1 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: The

3 THE SECRETARY: Legislative 4 Resolution Number 2887, by Senator
5 Stewart-Cousins, memorializing the Reverend 6 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s tremendous 7 contributions to civil rights and American 8 society, and the 29th Anniversary of the national 9 holiday that honors his birth and achievements.

10 "WHEREAS, Today we celebrate the 11 life and extraordinary achievements of one of our

18 family home in Atlanta, Georgia, and was the

20 Reverend Martin Luther King, Sr., and 21 Alberta Williams King; and

22 "WHEREAS, Martin Luther King, Jr.,
23 began his education at the Yonge Street
24 Elementary School in Atlanta, Georgia, attended 25 the Atlanta University Laboratory School and

1 Booker T. Washington High School, and was 2 admitted to Morehouse College at the age of 15; 3 and

4 "WHEREAS, At the age of 19, 5 Martin Luther King, Jr., graduated from 6 Morehouse College with a Bachelor of Arts degree 7 in sociology, and three years later, in 1951, was

12 outstanding student, among which was the Crozer 13 fellowship for graduate study at a university of 14 his choice; and

15 "WHEREAS, In 1951, at the age of 22,
16 Martin Luther King, Jr., began doctoral studies

18 also studied at Harvard University, and at the 19 age of 26 was awarded a Doctor of Philosophy 20 degree from Boston University in 1955; and

21 American history and is a defining moment in this 22 nation's civil rights movement; and

23 "WHEREAS, Dr. King was honored
24 countless times for his leadership of the United 25 States civil rights movement, including his

1 selection by Time Magazine as Most Outstanding
2 Personality of 1957 and Man of the Year of 1963,

5 leaders who had contributed the most to the 6 advancement of freedom during 1959; and

7 "WHEREAS, Dr. King's receipt in 1964
8 of the Nobel Peace Prize, at the age of 35, made 9 him the youngest recipient of that prestigious 10 award, and one of only three black Americans who 11 have received that award, along with Dr. Ralph 12 Bunche and President Barack Obama, whose journey 13 to become president owes no small debt to the 14 journey Dr. King and the millions of Americans 15 who walked hand in hand with him undertook to end
16 segregation and remind Americans of the great 17 moral underpinnings of our federal Constitution, 18 which provides that we are all created equal, and 19 of the incredible power of the American ideal 20 that we all deserve to live in a free and just 21 society; and

22 "WHEREAS, Dr. King was murdered in 23 Memphis, Tennessee, on April 4, 1968, by James 24 Earl Ray, and was mourned by millions of 25 Americans of all ages, races, creeds and colors

1 on the national day of mourning declared by 2 President Lyndon Johnson; and

3 "WHEREAS, Dr. King's birthday was 4 made into a national holiday in 1986, was first 5 celebrated in all 50 states in the year 2000, and 6 is the only federal holiday to honor a private 7 American citizen; and

8 "WHEREAS, Dr. King stands in a long
9 line of great American leaders and represents the 10 historical culmination and living embodiment of a 11 spirit of united purpose, rooted in black African 12 culture and the American Dream; and

13 "WHEREAS, Dr. King taught us that 14 through nonviolence, courage displaces fear, love
15 transforms hate, acceptance dissipates prejudice, 16 and mutual regard cancels resentment; and

17 "WHEREAS, Dr. King manifestly
18 contributed to the cause of America's freedom;
19 his commitment to human dignity is visibly 20 mirrored in the spiritual, economic and political 21 dimensions of the civil rights movement; now,
22 therefore, be it

23 "RESOLVED, That this Legislative
24 Body pause in its deliberations to honor the life
25 of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.,

1 whose untimely death robbed America of his 2 leadership at too early a date, and whose deeds
3 and words transformed America and live in our 4 homes, schools and public institutions to this 5 day, continuing to inspire the millions of 6 Americans whose lives of purpose and achievement
7 might not have been possible but for Dr. King's 8 leadership and the examples set by the millions 9 of Americans who joined him in one of the great 10 moral crusades of the 20th century; and be it 11 further

12 "RESOLVED, That this Legislative
13 Body calls upon its members and all New Yorkers
14 to observe the day of Dr. King's birth as a day 15 of service to our family, friends, neighbors and 16 those less fortunate than ourselves, and to moral 17 causes greater than ourselves, and to the great 18 State of New York, in keeping with the ideals of 19 the national Martin Luther King Day of Service,
20 which was started by former Pennsylvania State
21 Senator Harris Wofford and Congressman John Lewis
22 from Atlanta, Georgia, who coauthored the King 23 Holiday and Service Act, signed into law by 24 President Bill Clinton in 1994; and be it further

25 "RESOLVED, That copies of this

1 resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to 2 the family of Dr. King and to the King Center in 3 Atlanta."

4 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: Senator
5 Stewart-Cousins on the resolution.

6 SENATOR STEWART-COUSINS: Thank
7 you, Mr. President.

8 And I guess after all of us have 9 returned from this weekend where we were able to 10 remember Dr. King, to celebrate how far America 11 has come because of the work of Dr. King and 12 countless others, it is really fitting that we 13 begin our session with where he left off, because 14 that's what we must do.

15 He was only 39 when he died. And 16 most people, I think, because when you read the 17 biography and you read so much about him, you 18 sort of tend to think that this was someone who 19 lived so long to do all these things -- he did 20 this work in less than 13 years, from 1955 to 21 when he was assassinated in 1968. The tremendous 22 amount of progress that happened for 23 African-Americans and others happened in this 24 13 years.

25 Mahatma Gandhi, his own Christian

1 faith obviously informed him on the ways of 2 nonviolence. And while people, certainly people
3 growing up as I did in New York, we had the 4 debate, well, is it nonviolence, is it by any 5 means necessary, the reality was that Dr. King in 6 his relentless pursuit of justice and equality
7 changed a nation and changed the world.

8 And when he was assassinated, he was 9 talking about economics, he was talking about 10 jobs, he was talking about education, he was 11 talking about organized labor, he was talking 12 about the extension of what the March on 13 Washington was was really the March for Jobs and 14 Freedom.

15 Dr. King would have been organizing
16 today with fast-food workers. Dr. King would 17 have been organizing people who are working hard
18 and not able to sustain families, who aren't 19 getting educational opportunities, who still 20 haven't been able to walk through those doors of 21 equality, who still long for justice.

22 So it is so great that we as a
23 nation get to pause every beginning of the year 24 to remember not only what has been achieved but 25 what has yet to be achieved. And certainly

1 people in legislatures and chambers all over this 2 nation just like us, every day we have an 3 opportunity to advance that dream, advance that 4 purpose, and even make our own mark in making 5 sure that Dr. King's legacy is felt, lived and 6 enjoyed by all.

7 So thank you, Mr. President.

8 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: Thank
9 you, Senator Stewart-Cousins.

10 Senator Larkin on the resolution.

11 SENATOR LARKIN: Thank you,
12 Mr. President.

13 And I'd like to congratulate the 14 Senator. It was an excellent presentation, and 15 it encompassed years into minutes. Well done.
16 Congratulations and thank you.

17 You know, I've stood up in this body
18 for a number of years. I believe I'm probably 19 the only person in this room that ever personally 20 met Dr. King.

21 When I first heard about Dr. King, 22 it was 1963. I was in Europe, it was August, the 23 Washington March, when he said "I Had a Dream."
24 I asked then and I ask today, what happened to 25 the dream? We talk about it, but we're not doing

1 things that we should be doing.

2 In 1965 I had the privilege of 3 representing the United States government going 4 to Montgomery, Alabama, and to entice the 5 governor to activate his troops in protection and 6 safety of the march from Selma to Montgomery.
7 And of course the Governor said go you know 8 where. At 12 o'clock that night I went back and 9 gave him an official order to activate his troops
10 and to move troops from all over America to Selma 11 and Montgomery and the route to.

12 When that march started that Sunday
13 morning, everybody was hanging around Dr. King, 14 wanting to get him. I wasn't inside; all I know
15 is what was being reported to me. And one person 16 that we never hear talked enough about was 17 Dr. Ralph Abernathy. When I went to him and 18 said, you know, I can't talk to your boss but I'm 19 telling you, there's thousands of people out 20 here, thousands of people on the road. There was 21 2500 people ready to march.

22 He went in and said: "Martin, it's 23 time to move." And some of the other hangers-on 24 were saying, We need pictures, we need this. And 25 Dr. King looked at him -- because I could see, I

1 was at the door. He was listening to Dr. Ralph 2 Abernathy, who in my opinion is one individual in 3 civil rights who never got the recognition that 4 he deserved.

5 But look at what Dr. King said. His 6 goal was to let us think about individuals as 7 they can be. Respect for one another. I said
8 last year, in this chamber, "In a year, when we 9 come back, I want to ask you what have you done
10 to fulfill those visions."

11 I can stand up and say for myself
12 we're having an essay contest that's finished in 13 a high school. And I'm giving them cash out of 14 my pocket for the winners. I've seen three or 15 four of them. I've seen one from a young girl 16 that came from Nigeria. And she said: "I never 17 thought that I could enjoy a country as I do in 18 America. But the more I read about Dr. King, we 19 haven't done enough to fulfill his dream and his 20 hopes."

21 And his hopes weren't just for 22 African-Americans. His hopes were for all of us,
23 to stop putting the blinders on and do something
24 that would make us want to cooperate and do
25 something for our fellow citizens.

1 You know, that march on the 25th,
2 when it terminated there were 25,000 people.
3 There were the left, there were the right, there
4 were the antagonists on the sides of the road
5 using such language that I wouldn't repeat here.
6 But it came through, and it was safe.

7 One of the big incidents I remember
8 was meeting with a gentleman called Bull Connor.
9 You won't know him, but you'd have to look him 10 up. He's the idiot that took a 12-inch hose and 11 knocked people off the bridge. Yes, a law
12 enforcement officer I call an idiot.

13 My comments to him were very 14 simple: "You come out on this bridge and I 15 guarantee you you'll need a plastic surgeon to 16 get you out of jail."

17 And I meant it. This was a momentum
18 in life. Because a lot of people fail to realize 19 this was a time in our life when the civil rights
20 and the voting rights campaign was in high esteem 21 in Washington, in '65. And some prominent 22 southern Democrats, including former Vice 23 President Gore's father, voted against it.

24 But I think the momentum that 25 Dr. King put together that spring was a momentum

1 to say to everybody it is time to act. Just 2 think of it, the young man -- very, very young -- 3 what he did, what he meant.

4 And he was -- if you read in 5 history, in April of '68 he was encouraged to go
6 to Memphis, Tennessee, because of the sanitation
7 strike. Dr. Abernathy, in his comments, said "I 8 tried to tell Martin it was too violent, stay
9 away. But he said 'I made my commitment and I'm 10 going to fulfill it.'"

11 His wife even asked him not to go.
12 But he said, "How can I ask them to do something 13 that I'm not willing to do?" And it cost him his 14 life.

15 Think about it. What have we done
16 as individuals to say this is what I've done in 17 my community, this is what I will do.

18 I have a big African-American
19 community in Newburgh. I've never won that 20 district in 36 years. But Dr. King made an 21 emphasis of working together. We've taken an 22 armory and built it, doing what he said we should 23 do. We're taking these young people and teaching 24 them how to get along with one another. We're 25 teaching them how to improve their educational

1 opportunities. And we have kids now that three 2 years ago were outside getting in trouble. Now 3 they're studying, playing sports, learning how to 4 act with one another.

5 You know, it's nice to come every 6 year and make mention of somebody that's done 7 something. I'd like to come back next year and 8 be able to say, Look what we've done as a body.
9 Look what we've done in our districts.

10 We have 63 districts. How many here
11 have done anything in the last seven days with 12 Martin Luther King as a vision? I don't know. I 13 saw less events this year than I did last year.

14 But you cannot stand around and make 15 statements that Dr. King was somebody I think was 16 great, we did this, and then the next day you 17 say, well, what's on the football game or the 18 basketball game?

19 How many people paid attention? How 20 many people went out Monday and went to events?
21 How many made some difference in how their 22 community is? Because you were committed to do 23 something that a man put his life on.

24 He was locked up at a young age. He 25 did things that some in the southern territories

1 of our country didn't like. Did they not like 2 him because of the color of his skin or did they 3 dislike him because he wanted to do something to 4 change and give everybody an opportunity? Not 5 just people that were called Caucasians, not 6 people that were called African-Americans. And 7 in the early days of Dr. King they weren't called 8 African-Americans, they were called Negroes.

9 But he wanted to send a message. I
10 don't think we got the message. I hear people 11 say all these nice things, but where's the 12 message? The messenger left us a message and I'm 13 sorry to say I don't think we -- not just in this 14 body, but we in this state have turned around and 15 said "This is what we will do."

16 In our community, I think our 17 community has gotten together. And we did have 18 an event. But we did something for the young 19 people. Which is one of the things that he 20 said. Make them understand, bring them in so 21 they'll know what was going on. That was his 22 vision.

23 Mr. President, it's an honor to 24 stand here and talk about someone who made a 25 difference in a lot of our lives, whether we like

1 to believe it or not. But let's remember a year
2 from today, with God's blessing -- Michael, God's 3 blessing -- I will be here and I'm going to ask 4 you the same question: What have you done in 5 your district to further those visions that 6 Dr. King said?

7 He had a dream that one day. That 8 day hasn't come. And I don't think we've done 9 enough to enhance his vision.

10 Thank you, Mr. President.

11 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: Thank
12 you, Senator Larkin.

13 Senator Savino on the resolution.

14 SENATOR SAVINO: Thank you,
15 Mr. President.

16 And thank you, Senator
17 Stewart-Cousins, for bringing this resolution to 18 commemorate the contributions and the life of the 19 Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King.

20 This is the tenth time that I will 21 stand on this floor to talk about this. It's 22 amazing that I've been in the Senate 10 years 23 now. It's one of my favorite resolutions because 24 I get to hear from the other members what the 25 Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King meant to them.

1 I get to hear, always, Senator
2 Larkin tell the story about how he met Martin 3 Luther King and that he was the only one, and 4 then I get to hear Senator Hassell-Thompson point 5 out no, that she met him as well. So we are 6 blessed that we have two people in this chamber 7 that actually got to meet him.

8 Obviously I never did get to meet
9 him, but I feel the need every year to stand up 10 and talk about the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther 11 King's commitment not just to the civil rights
12 movement but to the labor movement and to remind 13 people where he was on that fateful day when he 14 was assassinated in the city of Memphis. He was 15 leading a strike of striking sanitation workers 16 in the city of Memphis. And that is where he 17 delivered his "I Have Been to the Mountaintop" 18 speech; we all know that.

19 But Dr. King was as committed to 20 organized labor as anybody else ever was in this 21 country. And so every year I feel the need to 22 remind people of that, number one, and to remind 23 people of where we are in this country and what 24 Dr. King would think about what is happening to 25 organized labor and workers' rights right now.

1 And what he would think about what 2 happened the other day on Monday, on the 3 anniversary of his birthday, when every editorial 4 board in the state and probably across the 5 country decided that they would dedicate their 6 editorial pages to the contributions of the 7 Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, and rightfully 8 so. But then the day after, every one of those 9 editorial boards would go back to their regularly
10 scheduled programming, lately, of bashing workers 11 and workers' rights and the institutions that 12 fight for workers rights.

13 What would he think about those same 14 editorial boards who celebrated the collapse of 15 Detroit and the City of Detroit and actually 16 applauded the fact that workers were going to 17 believe deprived of their rights that they had 18 achieved either through collective bargaining or 19 their pension rights that had been achieved 20 through their constitution?

21 Those very same pundits, Billy,
22 applauded that and then had the audacity to 23 applaud the work of the Reverend Dr. Martin 24 Luther King. They should be ashamed of 25 themselves. Those very same pundits and

1 economists who think that workers should take 2 less applaud Dr. King and say nothing about 3 what's happening in Bangladesh or in Vietnam or 4 any of the other countries that manufacturers
5 continue to go to to exploit workers and to drive
6 down our economy.

7 So yes, Billy -- Senator Larkin --
8 we have a lot of work to do to live up to his 9 commitment and to his dream. For workers, we are 10 certainly not there, and in fact in many ways we 11 have been turning the clock back. So next year I 12 hope to be standing here right along with you and 13 everyone else in this chamber, and maybe we'll 14 have something positive to report about the 15 Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King's dream and 16 whether or not we've helped to achieve any part 17 of it.

18 Thank you, Mr. President.

19 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: Thank
20 you, Senator Savino.

21 Senator Diaz on the resolution.

22 SENATOR DIAZ: Thank you,
23 Mr. President.

24 Ladies and gentlemen, on February 4,
25 1968, Dr. Martin Luther King delivered a sermon

1 in the Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta,
2 Georgia. And I want to read a paragraph out of 3 that sermon. It says: "And so Jesus gave us a 4 new norm of greatness. If you want to be 5 important -- wonderful. If you want to be 6 recognized -- wonderful. If you want to be 7 great -- wonderful. But recognize that he who is 8 greatest among you shall be your servant. That's 9 a new definition of greatness.

10 "You don't have to have a college
11 degree to serve. You don't have to make your 12 subject and your verb agree to serve. You don't 13 have to know about Plato and Aristotle to serve.
14 You don't have to know Einstein's theory of 15 relativity to serve. You don't have to know the 16 second theory of thermodynamics in physics to 17 serve. You only need a heart full of grace, a 18 soul generated by love, and you can be that 19 servant."

20 That was what Martin Luther King
21 said in 1968. And I'm going to add to that you
22 don't even have to speak good English to be a 23 good servant.

24 But so many years after this 25 happened, just a few days ago, our beloved

1 Governor, Governor Andrew Cuomo, the Governor of 2 the State of New York, stated to millions of 3 people, especially me, that there is no place in 4 New York for me.

5 I was 18 years old in Puerto Rico,
6 and I proudly want to serve the American -- in 7 the United States Army. And I joined the Army.
8 And they send me in 1960 to Columbia,
9 South Carolina, to Fort Jackson.

10 With me from Puerto Rico there was 11 bunch of Puerto Ricans, white Puerto Ricans, just 12 as white as Senator Gustavo Rivera. And they 13 came with me from Puerto Rico to Columbia,
14 South Carolina. There's a reason why I'm 15 choosing -- there's a reason why I'm pointing to 16 Gustavo Rivera. There's a reason why. I'm going 17 to tell you in a minute.

18 I came with them, all white, I was 19 the only black, went to Fort Jackson,
20 South Carolina. They gave us the first pass.
21 All dressed in the Army suit, proud of being an 22 American fighting man, went to a bar in 23 Columbia. The waiter came, served all of them,
24 turned his back on me and told me -- and when I
25 called the waiter, the waiter told me: "Whatever

1 you're looking for, we haven't got it."

2 Those white Puerto Ricans that went
3 from Puerto Rico, from Fort Buchanan,
4 Puerto Rico, with me to Columbia, they were 5 supposed to leave that place with me. But no, 6 they told me "You have to leave. You've got to 7 go." And they stood there.

8 And Martin Luther King fought to 9 take away all these things. But nothing has 10 changed. Because even Gustavo Rivera now, he's 11 the one that make fun of me and laugh at me 12 because of my heavy accent. So nothing has 13 changed. People make fun of you. For your 14 color, for your accent, for your kinky hair, for 15 whatever reason. People make fun of you.

16 Now, the Governor earlier said there
17 is no place for you in the State of New York, for 18 anyone that oppose gay marriage or for anyone 19 that feels that life is sacred and the babies in 20 the womb of the mother should not be killed.

21 So, ladies and gentlemen, yes, we 22 are honoring Dr. Martin Luther King. But we say 23 blah, blah, blah, blah, blah, too many blah, 24 blah, blah. People doesn't even care of that.

25 Martin Luther King said you don't

1 have to know too much to be a servant. You don't 2 have to speak good English, Gustavo, just learn 3 how to serve. And just learn that words hurt and 4 that we are all human. Just learn that lesson.
5 Stop making fun, stop laughing at people. And 6 stop discriminating people for whatever reason 7 they are. This is a lesson that we supposed to 8 have learned.

9 And now, public servants, we all
10 public servants, how could a public servant
11 tell -- the Governor, the leader of the state, 12 tell residents of the State of New York that 13 there is no part for them, there is no way, there
14 is no room for them in the State of New York?
15 Even an undocumented person is better than me
16 now. Because they got people to protect them,
17 they got people to look out for them. Now 18 they're going to say, Get out of New York, we 19 have no place for you guys.

20 But there are millions and millions,
21 there are millions in New York State that believe 22 like me -- Catholics, Jews, Muslims, Orthodox 23 Jews that believe like me. And the Governor is 24 telling them, equal that he is telling me, that 25 there is no room for us in New York State.

1 And then we brag about honoring
2 Martin Luther King? Bunch of hypocrisy. That's 3 what we are doing. Oh, we got to honor
4 Dr. Martin Luther King. Honor Dr. Martin Luther 5 King, and then you are making fun of people and 6 you are discriminating people and you are not 7 accepting people when we are supposed to serve 8 everyone, when we supposed to be equal to 9 everyone?

10 I don't believe in gay marriage, but 11 I have gay in my staff. I don't believe in gay 12 marriage, but I got friends, and I employ them, 13 and I make room for them.

14 So the Governor should learn the 15 lesson and many of us should learn that lesson
16 that we are servants. We don't have to have a 17 college degree. We don't have to have -- what is 18 it Dr. Martin Luther King say? We don't have to 19 know the theory of thermo, what, thermodynamics.

20 There's no room. I didn't even make 21 the list -- Malcolm, we didn't even make the list
22 of the best dressed in New York.

23 (Laughter.)

24 SENATOR DIAZ: There's no room.
25 Anywhere you go is ostracism.

1 So, ladies and gentlemen, yes, I'm 2 here today with my broken English, my kinky hair,
3 because Martin Luther King fought and people like 4 Dr. Martin Luther King want us, black and all
5 kind of race, to join together and took us blacks
6 from the back seat of the bus. Now Governor
7 Cuomo wants to put me back in the seat.

8 Sometimes Gustavo Rivera kill me,
9 kill me. Because he doesn't agree with my 10 position, he just make fun of me. There's no
11 reason for that, Gustavo. And to any one of you, 12 there's no reason for that. Don't agree with me.

13 SENATOR GIANARIS: Mr. President.

15 Gianaris, why do you rise?

16 SENATOR GIANARIS: We certainly 17 want to hear what everyone has to say, but I do 18 want to remind everyone --

19 SENATOR DIAZ: I know you don't 20 want to hear that -- I know you don't want to 21 hear what --

22 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: Senator
23 Diaz, Senator Gianaris is speaking.

24 SENATOR GIANARIS: I would just 25 remind our colleagues that we're not supposed to

1 refer to each other by name during the 2 proceedings. Thank you.

3 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: The
4 point is well-taken.

5 SENATOR DIAZ: Yeah, see? This is 6 the problem that we are all facing. It's good 7 when it's good for you, but when it's time for 8 me, it's no good for me. That's a problem that 9 we are facing here. And that's why I do what I 10 do.

11 And I am the only -- and by the way,
12 with all due respect to you Independents, I'm the 13 only independent here.

14 And by the way, you know, this is 15 something that we have to be more reasonable. If 16 I don't bring this to your attention, if I don't 17 bring this on the floor, it will continue.
18 People get hurt. So I got to bring it. I have 19 to -- I have to express my feelings, because I'm 20 a human being like any one of you. Even though I
21 don't believe in gay marriage and I don't believe 22 in abortion, I'm a human being too. And I'm a 23 Senator like any one of you.

24 So respect, you want me to respect,
25 Gianaris? You want me to respect others? Teach

1 your members to respect others. And then we all 2 could agree and then we'll join together to 3 celebrate Martin Luther King and to honor
4 Dr. Martin Luther King.

5 But it doesn't work that way. It
6 doesn't work that way. So that's what I'm 7 saying, Mr. Chairman and all of you. I might be 8 out of order -- it's not the first time that I've 9 been called out of order. You remember when gay 10 marriage came? They didn't even allow me to 11 speak because I was . . . So it's not the first 12 time that this body call me out of order.

13 But I will continue expressing my 14 feelings. I will continue to fight for what I
15 believe. I will continue doing like Jesse 16 Jackson said: Keep your faith, baby. And I will 17 fight and keep my faith no matter how many 18 ostracism they do to me and no matter how many 19 fun they make of me and no matter how many 20 Governor Cuomo say that there's no room for me in 21 the State of New York.

22 I'm proud to be a Christian. I'm 23 proud to follow the Bible. I'm proud to be a 24 minister. I'm proud to be a Puerto Rican and I'm 25 proud to be a black Puerto Rican.

1 And by the way, before I finish, us
2 black Puerto Ricans, we have no part, we have 3 no -- sometimes we in the limbo. When blacks and 4 Hispanics fight, there's no room for me. The 5 Hispanics reject us because we're black and the 6 blacks reject us because we're Hispanic. You got 7 to be in that shoe, in those shoes, to know
8 exactly what discrimination is all about.

9 Thank you, Mr. President. And I --
10 I am really sorry for -- if I have interrupted 11 anything.

12 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: Senator
13 Hassell-Thompson on the resolution.

14 SENATOR HASSELL-THOMPSON: Thank
15 you, Mr. President.

16 I rise to thank Senator Andrea
17 Stewart-Cousins for bringing the resolution to 18 the floor today as we honor Dr. King. Last week
19 we stood here and honored Nelson Mandela. Two 20 men who changed the face of the world, two men
21 who did not let hate interfere with the message 22 that they had to bring.

23 Senator Larkin, in 1959 -- oh, he's 24 left the chamber. But in 1959 I had the 25 opportunity of meeting Dr. King. When he came to

1 New York, he came to Grace Baptist Church. I was 2 17 years old. And listening to the power of his 3 voice as well as his message gave me a lot to 4 remember and certainly as guideposts for the way
5 I try to live my life.

6 I want to share with you a couple of 7 quotes that are indicative of who he was as a
8 man. We all know about his "I Have a Dream"
9 speech. But how many of you know that he said
10 "Our lives begin to end the day we become silent 11 about things that matter"? And "In the End, we 12 will not remember the words of our enemies, but 13 the silence of our friends."

14 He said: "I've decided to stick to 15 love. Hate is too great burden to bear."

16 "There comes a time when one must 17 take a position that is neither safe nor politic 18 nor popular, but he must take it because 19 conscience tells him it's right."

20 "Let no man pull you so low as to 21 hate him."

22 "Never, never be afraid to do what's 23 right, especially if the well-being of a person 24 or animal is at stake."

25 "Society's punishments are small

1 compared to the wounds that we inflict on our 2 souls when we look the other way."

3 And finally, "Nothing in the world
4 is more dangerous than sincere ignorance and 5 conscientious stupidity."

6 That was Dr. Martin Luther King.

7 Thank you, Mr. President.

8 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: Thank
9 you, Senator Hassell-Thompson.

10 Senator Montgomery on the 11 resolution.

12 SENATOR MONTGOMERY: Yes, thank
13 you, Mr. President.

14 I also want to join my colleagues in 15 thanking our leader for making sure that once 16 again we have a resolution on the floor that 17 honors Dr. Martin Luther King.

18 And I certainly associate myself
19 with all of the comments that have been made.
20 And I'd like to take the challenge that Senator
21 Larkin has given us, and that is come back next 22 year to recite something that we've actually 23 done. So I appreciate that, and he's right.

24 I have had the opportunity to read
25 one of the many books about or by Dr. King, and

1 one of them in particular is the autobiography
2 that's done by Clayborne Carson in conjunction 3 with Dr. King, where Dr. King has an opportunity 4 or we have an opportunity to look to see what 5 kinds of things were going through his mind when 6 he started the movement.

7 And I was particularly struck by one 8 scene that he portrays where they had been 9 threatened -- this was in the middle of the 10 Rosa Parks situation, and they had been told in 11 no uncertain terms that if they did not stop what 12 they were doing, that they would be killed. So 13 this kind of intimidation was made very, very 14 much a part of the communication between the 15 people who did not approve of, did not want to 16 see the movement go forward, to Dr. King and the 17 people he was working with.

18 And I was so absolutely amazed by 19 the fact that he was terrified, because it was 20 the Ku Klux Klan and it was in the place in 21 America where people could come with their guns
22 and when they threatened you, it was a real 23 threat. So -- and there was no police to protect 24 Dr. King. And so they came to his home and they 25 paraded, they cruised in their cars in front of

1 his house. And he stood in the door and waited
2 and in a sense dared them to go ahead and kill
3 me, because this fight for freedom will not end
4 with you killing me.

5 And so I'm so struck by that because 6 how terrifying it must have been to be 7 confronted, to be faced with this kind of 8 terror. These were terrorists in America who 9 were bent on making sure that the rights of 10 African-Americans, of black people in this 11 country were never realized, that the 13th, 14th 12 and 15th Amendments were really never going to be 13 realized in this United States of America.

14 So for me, that was the image of 15 Dr. King above all the other things that happened
16 to him, the fact that he would stand and face 17 death because he had a vision, he knew where he 18 was trying to go, he knew what the meaning of his 19 existence at that moment meant. Not to himself, 20 but to his people. And that is, to me, bravery
21 beyond belief.

22 Yes, we call him the Prince of Peace
23 and we call him the Drum Major for Justice. But 24 most of all, he was the symbol of democracy and 25 what it meant. And what was the end point to

1 him, according to him in his words, was "I want
2 the right for my people to vote."

3 That's how we were able to elect an 4 African-American president. It was because 5 Martin Luther King led his people across what 6 some people would say the Jordan. He led his 7 people to the point where -- and he kept his eye
8 on the prize, and the prize was the vote. And so 9 I'm so thankful and grateful, because that's how 10 I'm here and that's how we're all here.

11 And let me just say it makes me so 12 sad and I feel such a sense of regret that some 13 people in our country are trying to take away the 14 vote that so many people, including Dr. King, who 15 stood in the door in the face of death because he 16 wanted his people to be able to vote -- and now
17 there are people trying to take it away. So this 18 is a very sad thing.

19 So I take the challenge of Senator
20 Larkin. He's right. I hope we all come back 21 next year and we have more than a speech to make 22 about Dr. King, that we've all done something.
23 In our various positions, in our party, the 24 Republican Party members, the Democratic Party
25 members, all of us. I hope we're going to begin

1 to raise our voices and say this is an 2 abomination. If we believe in anything that 3 Dr. King represented, it is the right to vote for 4 everyone in this country.

5 So thank you, Madam Leader, and
6 thank you, Mr. President.

7 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: Thank
8 you, Senator Montgomery.

9 Senator Sanders on the resolution.

10 SENATOR SANDERS: Thank you,
11 Mr. President.

12 Colonel Larkin gave a very worthy
13 question that remains to be answered. And there 14 is no one answer to it. Each of us will have to 15 find our own answer to this question. I can only 16 try to answer it by saying that on Monday past I 17 stood with the airport workers who are being 18 grossly underpaid and struggled with them to 19 ensure that justice roll down like a mighty river 20 in their lifetime.

21 Now, I come to this position in a
22 strange way. I must confess I was not an early 23 convert to the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr.
24 Indeed, I've been a late convert. The idea that 25 they espoused of turning the other cheek, of

1 strength, that was -- it was not my first
2 nature. It's not exactly the way I would see 3 things. My own nature, I must admit, it might be 4 better that the other guy turn the other cheek 5 for a while.

6 But I came to an understanding
7 slowly. I understood that sometimes the greatest 8 courage is that it takes more courage to sit 9 down, sometimes, than it does to stand up. To 10 sit down when your nature may say to help the 11 other guy see his maker quicker, faster, better.

12 However, the strength that this 13 community came up with -- and a community of all
14 Americans, mind you, came up with at this time 15 was one that you couldn't deny, a strength that 16 went past and said that I'm going to love you in 17 spite of yourself. I'm going to do good to 18 people who are doing bad to me.

19 After you go past what the rational
20 mind may think is an insanity, you see something 21 deeper, something American, something deeper, 22 something human that transcends all of these 23 boundaries and says that, you know what, we can 24 get to a place, this beloved community that all 25 of us say, but it's going to cost us. It's going

1 to cost us greatly.

2 And this is why I'm so grateful that 3 all of those people went before me and stood and 4 were able to do what I at that time was unable to 5 do -- of course, being a younger man I wouldn't 6 have had the exact challenge, but I would not 7 have been able to do, and by doing so gave a
8 whole new generation.

9 Now, Dr. King, I'm very happy that 10 he was an African-American. But at the same time 11 I have to understand that he transcended all of 12 these boundaries, that Dr. King ultimately gave 13 his life for America and Americans and then went 14 further than that and his position was for the 15 world.

16 So in that sense he transcended even 17 the nation and became one of those figures that 18 we can point to -- and the world has several -- 19 that we can point to in saying that this was a
20 figure that made us proud to breathe the same air 21 that he did.

22 So I'm glad that this body is kind
23 enough and bold enough to say that we need to do
24 these things. And because we have generations 25 coming up behind us that maybe, like me, that

1 don't understand the strength that sometimes you 2 stand tallest when you're sitting in.

3 And saying those things, I encourage 4 all of us to remember that we all have a little 5 bit of Martin Luther King in us, because his 6 blood has gone through the veins of the American 7 people.

8 Thank you very much.

9 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: Thank
10 you, Senator Sanders.

11 Senator Perkins on the resolution.

12 SENATOR PERKINS: Thank you very 13 much.

14 I want to thank our leader, Senator
15 Cousins, and everybody else who's here and had an 16 opportunity to speak.

17 I was going to use my half an hour
18 an hour ago, but so much of what I want to say 19 has been said. And the only thing that's left is 20 to really remember that the Prince of Peace who 21 we all remember mostly, I guess, for his civil 22 rights advocacy was actually assassinated for 23 economic justice and in the process of organizing 24 the remarkable Poor People's Campaign.

25 And maybe in that regard it gives us

1 some very concrete direction about what we can do
2 here as legislators for poor people, for people 3 that Dr. King actually sacrificed his life for.

4 So whether that's in terms of a job,
5 whether that's in terms of other kinds of 6 economic opportunities, or whether that's in 7 terms of ending discrimination, remember, the 8 Poor People's Campaign is what he was organizing 9 before he was assassinated. And perhaps that's 10 the message that we can use as we move forward in 11 our deliberations and making laws and 12 opportunities through this august body.

13 Thank you.

14 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: Thank
15 you, Senator Perkins.

16 Senator Rivera on the resolution.

17 SENATOR RIVERA: Thank you,
18 Mr. President.

19 As I sit here and hear what our 20 colleagues, certainly Senator Stewart-Cousins, 21 Senator Sanders, Senator Perkins and the rest of 22 the folks here -- certainly Senator Larkin --
23 talk about Martin Luther King, and we think about 24 all -- we think about his courage, we think about 25 his wisdom. And I'm sitting here thinking what

1 is the one thing that I am inspired most by when 2 I think about Martin Luther King.

3 So when I think about that, I
4 realize that it is the fact that he believed in 5 this country. The fact is that when our Founding 6 Fathers -- and I'm reminded when I'm in my 7 political science classes and I teach civics
8 classes in my district and I talk about where our 9 Constitution came from, of the fact that the 10 Founding Fathers, who were all white land-owning 11 males, wrote a document that spoke about people,
12 spoke about citizens, did not speak about white 13 land-owning males.

14 So when you look at the work of 15 Martin Luther King and other civil rights
16 leaders, you look at the fact that they believed 17 in the idea of this country. They believed that 18 during our history we can actually evolve, we can 19 actually include more people in the thing that is 20 America. And certainly as we discuss every day 21 on this floor, we are not a perfect country, not 22 by any stretch of the imagination. We have much 23 work to do to make sure that we make our system 24 more equal, we provide access to people that 25 don't have it now.

1 But when I look back at the work of 2 Martin Luther King, what I'm reminded of is the 3 fact that ultimately the country that we all live
4 in, the country that we all belong to and the one
5 that we swear to every time that we take our oath 6 of office or when we look up at the flag, is the 7 idea that our country can over time and over 8 history become better, can include more people,
9 can actually be a better place for everyone.

10 And over time, we have done that.
11 And every day that we do the work here in the 12 Senate -- and certainly when Senator Larkin comes 13 here next year and asks the question, I hope that 14 we can all say over the last year we have done 15 something to live up to that dream, to make our 16 country a little bit better, a little more 17 accessible, a little fairer.

18 And that's what I think about when I
19 think about Martin Luther King.

20 Thank you, Mr. President.

21 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: Thank
22 you, Senator Rivera.

23 Senator Espaillet on the resolution.

24 SENATOR ESPAILLAT: Thank you,
25 Mr. President.

1 I want to thank our leader, Senator
2 Cousins, for forwarding this resolution.

3 It was perhaps Jim Crow laws and how 4 they deeply affected the South and the rest of 5 this country that propelled Reverend King and a 6 host of other leaders -- because he was 7 surrounded by many capable, many charismatic, 8 daring leaders -- to confront the status quo as 9 he led the civil rights movement.

10 During that process he was also a
11 great coalition builder. You know, he reached 12 out to Cesar Chavez out on the West Coast who was 13 organizing the grape pickers and told them that 14 they were brothers in the struggle.

15 And so, you know, this is a very 16 nice warm evening in Albany here in the chambers
17 as we commemorate the legacy, the life, the work 18 of Reverend King. But many, many of the 19 initiatives that he stood for and the 20 advancements that he advocated for die right here 21 in this chamber.

22 You know, he called Chavez to give 23 him support for his efforts to organize 24 farmworkers. You know, I recently met with 25 Dolores Juerta, who is a terrific woman who

1 organized with Chavez, and she was appalled that 2 50 years later the conditions that they resolved
3 in California and the West Coast are present in 4 New York State, the Empire State. That the 5 constitution of our state still carves out a 6 classification of worker.

7 There were two classifications --
8 and for the most part back then they were 9 African-Americans -- domestic workers and 10 farmworkers. Now, we took care, to some degree, 11 of the domestic workers, but we continue on this 12 floor to kill that legislation that embody what 13 Martin Luther King felt about Jim Crow laws, that 14 embody everything that he stood for.

15 In this same floor, when we take up 16 bills like the minimum wage bill -- $7.25. It is 17 a struggle, it is a heavy lift to get all of us
18 here on this same floor to agree that a
19 New Yorker should earn $7.25 an hour. Income
20 inequality. Fast-food workers that sell a meal 21 in McDonald's and, after they sell that meal, for 22 the rest of the hour everything that McDonald's 23 gets is profits.

24 And they keep them under certain
25 wages so that us, government and the taxpayers,

1 we have to subsidize their healthcare, we have to 2 subsidize their food stamps, we have to 3 subsidize -- that's what he stood for. He wasn't 4 standing up for rich people with mansions and 5 Jaguars, he stood for the little guy. And so 6 right on this floor we kill many of the 7 initiatives that he stood for.

8 I think Martin Luther King would 9 have met with the Dreamers, I think he would have 10 knocked on those doors right there and then with 11 the Dreamers, young people that just want access 12 to go to college so they can pay their taxes and 13 hopefully even buy a car and a house in one of 14 our counties. And that's what he stood for.

15 And we continuously have this very I
16 believe self-serving day here where we cleanse
17 our souls, but on a daily basis when we take up 18 our calendar we kill many of the legislations, 19 the pieces of initiatives that he would have 20 stood for.

21 So I agree with Senator Larkin. We 22 should come back next year and celebrate Martin
23 Luther King and say we passed a farmworkers
24 bill. We should come back and say, You know 25 what, the workers in the airports that some are

1 making $4.25 an hour, they deserve a better
2 salary. Because at one point I remember it was a
3 privilege to work in an airport. Those folks who 4 worked in airports were privileged in our 5 neighborhoods.

6 We should come back and say the 7 Dreamers, yeah, they have the right to access
8 higher education. Then maybe we will have a
9 sincere session and not this soul-cleansing
10 exercise of which we should all be very shameful 11 of.

12 Thank you, Mr. President.

13 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: Thank
14 you, Senator Espaillat.

15 The question is on the resolution.
16 All in favor signify by saying aye.

17 (Response of "Aye.")

18 ACTING PRESIDENT VALESKY: Opposed, 19 nay.

20 (No response.)
