key is all about.

Governor Cuomo has said it many times. We said it during the budget debate. We don't have a revenue problem in this state, we have a spending problem in this state. We overtax and we overspend.

We're sending a message here: The money belongs in the people's hands. The money belongs in the people's pockets. Let's put it there whenever we have an opportunity to. Let's let them keep their money, let them spend it as they see fit, and it will come back to us tenfold in goods and services and a stimulated economy.

I think this is a good thing.

Senator Ball, you're doing the right thing, 1 2
     you've got the right message. Keep it up.
                  Mr. President, I intend to vote aye,
 3 4 and I urge everyone else who cares about the 5 public -- and I think that's everybody in this room, that's everybody in this chamber -- let 6 7 them have the money. Let's put $60 million back in the people's pockets.
 8 9
                  I urge the other house to take this 10 bill up too. It's about time they did the right thing for the public. They call themselves the 11 12 people's house? This is a time when they can demonstrate that they are in fact the people's 13 14 house.
15
                  I vote aye to putting $60 million in people's hands and $60 million back into the 16 economy. Thank you, Mr. President.
17
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
18
                                              Thank
     you, Senator Marcellino.
19 20
                  Senator Alesi.
                  SENATOR ALESI:
21
                                   Thank you, 22
     Mr. President. On the bill.
                  It doesn't strike me as odd at all, 23 when I listen to the tax-and-spend philosophy of 24 25 some of my colleagues who shudder at the thought

that we might be providing some kind of relief for the hardworking, overburdened taxpayers of this state, that when the economy is slowing down for our small businesses across the state that we might provide some kind of incentive for people to actually travel like they normally would want to do during these three major holidays.

And for those people that look at this as a cost of whatever, I don't know where $60 million comes from. But if it is $60 million and we put that money into the pockets of the people that will travel across this state over those holidays, it has a multiplier effect. If you look at the effect on small business of people that are traveling, that are going restaurants, that are going to hotels, that are going to destination tourism stops, that it's far more than $60 million, or whatever the perceived cost of this is, that will come back as revenue. It could easily be 120, 180, maybe -- who knows what it is.

It's a multiplier effect. It's a positive effect. It drives revenue. It helps the small businesses. And at the same time it helps the people who are bleeding because the price of gasoline and everything else is keeping 1 2

     them home, it's keeping them from buying consumer 3 goods.
 4
                  And I would encourage those people 5 who are having a crisis over this to look at it from the positive standpoint that this is good 6 7 not only for hardworking taxpayers, but it's good for the economy of the state. It is not bad for 8 the economy of this state.
 9 10
                  And as Senator Marcellino correctly pointed out, it's their money. Give them a 11 12 break.
             I'm voting yes on this.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 13
                                              Senator 14 Diaz.
15
                  SENATOR DIAZ: Thank you, 16
     Mr. President.
                  Before I say what I'm going to say, 17
18 I have to remind everyone that today is Women of Distinction night. And 62 members in this 19 20 chamber have selected one lady, one woman from their district to be here today, and they are 21
```

So to all of you guys, remember, we here. And to honor Women of Distinction and to have Women of Distinction and they're waiting for 1 2 us somewhere in this building. And talking about the bill, I have 3 4 to agree with Senator Marcellino. I have to 5 agree with him. Because we are going through tough times. And I agree also with Senator 6 7 Krueger; we should do better. And I agree with 8 Senator Peralta. We should do better, more. 9 But if we cannot do more, the people 10 that I represent -- and I'm here to represent 11 people, not interests or groups -- the people 12 that I represent deserve for me to squeeze, squeeze out of the government as much as I can to 13 14 give back to them in these times, today. 15 One million, 2 million, 10 million, 16 60 million, whatever it is, if I could squeeze something out to give back to them to relieve 17 18 their burden, to relieve and to help them in 19 these tough times, I will do that. That's why I 20 am voting for this bill, and that's why I'm 21 supporting Senator Marcellino's statement. 22 Thank you. ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 23 Senator Oppenheimer. 24 25 SENATOR OPPENHEIMER: Thank you.

I'm glad that the Reverend mentioned that we have the Women of Distinction program starting at 5:15, and I'm supposed to be opening it at -- I mean at 5:30 it's supposed to start, and I'm the first speaker. So I wanted to be recorded before I had to leave the chamber.

I'll be voting yes. And I'm voting yes because I have certain empathy with people who are being so hard-pressed at the gas pump. I filled up yesterday morning, and it cost me $70. I couldn't believe my eyes. But I do have empathy for those people who want to get away and are looking at huge costs now.

But as an environmentalist, I know that this is just a drop in the bucket, or in the gas tank, because this is not the answer. And the answer is more difficult and is long-lasting. We have an addiction to gasoline, and we have to break that addiction. And there are many alternatives to the gas in our cars.

For example, my husband and I are going down to Washington, D.C., this weekend, and for once we have decided to take the train instead of taking our car. There's a viable alternative.

There's also, instead of dragging your car to the station, if you're a commuter, there's the opportunity to ride a bike or walk. Think how healthy that might be. It might improve your all-over outlook.

We have also alternatives in conservation. We have a big alternative, huge, in improving the mileage of our new vehicles. This is something we have to work on with Washington. They know in Congress that this is available, we can double the mileage that we get on a present gallon, and yet it is not being moved. And so this is another area that we have to see as the future that we have to work towards.

And we have to work towards alternative fuels. We all know all of the environmental possibilities there are in alternative fuels.

And we now have, at one of my railroad stations, ten plugs where you can plug into your electricity for your electric car, for those people that are just using their electric car to go from the home to the station. When they get to the station, they plug in.

There are so many viable 1 2 alternatives if we only had the will to pursue 3 them.
 4
                  But having said that, I am going to 5 vote yes because I do have an empathy for those people who have to buy gas this week and the 6 7 holiday weekend and just don't know where they have the wherewithal to put it all together.
 8
     I'll be voting yes.
 9 10
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              Thank
     you, Senator.
11 12 Any other Senator wishing to be heard?
13 14 Senator Peralta.
15
                  SENATOR PERALTA:
                                     Although the hour 16 is late and I know we have Women of Distinction,
     I do want to rise and say that although today I 17 18 believe we should be doing much, much more on 19 these gas-price issues, gas taxes are -- they're 20 a regressive tax. And we need to make sure that the working men and women of the State of 21 22
     New York are protected.
                  And today, although I've asked all 23 my colleagues on which way I was going to go, but 24
25
     I will be voting in the affirmative on this bill.

1
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Thank
 2 you, Senator Peralta.
 3 Any other Senator wishing to be heard?
 4
 5 Seeing none, debate is closed. The Secretary will ring the bells.
 6
 7 SENATOR LIBOUS: Mr. President.
 8
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Senator
9 Libous.
10
                  SENATOR LIBOUS:
                                    Thank you,
     Mr. President. I know that we're waiting for 11 members to come in to be in their chairs. But in 12 13
     the meantime, I believe there are some members who would like to explain their vote.
14
15
                  So if we could start that process, 16 and then as the members filter in we can complete -- because we do have, in 10 minutes, 17 18 the Women of Distinction ceremony, and I would 19 think that it would be proper for all of us to be 20 there on time and not be disrespectful.
21
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                             We will 22 hold the roll call open.
                  And read the last section.
23
                  THE SECRETARY:
                                   Section 9.
                                               This 24 25 act shall take effect immediately.
```

```
Call the 1
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
 2 roll.
 3
                  (The Secretary called the roll.)
 4
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Senator
 5
     Rivera to explain your vote.
                  SENATOR RIVERA:
 6
                                    Thank you,
 7
     Mr. President.
 8
                  I just think there's one more thing 9 that I wanted to add. I think it's kind of funny 10 that we are getting blamed over here for being tax-and-spend Democrats. I'd like to remind our 11 12 colleagues that you all voted almost unanimously yesterday to raise taxes maybe 15 times all 13 across the state.
14
15
                  So it's a little funny that we're 16 actually raising taxes with sales taxes that, again, are the most regressive ones, and here we 17 18 are getting accused of being something that 19 actually you all are. So I just wanted to point 20 that out.
21 Thank you, Mr. President.
                                              I'll be 22 voting in the negative.
23
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              Senator
     Rivera will be recorded in the negative.
24
25 Senator Squadron, do you wish to explain your vote?
```

2 | SENATOR SQUADRON: Thank you,

3 Mr. President. And thank you for the debate.

Look, the issue with gasoline more than $4 dollar a gallon, there's no question that working men and women in New York State need a break. We need to be moving beyond fuel over time. But today, this summer, it doesn't make any difference for folks on a budget.

ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: Can we have order in the house, please.

SENATOR SQUADRON: We need to be moving away from our dependence on foreign fuels, on fossil fuels over time. It doesn't make one whit of difference for people this summer on a budget who are dealing with gas taxes that are more expensive than they ever have been.

The problem with this bill is it's not a gas-tax holiday for consumers, it's a gas-station holiday for those who are retailers, those who sell gas and fuel. And I've got to tell you, they don't need any more help. They get too much help and too many breaks from the federal government. They don't need a break that they're not going to pass on to consumers here from the state government.

1
 2 I think that we do too much as it is to subsidize foreign fuel, to subsidize the 3 4 gasoline industry. What we need is a bill such 5 as the one that Senator Peralta brought up earlier that will actually give relief to 6 7 families in the short term as well as dealing 8 with some of the problems of cost in the long 9 term.
10 Unfortunately, this bill will do neither. Folks won't see relief at the pump.
11 12 Gas prices will go up over time. That's why I'm going to vote no, Mr. President.
13
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: 14
                                              Senator
15 Squadron will be recorded in the negative.
16 Announce the results.
17
                  THE SECRETARY:
                                   In relation to 18 Calendar Number 670, those recorded in the 19 negative are Senators Duane, Gianaris, 20
     Hassell-Thompson, Huntley, L. Krueger, 21
     Montgomery, Parker, Perkins, Rivera, Sampson, Savino, Serrano, Squadron and Stavisky.
22
23
                  Ayes, 48. Nays, 14.
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              The bill 24 25 is passed.
```

```
Senator Libous, that completes the 1 2 controversial reading of the calendar.
                  SENATOR LIBOUS:
 3
                                    Mr. President, is 4 there any further business at the desk?
 5
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA:
                                              There is 6 none.
 7 SENATOR LIBOUS: Mr. President, 8 just as a notification, the Republican majority 9 will conference tomorrow morning at 10:00 a.m. in 10 Room 332. That's 10:00 a.m., Republican majority conference tomorrow in Room 332.
11
                  Mr. President, there being no 12 further business before the Senate at this time, 13
     I move we adjourn until Wednesday, May 25th, at 14 15 11:00 a.m.
16
                  ACTING PRESIDENT O'MARA: On motion, the Senate stands adjourned until
