

1 PROCEEDINGS 2 THE PRESIDENT: The Senate will 3 come to order. Please rise for the Pledge of 4 5 Allegiance. б (Whereupon, the assemblage 7 recited the Pledge of Allegiance to the 8 Flag.) 9 THE PRESIDENT: Thank you. 10 Today's invocation will be given by the Most Reverend William Murphy, Bishop 11 of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, which 12 13 includes Nassau and Suffolk Counties. Bishop Murphy has been bishop of the diocese since 14 15 September 5, 2001, and, with His Eminence Cardinal Dolan and the other New York 16 17 bishops, compose the New York State Catholic 18 conference. 19 Please welcome Bishop Murphy. 20 (Applause.) 21 BISHOP MURPHY: In the interests 22 of full disclosure, I will admit that I'm a constituent of the 9th Senate District. 23 (Laughter; applause.) 24 25 BISHOP MURPHY: But I promised

Senator Skelos that I will be brief and that this 1 2 prayer will have a beginning, a middle and an 3 end. Blessed are You, Lord, God of all 4 5 creation, whose goodness fills our hearts this day with joy and hope. Blessed are You for You 6 7 have brought us to this day to work in harmony 8 and peace. 9 The members of this august Senate 10 come from all parts of the great State of New York, O Lord. They represent the traditions 11 12 of two great political parties, with all of the richness, variety, and points of view and 13 14 plethora and plans and projects, hopes, and 15 dreams that make up the political process. 16 Blessed are You who bring them all together in relationships old and new, 17 18 friendships long-standing and just beginning, responsibilities common to all. 19 20 In You, Lord our God, all things have their beginning, continuation, and end. 21 22 Grace us with Your saving presence and help them with Your constant help so that together they may 23 work and pray and share ideas and insights in 24 25 such a way that they will show respect to one another, esteem for each person's dignity, with a 1 common commitment to deal honestly, justly with 2 3 one another. 4 May their justice be inspired by 5 wisdom and may their courage be guided by prudence so that they may, in all that they say 6 7 and do during this session, build up a mutual commitment to work for all the citizens of our 8 state and for the common good of all. 9 10 Lord, may everything that we all do, the members of this Senate as well as all 11 12 citizens of New York, begin with Your inspiration and continue with Your help so that all our 13 14 prayers and works beginning in You may be happily 15 ended. Glory and praise to You forever and 16 17 ever, and may we all say amen. 18 THE ASSEMBLAGE: Amen. THE PRESIDENT: Thank you, Bishop. 19 20 Welcome to the first session of 21 2013. And due to the Governor's State of 22 the State speech, I have to step away, so I'd 23 like to ask Senator John Flanagan to please step 24 25 up and preside over the Senate.

1 Senator? 2 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: The 3 Chair now hands down a message from the State Board of Elections, being the official 4 5 certification of the duly elected members of the Senate, and directs that the same be filed. 6 7 And I would state for the record 8 that Mr. Amedore's certification is contained in 9 the board's certification pending a judicial 10 decision. So ordered. 11 I'd like to ask if there are any 12 Senators present who have not taken their oaths 13 of office to please rise. 14 15 Seeing none, the Secretary will call 16 the roll to ascertain a quorum. 17 THE SECRETARY: Senator Adams. 18 SENATOR ADAMS: Aye. ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Senator 11 12 Skelos, a quorum is present. 13 I'm going to hand down a communication from the Governor of the State of 14 15 New York, and the Secretary will read. 16 THE SECRETARY: "Dear Senators: 17 "I would appreciate the privilege of 18 the presence of all the Members of the New York 19 State Senate at the Empire State Plaza Convention 20 Center on January 9, 2013 at 1:30 p.m. 21 "Very truly yours, Andrew M. Cuomo." 22 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: To be filed in the Journal. 23 Senator Libous. 24 25 SENATOR LIBOUS: Thank you,

Mr. President. 1 2 At this time I hand up the following resolution and ask that the title be read. And I 3 4 move for its immediate adoption, please. 5 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: The Clerk will read. 6 7 SENATOR GIANARIS: Mr. President. 8 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 9 Senator Gianaris, why do you rise? 10 SENATOR GIANARIS: Point of order. Is this the resolution to select the Temporary 11 12 President, or what exactly -- where are we in the process? 13 14 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: The 15 Secretary will read the title. 16 THE SECRETARY: Senate Resolution by Senators Skelos and Klein to adopt the Rules 17 18 of the Senate for the years 2013-2014. 19 SENATOR GIANARIS: Mr. President, I 20 believe there's a substitute resolution at the 21 desk. I ask that the title of that resolution be 22 read and move for immediate adoption. 23 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Senator Gianaris, your resolution is out of 24 25 order. And we will move on Senator Libous's resolution. 1 2 SENATOR GIANARIS: Mr. President, 3 I'd like to appeal your ruling and be given the 4 opportunity to be heard on it, please. 5 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Senator Gianaris. 6 7 SENATOR GIANARIS: Thank you, 8 Mr. President. 9 I believe we're about to consider 10 rules that we have had about 12 hours to consider. And by all accounts, these rules 11 12 contain historically unprecedented changes to the way this chamber functions. 13 Now, we certainly understand that 14 15 majority rules in this house, and those who have the votes can draft rules and pass them as they 16 see fit. But in the interests of transparency, 17 18 in the interests of small D democracy, I think it 19 would only be appropriate, where we're 20 considering something historically unprecedented 21 in the history of this chamber, that every member 22 be given the opportunity to study these rules, which are 26 pages long, analyze them, and have a 23 proper discussion on this floor about them. 24 25 In that vein, the substitute

1	resolution which I offered that you have ruled
2	out of order would put into place the rules that
3	were in place last year, word for word, with an 4	expiration date of Monday, so that this entire 5	chamber can have the next few days to review the 6	proposed rules and we can have a proper
7	discussion not on a day when we have to move
8	quickly out of the chamber in order to attend the 9	Governor's State of the State speech.
10	I don't believe it would hinder the 11	proceedings of this house in any way to do that.
12	And I would ask that we be given that 13	opportunity. It is exactly what was done two 14	years ago. The final rules of this house were 15	not adopted until January 30th two years ago.
16	And the rules as they existed prior to that were 17	kept in place for that interim period. And I
18	would ask that we be given that opportunity
19	again.
20	And therefore, I would like to
21	advocate a vote overruling your ruling,
22	Mr. President.
23	ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Thank
24	you, Senator Gianaris.
25	The question is on the appeal of the ruling of the chair. Those in favor of 1 2 overruling the chair signify by saying aye. (Response of "Aye.") 3 4 SENATOR GIANARIS: Can we have a show of hands, Mr. President? 5 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: A]] б 7 those in favor of overruling the chair please 8 raise your hands. 9 (Show of hands.) ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 10 The Chair is sustained. 11 Senator Libous, on your resolution. 12 All those in favor signify by saying aye. 13 (Response of "Aye.") 14 15 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Those 16 opposed? 17 Senator Krueger, why do you rise? 18 SENATOR KRUEGER: I believe at the 19 moment it's a point of order, because I was under 20 the impression we were going to have an 21 opportunity to debate the resolution. So I'm a 22 little confused about an immediate calling of a vote on a resolution. 23 My question is, where are we in that 24 25 process?

ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 1 2 Senator Krueger, the resolution is before the body. I moved for passage of that resolution 3 4 because no one had risen to speak. 5 SENATOR KRUEGER: I'm sorry, б Mr. President. I'm just getting clarification 7 from counsel. 8 I'm sorry, Mr. President. You 9 didn't ask, when you were calling the resolution, 10 whether there were any members who wanted to speak on the resolution. So I'm asking now, may 11 12 I please have an opportunity to raise questions and speak on the resolution? 13 14 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 15 Senator Krueger. SENATOR KRUEGER: Thank you very 16 17 much. 18 And just, again, point of order 19 before I start. May I have the opportunity to 20 ask questions about the Rules resolution in 21 addition to speaking on it? ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 22 Senator Krueger, to your inquiry, yes, you may 23 speak on the resolution and you may ask questions 24 25 as well.

1	SENATOR KRUEGER: Thank you very
2	much, Mr. President.
3	So as my colleague Senator Gianaris
4	mentioned, we only received these rules to be
5	fair, I received an email I believe with a copy
6	at around midnight, but I confess I had fallen
7	asleep, so I didn't actually see them till this 8	morning. Some of my other colleagues might have
9	been up later than I.
10	So I only have some initial
11	questions today that will no doubt require more
12	thought by all of us to really understand
13	substantive changes in these rules as being
14	proposed.
15	So really my first question is about
16	something that I didn't see in the rules, which 17	was any of the details of power sharing in the 18	new Coalition Majority. There is explanation of 19	Coalition Majority, but there's no details about
20	the power sharing that we have actually read
21	about in the papers.
22	And in fact when I did read the 23	newspaper this morning, I was told that there's 24	an MOU, memorandum of understanding, that
25	actually lays out much of more of the details

since it was absent in the rules. 1 2 So may we -- I'm sorry, who am I asking questions of, Mr. President? Senator 3 4 Skelos? 5 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: б Senator Hannon. Senator Krueger, I believe 7 Senator Hannon or Senator Valesky will be happy 8 to answer questions. 9 SENATOR KRUEGER: Thank you. 10 So through you, Mr. President. 11 Senator Hannon, can have I have a copy of the MOU 12 that lays out the details that we do not have in front of us today? 13 14 SENATOR HANNON: First of all, 15 Mr. President, let me point out that these rules are historically different because there is now a 16 Majority Coalition. And that is the major 17 18 change, because of the alignment of the 19 Republicans and the Independent Democratic 20 Coalition. 21 So that's the major thing that takes 22 place. Everything flows from that, although 23 there are some major innovative procedural rights that are now given to members in regard to 24 25 bringing issues before the floor, bringing issues

1 to the floor, bringing issues to the committees and causing public hearings to take place --2 3 unprecedented democracy being visited with each of the members. 4 5 The question you asked is about something that's not in the rules. б And I 7 understand in order to have a Majority Coalition there has to be discussions among the members of 8 the coalition. And I understand those 9 10 discussions have taken place. Sometimes they may 11 have or may not have reduced it to paper, but I don't think it's ever been final, because this is 12 13 a process of ongoing consultation among the 14 members of the Majority Conference, and that's 15 going to have to take place. So there is no memorandum to give 16 17 you. 18 SENATOR KRUEGER: Through you, Mr. President, my understanding is whether or not 19 20 there's a document in place that may be evolving, currently it is secret and we may not see a 21 memorandum of understanding. 22 SENATOR HANNON: 23 There's no 24 secrets, Senator. 25 SENATOR KRUEGER: You know, I have

1 a time limit --

2	SENATOR HANNON: There's no secrets
3	to anything. It's a question of how do people
4	work together, how does this body function to 5	discharge its obligation under the Constitution
6	to do the business of the people and also to 7	organize in a way that Article 3, Section 9
8	requires it to do it. And that's what's taking
9	place.
10	SENATOR KRUEGER: I couldn't
11	agree
12	SENATOR HANNON: So discussions
13	that take place among
14	ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN:
15	Senator Krueger and Senator Hannon, we have an 16	extremely busy day ahead of us. I would request
17	everyone to go through the chair.
18	Senator Krueger, are you asking
19	Senator Hannon to continue to yield?
20	SENATOR KRUEGER: Yes.
21	ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN:
22	Senator Hannon, will you yield?
23	SENATOR HANNON: Yes.
24	ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Senator
25	Krueger.

1	SENATOR KRUEGER: Thank you.
2	And I certainly agree with Senator
3	Hannon, the rules are intended to make explicit 4	how this legislative body functions. Which is
5	why it's so important for us all to have a chance
6	to see it in writing, have more than 12 hours, or 7	perhaps have a chance to see documents that we
8	are not being provided at this point.
9	Senator Hannon already raised my 10	next question. He says it democratizes the
11	process and makes it easier to accomplish things
12	and bring to the floor.
13	Now, quite a few sections of this
14	new rules changes the formula for votes from a
15	simple majority to a 3/5 supermajority model.
16	So under the old rules, you could 17	bring a motion to the floor for consideration of 18	bills with a simple majority. That has moved to 19	three-fifths, meaning it would require 38 out of 20	63 members. How does that make it simpler to 21	bring things to the floor if you need a 3/5 vote,
22	a supermajority?
23	SENATOR HANNON: It's more widely
24	available. And by adding in a requirement that 25	allows one-third of the members of a committee to put an issue on the committee agenda, it starts 1 2 the whole process for policy formation, for policy debate, for bringing things. Once it's 3 4 been brought before a committee, if that 5 committee approves, then it's going to have a certain impetus that issues tend to gather 6 7 because of the work of the members and the work of the press. 8 9 And that's why it would ultimately 10 wind up with greater considerations than we've had before. 11 12 SENATOR KRUEGER: Through you, Mr. President, does the sponsor know that the old 13 rules allowed the rule if one-third of the 14 15 members of a committee petitioned? That's the case. So that's not new, we had that. 16 But does he know that now, even when 17 18 that takes place, it must go to the Secretary of the Senate and the Temporary President? I'm just 19 20 trying to get the specific section to point out 21 that they have to approve the hearing. 22 So previously committee chairs actually had the authority to approve 23 24 committees. But we are taking away power from 25 the committee chair, and they only can request a

Kirkland Reporting Service

1 hearing, which can be turned down. Is that 2 improved democracy? 3 SENATOR HANNON: First of all, I 4 don't believe your interpretation of the rules is 5 correct. The question of the petitions going to the Secretary of the Senate is for administrative 6 7 convenience. It's not to give that Secretary of the Senate any greater power, it's simply to 8 receive and transmit. Which is, frankly, a 9 function of a ministerial officer rather than the 10 function of the chair of a committee. 11 12 SENATOR KRUEGER: And the speaker also -- excuse me, Mr. President. 13 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 14 15 Senator Krueger, are you asking Senator Hannon to continue to yield? 16 17 SENATOR KRUEGER: Yes, thank you, 18 Mr. President, I am. 19 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Senator 20 Hannon. SENATOR KRUEGER: So Senator Hannon 21 also said that it will make it easier for bills 22 to come to the floor or to attempt to motion them 23 to the floor. 24 25 Now, we've already moved in these

1	rules from a 50 percent simple majority to a 3/5
2	supermajority, which makes it statistically
3	almost impossible to happen. And we've reduced
4	the number that you can try, because now a member
5	can only motion for chamber consideration two
6	allowed per day, must serve written notice of one
7	legislative calendar day. And you are only
8	entitled, I believe, per Senator to make three
9	motions per year on bringing bills to the floor.
10	It was unlimited before.
11	Now, granted, it was unlimited but 12	you needed 50 percent majority. So I can't even
13	remember in my time here when we were successful
14	in minority in getting a win on a simple
15	majority.
16	But under the new rules, I, Liz
17	Krueger, would only have the opportunity on three
18	bills per year, and I would need a three-fifths
19	majority for it to pass. So how is that opening
20	up the process?
21	SENATOR HANNON: Well, first of
22	all, I'm glad you've had a chance to read through
23	the rules, although whatever I say is black
24	you'll say is white, and vice versa.
25	How is it what it will do with

1 the three opportunities is say to each member, 2 These are my most important issues, these are the things that I really want to have considered. 3 4 Under the past practices, we found 5 out that sometimes a member would petition for everything, all of his or her bills. So that was 6 7 not adding to the process, that was not adding to the policy debate that we want to see happening. 8 9 Take the issues that are most 10 important and put them forward. 11 SENATOR KRUEGER: Mr. President, 12 through you. I think I will speak on the bill because I respect how short our time frame is and 13 14 the importance of our getting done in order to go 15 to the Governor's State of the State. ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 16 17 Senator Krueger on the resolution. 18 SENATOR KRUEGER: Thank you. I want to thank Senator Hannon for 19 20 his comments. I clearly do not agree with his interpretation of what these rules are. 21 But I'll start with the fact that 22 there's not that much different, so maybe he and 23 I could agree on that. The actual power-sharing 24 25 details are not there. Perhaps we will learn

1	about that in a future document made public to us
2	all; perhaps not.
3	There are several changes that
4	change the formula from a simple majority to a
5	supermajority requiring 38 out of 63 votes. I
6	believe that's unprecedented in other
7	legislatures throughout the country for basic 8	process. And I will take a projection today that
9	nothing moves with a supermajority.
10	So ironically, even though we've
11	created three conferences in this set of rules,
12	the math is such that there isn't any way for a
13	third conference to have an impact on the votes,
14	because you need 38. So you're not going to have 15	any actual votes on policy, procedure, process of 16	this legislature where a third conference can 17	make a difference, just for the record. So I'm 18	not sure I would have agreed to that.
19	It does reduce the ratio of funding
20	for the Democratic Conference to significantly
21	lower than last session, where it was 33 percent
22	of the central staff distribution to the 23	Democrats. And they've lowered it to 30.
24	For the record, we will be we are 25	42 percent of this house, and our percentage will go up depending on the outcome of the unresolved 1 case for the 46th District. So having 30 percent 2 3 of the resources to provide the services to our constituents in our districts we feel is a 4 5 blatant violation of the distribution of democracy, small D. 6 7 The concept that you need three-fifths majority for bringing a bill to 8 9 actually just a third reading on the calendar, 10 not an actual vote on the floor, certainly is not an increase of opportunity for members to be able 11 12 to bring bills to the floor for a vote. 13 Committee representation has a new 14 provision saying that it can be -- excuse me. 15 There are some changes to committee representation, but I actually think it decreases 16 the power of individual committees. It makes it 17 18 more complicated for committees to do their job and try to move bills through to public hearings 19 20 and to the floor even if a third of the members 21 wish to. 22 It gives powers that are currently in the hands of the President Pro Tem to the 23 Secretary of the Senate. 24 25 Now I would ask, why would the President Pro Tem want to give up their power and 1 2 their authority? And if we're having two later 3 today, why would two of them want to give it up? 4 Well, here's the answer. The 5 Secretary of the Senate is hired and reports directly to only one of the President Pro Tems; 6 7 that is, Dean Skelos, the head of the majority Republican Party. So if you give the powers from 8 the President Pro Tem or remove it from the 9 10 legislative process and give it to the Secretary of the Senate, then you're actually allowing one 11 12 entity to control all those decisions. Now, a lot of it is administrative, 13 14 one can argue. But two that stood out to me 15 immediately would be who decides whether the public and reporters are allowed on the floor of 16 the Senate or whether they will be shut out. 17 18 Now, I actually don't really accept any scenario where the public and the process 19 20 should be shut out of the Senate. But it's very 21 disturbing to me that that will no longer even be within the legislative purview of the rules but 22 rather simply at the decision-making of the 23 Secretary of the Senate hired directly by 24 Senator Skelos. 25

Because I believe you need a very, 1 2 very strong set of requirements in order to shut 3 the public and the press out of the floor of the 4 Senate. We are doing the people's business. It 5 should be done in public. It also moves the authority about 6 7 what goes on the Internet -- what public hearing announcements, what information flows through the 8 Internet -- again to the Secretary of the 9 10 Senate. Some of those powers now are currently 11 within simply the Bill Drafting Commission and 12 the Legislative Library. 13 I'm very concerned that we're 14 attempting to politicize and control the flow of 15 information through the Internet, which we know in the 21st century is in fact the most widely 16 used source of information about legislative 17 18 business, about bills, about announcements about 19 public hearings, about the recording of our 20 committees and what goes on on the floor. 21 So when you tie together that you're 22 giving the power to the Secretary of the Senate to decide what gets televised, who can be here 23 24 listening, what goes on the Internet, this is 25 very disturbing to me. I have to say this is probably the most disturbing change that I see 1 2 now right now in the rules, because by and large there's not very much that different. 3 4 In fact, since I heard members of 5 the new Coalition Majority talking about being committed to bipartisan government that places 6 7 progress over politicking, I was actually expecting something that would revolutionize the 8 Senate and perhaps could move us forward into a 9 10 post-partisan era of cooperation where we're 11 individually empowered to deal with important issues, get votes done, and debate the bills that 12 deserve being debated in the public that can be 13 14 seen on Internet and the press. 15 But that's not what I see here. I'm reserving complete judgment, because as we 16 already said, we feel that there was not enough 17 18 time at all for anyone, including the public, to review what's actually in the rule changes. But 19 20 mostly what I'm telling you I see is same old, 21 same old. The rules of the chamber were 22 provided to us in the middle of last night and 23 then were leaked to the media, sort of same old, 24 25 same old. They didn't reform the operations of

1	the chamber. In fact, there were steps taken
2	backwards, away from reforms previously embraced
3	by both Democrat and Republican majorities. They 4	once again take resources from the minority in an 5	attempt to further disenfranchise our б	constituents and make it even harder for duly 7	elected Democratic members of the Senate to 8	analyze legislation and present our own
9	legislation.
10	They move us further than ever
11	before in the direction of institutionalizing
12	Republican control of this body and legislative
13	operations, with new provisions like a
14	supermajority requirement is required to change
15	the rules in any way, sharply limiting the 16	members' ability to even petition for open
17	consideration of their bills, putting a partisan
18	Secretary of the Senate in charge of even the 19	most basic functions.
20	The Majority Coalition could have
21	proved us wrong and taken this chamber in a bold
22	new direction. Instead, we're taking a trip back
23	in time to the bad old Albany.
24	The Democratic Conference will
25	continue to work for the progressive changes

New Yorkers voted for, and will continue to offer 1 2 productive solutions, not the same old late-night Albany power plays and last minute 3 bait-and-switches. 4 5 Thank you, Mr. President. I'll be б voting no. 7 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Thank 8 you, Senator Krueger. 9 The question is on the resolution. 10 All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Response of "Aye.") 11 12 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: A11 those in favor of the resolution please raise 13 your hands. 14 15 (Raise of hands.) 16 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: All those in opposition please raise your hands. 17 18 (Raise of hands.) ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 19 The 20 Clerk will announce the results. 21 THE SECRETARY: Ayes, 36. ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 22 23 Senator Libous, the resolution is adopted. Senator Skelos, I would ask that you 24 25 now rise and state for the record that you are in

1 fact the Republican Conference leader. 2 SENATOR SKELOS: Yes, I have been 3 elected by my colleagues as Republican Conference leader. 4 5 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Thank you. Congratulations. б 7 (Extended applause.) 8 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Let the 9 record and the applause reflect the fact that 10 Senator Skelos is the Republican Conference leader. 11 Senator Klein, I would ask that you 12 rise and state for the record that you are the 13 Independent Democratic Conference leader. 14 15 SENATOR KLEIN: Mr. President, I am 16 the Independent Democratic Conference leader. 17 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 18 Congratulations, and thank you. 19 (Extended applause.) 20 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Let the 21 record as well reflect the fact that 22 Senator Klein is the Independent Democratic Conference leader. 23 And Senator Stewart-Cousins, I would 24 25 ask that you rise and state for the record that

1 you are in fact the Democratic Conference leader. 2 SENATOR STEWART-COUSINS: Yes, I am the Democratic Conference leader. 3 4 (Extended applause.) 5 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Let the record reflect as well that Senator б 7 Stewart-Cousins is the duly elected leader of the 8 Democratic Conference. 9 Senator Libous. 10 SENATOR LIBOUS: Thank you, Mr. President. 11 I believe I have a resolution at the 12 desk, and I would ask that the title be read and 13 we move for its immediate adoption. 14 15 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: The 16 Secretary will read the resolution. THE SECRETARY: Senate Resolution 17 18 by Senators Libous and Valesky, providing for the election of Dean G. Skelos and Jeffrey D. Klein 19 20 as alternating Temporary President of the Senate 21 for the years 2013-2014. ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 22 Senator Gianaris, why do you rise? 23 SENATOR GIANARIS: Mr. President, I 24 25 believe there's a substitute resolution at the desk. I ask that the title be read and move for 1 2 its immediate adoption. 3 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: The 4 Secretary will read the resolution. 5 SENATOR LIBOUS: Mr. President. ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Senator 6 7 Libous. 8 SENATOR LIBOUS: On unanimous 9 consent, we will allow the substitute resolution 10 to be read. ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: On 11 12 unanimous consent, the resolution will be read. 13 THE SECRETARY: Senate Resolution 14 by Senator Gianaris, providing for the election 15 of Senator Andrea Stewart-Cousins as Temporary 16 President and Majority Leader of the Senate for 2013-2014. 17 18 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 19 Senator Gianaris, I assume that you would like to 20 be heard on this resolution. 21 SENATOR GIANARIS: I would, 22 Mr. President. Thank you very much. 23 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Senator Gianaris. 24 25 SENATOR GIANARIS: This resolution contains a historic nomination. As it is a day 1 2 of unprecedented activity in this chamber, we should have one more. And that is for the first 3 4 time in the history of New York State, a woman is 5 being nominated to be a legislative leader in this chamber. 6 7 (Sustained applause.) 8 SENATOR GIANARIS: And while that 9 is certainly noteworthy and cause for the 10 applause we just heard, let's be clear: This is no ordinary woman that's being nominated here. 11 12 (Applause.) 13 SENATOR GIANARIS: Senator Andrea Stewart-Cousins has a distinguished career not 14 15 only here as a colleague in the State Senate, but 16 throughout her life, which started with humble beginnings and saw her rise to be a tremendous 17 18 leader in New York State government. 19 Among her background she's served as 20 a teacher, showing that tremendous love she has 21 in caring for the youth of our state, as well as a journalist, which we will try not to hold 22 against her. 23 (Laughter.) 24 25 SENATOR GIANARIS: But her work as

1 a public servant is what stands out the most, not 2 only here in the Senate but as a member of the 3 Westchester County Legislature. She has been a 4 champion of human rights, living wage laws, 5 smoke-free workplaces, prosecuting predatory lenders, tax cuts for seniors and veterans, and 6 7 perhaps most timely and most importantly as we stand here today, a leader in toughening the gun 8 laws of our state. 9 10 It is a great honor for me to have 11 the opportunity to place her name in nomination 12 to be the Temporary President of this body. And I would ask all my colleagues in this chamber to 13 recognize the historic nature of this nomination 14 15 and vote to elect Andrea Stewart-Cousins Temporary President of the Senate. Thank you. 16 17 (Applause.) 18 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: The question is on the substitute resolution offered 19 20 by Senator Gianaris. All those in favor of that resolution --21 SENATOR GIANARIS: Show of hands, 22 Mr. President. 23 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 24 -- with 25 a show of hands, signify by raising your hands.

(Show of hands.) 1 2 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: All 3 those opposed. (Show of hands.) 4 5 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: The substitute resolution is defeated. б 7 Announce the results. 8 THE SECRETARY: Ayes, 26. 9 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Senator 10 Libous, your resolution is before the house. SENATOR LIBOUS: Thank you, 11 Mr. President. 12 13 SENATOR GIANARIS: Mr. President --14 I'm sorry. 15 SENATOR LIBOUS: Go ahead, Senator. 16 SENATOR GIANARIS: I would like to make a motion to divide the question contained in 17 18 this resolution into two separate resolutions. ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 19 Senator 20 Gianaris, your motion is out of order. This is a 21 privileged question before the house, and there 22 are no subsidiary motions. 23 Senator Libous. I would like to SENATOR GIANARIS: 24 25 appeal the decision of the chair and be given a brief opportunity to explain my appeal. 1 2 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Senator Gianaris. 3 4 SENATOR GIANARIS: Thank you, 5 Mr. President. Through custom and tradition in this 6 7 house, we have referred to authorities to dictate the procedures of this house. One of the -- in 8 fact, the main authority we've used has been 9 10 Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure. It is 11 particularly authoritative in this case because 12 we have rules that were adopted only moments ago that many of us have not had a chance to review. 13 Mason's is very clear that when more 14 15 than one question is contained in a resolution that any member may call for its division so that 16 each question may be voted upon separately 17 18 without being compelled to accept matters 19 embraced in other parts of the measure. 20 In fact, Section 313, subdivision 3 21 of Mason's specifically addresses the exact type of resolution that is before us at this moment. 22 And it says wherever there are several names 23 contained in a question, they must on demand be 24 25 put to a vote separately.

In this case we have two names in 1 2 nomination on this resolution to be elected to 3 one position. It seems like it's something very 4 specifically contemplated by Mason's and 5 something that, on the demand of any member, should be separated into two separate votes. 6 7 I as a member of this body make such 8 a demand, Mr. President. 9 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: The 10 question is on the appeal of the ruling of the 11 chair. Senator Gianaris, I don't want to 12 13 make any assumptions, but I assume you would want a hand vote as well? 14 15 SENATOR GIANARIS: Yes, please. 16 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Those in favor of overruling the chair signify by 17 18 raising your hands. (Show of hands.) 19 20 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Those 21 opposed? (Show of hands.) 22 23 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: The Clerk will announce the results. 24 25 THE SECRETARY: Ayes, 26.

ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 1 The Chair is sustained. 2 3 Senator Libous, your resolution is before the house. 4 5 SENATOR LIBOUS: Thank you, Mr. President. 6 7 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Senator Libous, the title has been read and the 8 resolution is before the house. 9 10 SENATOR LIBOUS: Thank you, Mr. President. 11 12 I stand to speak on this historic resolution, something that's never been done in 13 14 this chamber before, to set up what we have as 15 not only a coalition government but the Temporary President in the names of Dean Skelos 16 and Jeff Klein. 17 18 I want to speak about Dean Skelos. And, Mr. President, I want to state that at no 19 20 time shall more than one of the coalition leaders, Senator Skelos or Senator Klein, serve 21 as Temporary President. 22 For the last several years, 23 Senator Skelos has led this house and our 24 25 conference. He has because a very dear friend to

1	me and to everyone in the Republican Conference.
2	During very difficult times over the
3	last two years he has showed his leadership by 4	working with the Democratic Governor and helping
5	this state move forward by getting two early
6	on-time budgets, budgets without tax increases,
7	changing the direction, the fiscal direction of 8	the state, protecting our children, and doing so
9	many things that this state had needed for so,
10	many years and such a long time.
11	It's because of his leadership of 12	this conference that we have moved this state in 13	a position where we can continue to move forward
14	and do great things. Senator Skelos possesses
15	the leadership quality that a Temporary President
16	should have in leading this body in a coalition
17	government, a new coalition government. That's 18	something that I think we are all very excited to 19	see move forward.
20	So, Mr. President, it is indeed an 21	honor for me to speak on this resolution to 22	support my friend and colleague, Republican
23	leader Dean Skelos and Temporary President of the 24	Senate. And I would hope that all the members
25	would join me unanimously in supporting this resolution. 1 2 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Thank 3 you, Senator Libous. 4 The Chair recognizes 5 Senator Valesky. SENATOR VALESKY: 6 Thank you, 7 Mr. President. 8 First of all, I certainly want to 9 assure anyone who may have questions on this 10 resolution that at no time shall more than one of the coalition leaders, Senator Klein and 11 12 Senator Skelos, serve in the capacity as Temporary President. I think that's fairly clear 13 14 if you read the resolution. But for the record, 15 that is certainly the case. 16 I have been privileged to serve now in the State Senate for eight years. And eight 17 18 years ago, then-Assemblyman Jeff Klein and I were on the ballot together running for the State 19 20 Senate. And eight years ago this month, when he 21 and I arrived with a number of other 22 colleagues -- Senator Savino as well, and many others here today -- as part of the Class of 23 2005, I had an opportunity and continue to have 24 25 an opportunity to work on a daily basis with

1 Senator Klein.

2	I've got to know him, I've got to
3	develop a close personal friendship with him.
4	And those of you who know Senator Klein, who have 5	worked with Senator Klein in one capacity or 6	another either here in this Senate, previously in 7	his career in the State Assembly, or in his many 8	other roles, know without a doubt of the 9	tremendous tenacity that Jeff Klein has on behalf
10	of public service.
11	No one in this chamber, as hard as
12	we all work, I am convinced that no one in this 13	chamber works harder on behalf not only of his 14	constituents but of all of the people, all 15	19.5 million people in New York State. There is 16	not a moment that goes by that Senator Klein does
17	not have the best interests of the people of this 18	state in mind.
19	And for that reason, Mr. President,
20	I am incredibly proud and honored to be able to 21	speak on behalf of this resolution and on behalf
22	of Senator Klein, who is truly a statewide leader
23	in this great Empire State.
24	Thank you.
25	ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Thank

1 you, Senator Valesky.

2 The question is on the resolution. 3 By a show of hands, all those in favor of the 4 resolution raise your hands, please. 5 (Show of hands.) ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: All б 7 those opposed, please raise your hands. 8 (Show of hands.) 9 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: The 10 Clerk will announce the results. THE SECRETARY: Ayes, 36. 11 12 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Senator 13 Skelos, Senator Klein, congratulations. I ask 14 that you come forward so that we may properly 15 swear you in. 16 (Applause.) 17 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: For the 18 record, Senator Libous, I left out a very salient 19 The resolution is adopted. point. 20 (Laughter.) 21 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Senator 22 Skelos is joined by his beautiful wife Gail, his father, his son Adam, and the future 23 Majority Leader of the New York State Senate, the 24 25 new Dean Skelos.

Klein have been 14 15 elected Temporary President of the Senate for 16 alternating terms for the years 2013-2014, and that the Senate is assembled and ready to proceed 17 18 to the Governor's Message." I am so happy to recognize our 6 7 colleagues from the New York State Assembly, 8 Assemblyman Farrell and Assemblyman Oaks, and we 9 pray that you have good news for us. 10 ASSEMBLYMAN FARRELL: Yes, we do. Mr. Oaks and I are delighted to inform you that 11 the Assembly has elected Sheldon Silver as 12 Speaker of the New York State Assembly and that 13 14 we are organized and ready to proceed with 15 business. 16 Is that correct, Mr. Oaks? 17 ASSEMBLYMAN OAKS: It is. 18 (Laughter.) ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 19 20 Gentlemen, thank you very much. 21 Senator Libous, at this time I'm 22 going to recognize Senator Stewart-Cousins for 23 remarks. Senator Stewart-Cousins. 24 25 SENATOR STEWART-COUSINS: Thank

1 you, Mr. President.

2	And I just want to congratulate my
3	colleague Senator Skelos. I look forward to 4	working with you. And Senator Klein, really an
5	honor to be part of, as you said, a historic day
6	and a historic movement forward.
7	I also want to recognize certainly
8	all of the new members. But I think we just lost
9	one of two of our new members. But just to 10	let everyone know who our new Senators here are 11	on the Democratic side, I'd like to recognize
12	Senator Terry Gipson from the Hudson Valley.
13	(Applause.)
14	SENATOR STEWART-COUSINS: Senator
15	Brad Hoylman, from Manhattan.
16	(Applause.)
17	SENATOR STEWART-COUSINS: My
18	Westchester neighbor, Senator Latimer. I guess
19	he's already on his way to the Assembly.
20	(Applause.)
21	SENATOR STEWART-COUSINS: And
22	Senator Ted O'Brien, of Rochester, is on his way
23	to the Governor.
24	(Applause.)

Senator James Sanders, of Queens. 1 2 (Applause.) SENATOR STEWART-COUSINS: 3 We are 4 very, very happy, as I said, to welcome all of 5 our new members and certainly to welcome all of our colleagues back for what I am sure will be a 6 7 wonderful and productive session. 8 As I stand here at this historic moment, myself having the privilege of being the 9 10 first woman to lead a conference in the history of the state, three things come to mind. 11 12 One, my parents, Beryl and Bob, who aren't with me, but who never had the opportunity 13 14 to ever aspire to sitting in any of our seats, 15 much less dream that their daughter would be in a position to be a legislative leader in this great 16 17 state. 18 And the second thing I think of is because it's New York State, because we have a 19 20 legacy of leadership, because we are progressive, we are able to take pride in moments like this. 21 And the third thing I have to say is 22 it's about time. It's about time. 23 24 (Laughter; applause.) 25 SENATOR STEWART-COUSINS: You know,

1 we were able, with the leadership of our 2 Governor, to do really good things. And I know we're all looking forward to his message of what 3 4 his vision of the session is going forward. 5 We were able to move our economy, bolster our jobs situation. We were able to show 6 7 that we could move. But we left a lot of things undone. And I'm sure we're going to hear a lot 8 of the things that were left undone, not only 9 10 here but at the State of the State. But it's important, because in this 11 12 historic moment that is this moment for me and others because of expanded opportunities, the 13 14 things that we have to do are those things, to 15 expand opportunities. 16 Obviously we have to get to work on making sure we rebuild after Sandy. We have to 17 18 make sure that every New Yorker who has been hurt 19 is able to get back on their feet and move on. 20 And we have to make sure, as we continue to push 21 our economy forward, that we understand that 22 there were people who sent us to do things that expand their opportunities. 23 We need to understand the 24 25 opportunity for people being safe in New York.

1 We need to get our partisan differences aside and 2 come together on an expansion of how we can move 3 sensible gun laws. Sensible gun laws. 4 We need to ban assault weapons. We 5 need to, yes, expand opportunities for looking at mental health situations. We need to expand how 6 7 we look at gun permits and how frequently we look at them. And we need to look at background 8 checks. We need to expand the security in our 9 10 lives. 11 And we need also to expand the 12 economy for the lowest-wage workers. We need to raise the minimum wage. We need to make sure 13 14 that people who are laboring at the very, very 15 lowest rung understand that they are part of an economy in New York that includes them. We need 16 to raise the minimum wage. 17 18 We need to make sure that we are expansive on women's health options, that we 19 20 don't lose our rights to decide in personal matters. And we need to make sure that women are 21 actually paid equally. We need to pass pay 22 23 equity. 24 We need to expand the opportunities 25 for the Dreamers, these kids who are here, brought here, no fault of their own. Giving so 1 2 much, having so much more to give. We need to 3 expand those opportunities for them. 4 We need to make sure that as we look 5 at our environment we expand the safety measures for our drinking water, for our environment. 6 We 7 need to make sure as we grow our economy that we don't get smaller. 8 9 We talked about the rules, we talked 10 about rules taking back resources, taking back 11 opportunities for us to serve really 12 transparently, making it harder to move an This is a moment, my colleagues, of an 13 agenda. 14 opportunity to expand, to expand what is going to 15 happen in this unprecedented power sharing, where someone different will be doing different things 16 17 every day. 18 It all works well if, while we are moving forward in our leadership, we're 19 20 remembering the people of New York expect us to be progressive and to expand their opportunities 21 22 on every level, and that the only history that's going to make a difference in New York State 23 after all of these historic moments is the great 24 25 history that we write for the people we represent. 1 2 This conference stands ready to work 3 with all of our partners. Let's get it done. 4 Thank you. 5 (Standing ovation.) ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: б Thank 7 you, Senator Stewart-Cousins. 8 The Chair recognizes Senator Klein. SENATOR KLEIN: 9 Thank you very 10 much, Mr. President. Thank you to my Republican colleagues, my IDC colleagues, my Democratic 11 12 colleagues. 13 As we come together today, we usher 14 in not just a new year and a new legislative 15 session but in many ways a new chapter in the revolutionary history of New York State. 16 Today we make a commitment that has never been made 17 18 before in the more than two centuries that the 19 New York State Legislature has been in 20 existence. 21 By formalizing and establishing a 22 first-of-its-kind coalition governing model, we 23 humbly acknowledge that our sum is greater than our parts, and we send a clear message to the 24 25 residents of our great state that what really matters is not where you choose to sit in this 1 2 chamber but whether you are willing to get things 3 done. 4 I want to thank my colleague 5 Senator Dean Skelos for having the courage and foresight to undertake this unprecedented 6 7 effort. Senator, I know you, like I, are committed to delivering major bipartisan results 8 for all New Yorkers. 9 10 As we clearly saw today, we have another historic first, the first ever woman 11 leader of a Senate conference, Senator Andrea 12 Stewart-Cousins. 13 14 Senator, we've worked together on 15 many vital issues in the past, including foreclosure prevention, property tax relief. And 16 I look forward to the productive work we will 17 18 continue to do in the weeks and months ahead together on behalf of all New Yorkers. 19 20 I believe most of you would agree that these changes are a significant sign of the 21 times. From this day forward it is no longer 22 acceptable to dig in your heels in personal 23 political combat at the expense of the welfare of 24 25 hardworking taxpayers of this state.

Coalition governing by its very 1 2 nature is an inclusive endeavor, not an exclusive 3 one. I have no doubt that our promise to create 4 this historic bipartisan governing model will be 5 the vehicle by which we can continue to build on the tremendous progress we have achieved in the 6 7 past two years and the road that will lead us to 8 even more results for all New Yorkers. 9 This new year brings us a tremendous 10 opportunity to show New Yorkers that we can govern in a practical, sensible, balanced way 11 12 with a spirit of cooperation. It means 13 recognizing that negotiation is not a dirty word 14 but rather a necessary element of meaningful 15 dialogue. Working with Governor Cuomo and our 16 17 counterparts in the Assembly, I am confident that 18 major progressive reforms will be discussed and 19 debated this session -- among them, an increase 20 to the minimum wage, decriminalization of the open possession of minute amounts of marijuana, 21 22 and opening up educational opportunity for all New Yorkers. I am also confident we will see 23 these important pieces of legislation passed. 24 Let's be clear. 25 The economic, social and civic challenges of today call for us to focus on what really matters, and that means the positive, meaningful and lasting impact we can have on the lives of millions of New Yorkers. By working together in a bipartisan fashion, we vow to remain focused on what these issues are really about.

What the fight to raise the minimum wage is really about is allowing millions of hardworking New Yorkers across the state to receive a paycheck they can actually live on.
And it is not only a moral imperative but an economic incentive for New York State.
When we talk gun control, we aren't talking about taking away anyone's rights but securing the right of all New Yorkers to live in a safe and free society.
We must also ensure that time and resources and energy are committed to directing and rebuilding efforts in the wake of Superstorm Sandy. The bipartisan Senate task force we've created will work to remove roadblocks to recovery and focus in on developing meaningful legislation aimed at disaster prevention and protection in order to put all

New Yorkers on solid ground in the event of any 1 2 further future natural disaster. 3 As we work to relieve unnecessary 4 and burdensome regulations on small business, we 5 are not encouraging business owners to cut corners but instead creating the conditions that 6 7 will get New York working again. In the past 8 three years, 794 new rules and regulations were proposed by state entities, and nearly 95 percent 9 10 of them were adopted. On average, our small 11 businesses around our state are being buried 12 under more than a hundred new regulations each 13 year. 14 As many of you may know, I am a 15 second-generation American with grandparents who arrived in the Bronx from Poland and Hungary 16 before the Second World War. My grandparents 17 18 were able to provide for their families through 19 small business efforts and entrepreneurial 20 efforts and in turn afforded me, their first grandchild, to have a solid and secure 21 upbringing, attending public schools in the 22 23 Bronx. I was the first in my family to 24 25 attend graduate school, college, law school. It

1	was not only a goal I had for myself but a dream
2	my family carried for me. The issue of
3	implementing the New York DREAM Act is a dear one
4	to me, and I believe we should not get twisted
5	into a debate about immigration but recognize 6	that no one, no one has the right to stand in the 7	way of someone else's education.
8	We will pass the DREAM Act by
9	utilizing revenue generated from the legalization
10	of casino gambling to supplement TAP, and thus
11	providing a pathway to make this possible.
12	Let's be clear. What the New York
13	DREAM Act is really about is enriching the next
14	generation of our workforce by removing obstacles
15	for hundreds of young New Yorkers to pursue a 16	higher education and, in a New York tradition, be 17	an inspiration for generations that come after 18	them.
19	For centuries New Yorkers have
20	served as an inspiration and garnered the 21	admiration of others around the globe. Our
22	diverse communities are a microcosm of the world,
23	and no matter your ethnicity, economic status,
24	cultural tradition or background, it is here that
25	you get a fair shot.

Г

1	Our soil has been the birthing
2	ground for entrepreneurs, icons, social
3	activists, sports legends, famous artists,
4	musicians, writers and, yes, future presidents.
5	We must celebrate our diversity, we must champion
6	the rights of all. And the only way we will move
7	forward is by moving forward together.
8	From the Alleghenies to the
9	Adirondacks, from the Mohawk Valley to Montauk,
10	from the Catskills to Alphabet City, we may lead
11	different lives and have diverse needs, but we 12	all possess an indomitable spirit, a belief that 13	tomorrow will be better, and a sense that we're 14	all in this together that has led us through the 15	earliest hours of the struggle for independence
16	on the Saratoga Battlefield to the darkest days
17	of horrific tragedy and loss of September 11th
18	and, most recently, Superstorm Sandy.
19	When we get knocked down, we get 20	back up. When we are tested, we rise to the 21	challenge. And when we are told something cannot
22	be done, we respectfully respond with a "Yes, it
23	can. This is New York."
24	We are a state of greatness filled
25	with generous, strong, talented and kind people who deserve a government that creates sensible 1 laws to protect them, common-sense policies to 2 3 support them, and broad opportunities that uplift 4 them. 5 And to my Senate colleagues, to the Governor, and to all New Yorkers within earshot, б 7 I say this. New York is a state that leads the way, bucks the trends, takes chances and never 8 9 gives up on what some may consider the 10 impossible. What we've learned from our history 11 is that what many often consider to be 12 revolutionary in one generation becomes routine in the next. 13 14 New York, we stand ready to meet 15 your challenges, to fight for your dreams, to champion your causes and alleviate your 16 concerns. We stand ready to be judged by our 17 18 record of results and not just our rhetoric. We 19 know that if we are to advance our communities 20 and our citizenry, inclusion is the only way by 21 which we'll get there. 22 A great state like New York deserves a extended period of stability and a sensible and 23 smart government. We stand at the threshold of 24 25 the government of the future, and it is up to us

1 to take up the mantle. 2 Thank you, Mr. President. 3 (Standing ovation.) 4 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Thank 5 you, Senator Klein. The Chair recognizes Senator 6 7 Skelos. 8 SENATOR SKELOS: Thank you, 9 Mr. President. 10 Welcome back to all the members. And to all the new members on this side of the 11 12 aisle, we welcome you. 13 And to our new members -- I think 14 some of them are talking to the Assembly or to 15 the Governor, but we have Senator Kathy 16 Marchione. Former Assemblyman who's back, Senator Phil Boyle, we welcome you. And Simcha 17 18 Felder, Senator Simcha Felder, we welcome you. 19 (Applause.) 20 SENATOR SKELOS: All of you have 21 worked hard, and you'll be great additions to the 22 Senate. 23 I also want to congratulate Senator Stewart-Cousins on being elected Democrat 24 25 Conference leader. We've worked well together in

1 the past, and there's no reason at all why we 2 cannot work together to move this state forward. 3 The campaigns are over and now it's time for 4 governing. 5 And certainly this is going to be an interesting two years for the State Senate. 6 We 7 have made history today. For the first time in the history of this body, the Senate will not be 8 run exclusively by Republicans or Democrats. 9 10 Instead, our chamber will be led by a new 11 bipartisan governing coalition. 12 Senate Republicans are looking forward to working with our partners in the 13 14 Independent Democrat Conference, led by Senator 15 Jeff Klein. 16 Senator Klein and I have forged a strong partnership and friendship. We're not at 17 18 the point of being called twins yet, but we're getting there. 19 20 (Laughter.) 21 SENATOR SKELOS: But he is, as you 22 could hear from his remarks, an outstanding serious legislator who cares deeply about working 23 to improve the lives of everyone in our state. 24 25 Our coalition is a natural extension

1 of the partnership we've built over the last 2 two years that enabled us to put New York back on the right track. Working with the IDC and with 3 4 Governor Cuomo, we were able to cut spending and 5 taxes, two early budgets, a lower-middle-class tax cut, expanding the DNA databank, helping 6 businesses create jobs, eliminated the payroll 7 8 tax for most small business. 9 And we eliminated the huge deficits, 10 which I think is critically important, without raising taxes. Unlike Washington, our state 11 12 government is functioning. 13 In 2013 we will build on our record by passing tough new laws to increase public 14 15 safety, controlling spending and cut taxes, and encouraging businesses to create more jobs. 16 As we prepare to receive the 17 18 Governor's State of the State message, let's take 19 our inspiration from the people who responded 20 bravely in the face of Hurricane Sandy and are 21 responding again to help build these devastated 22 communities. 23 I'd like to thank Bishop Murphy -- I think he may be on his way over to the session 24 25 for his opening prayer.

1 I want to acknowledge the fact that 2 two years ago I said my father was here, 90 years old and still working. He is here today, almost 3 4 92 and still working. So, Dad --5 (Applause.) SENATOR SKELOS: My wife Gail, for б 7 being just a strong supporter of what is a very 8 difficult and challenging profession. 9 All of my family members that are 10 here -- brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews --11 supporters. 12 But I want to also acknowledge my son Adam and his wife Ann Marie. And to me, even 13 14 more special, acknowledging the fact that I now 15 have a grandson. His name is Dean. 16 (Laughter.) 17 SENATOR SKELOS: And I'm a bit 18 older than the Governor, but I said to him "There 19 will always be a Dean Skelos in your life as you 20 move through it." 21 (Laughter.) 22 SENATOR SKELOS: But what is really 23 significant to me is the fact when I was standing there and my brother was swearing me in and my 24 25 grandson Dean being held by my son, when I was

1 first sworn into the Senate, my mom held the 2 Bible and I held my son Adam. So life is good. Life is special. 3 4 I think we should all remember that. And at this 5 time I think it's appropriate -- I know you have some closing things to say -- totally appropriate 6 7 to go and listen to the Governor's State of the 8 State. 9 Thank you very much. 10 (Standing ovation.) ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 11 Senator Libous. 12 SENATOR LIBOUS: Mr. President, is 13 14 there any further business at the desk? 15 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: Senator 16 Libous, there is no further business at the desk. SENATOR LIBOUS: Mr. President, 17 18 there being no further business, I move that we 19 adjourn until Monday, January 14th, at 3:00 p.m., 20 intervening days being legislative days. We will now proceed to the Empire 21 State Plaza Convention Center for the Governor's 22 State of the State address. 23 ACTING PRESIDENT FLANAGAN: 24 On 25 motion, the Senate stands adjourned until Monday,
