2 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The
3 Senate will come to order.

4 I ask all present to please rise and

10 invocation will be offered by the Reverend Peter 11 G. Young, of the Mother Teresa Community here in 15 Let us pray.

17 address as President, he placed his hand on the 18 Bible in 1789 to serve with integrity his nation.

19 Our Senators are called to 20 leadership in your elected and dedicated public
21 servant positions. We bless them, and we call 22 God to again help them in their mission to be 23 able to be leaders as George Washington was.

24 Amen.

25 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank

1 you, Father Young.

19 announcement.

20 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO:
21 Recognize Senator Breslin.

22 SENATOR BRESLIN: Thank you,
23 Mr. President.

24 We're honored today to have Class AA
25 State Champions here with us, basketball, who

1 beat Jamestown on March 16th of this year.

2 Now, that enough would be a
3 milestone, but this school, Green Tech, has only 4 been in existence for four years. So in its 5 fourth year of existence it's the state
6 champions.

7 And I'd like to say about each of 8 the individuals on this team, they count
9 academics higher than they do athletics. So you 10 imagine how well they do in the classroom as 11 well.

12 And they're here with their coach,
13 Coach Jamil Hood, Sr. And it's Sr. because Jr.
14 plays on the team and has accepted a Division I 15 basketball scholarship.

16 And also with them are Assistant
17 Coaches Lloyd Johnson, Stephen Archer -- you can 18 wave when I call -- Stephen Archer, Antwan
19 Morrison, and Team Managers Markell Mayo and 20 Destiny Jackson.

21 This team deserves our praise for 22 such an outstanding job. You've brought 23 distinction and happiness to the Albany area, the 24 Capital District, and the State of New York.
25 Thank you, Green Tech, and we'll do it again next

1 year.

2 (Applause.)

3 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: We
4 welcome the student athletes and coaching staff
5 of the State Champion Basketball Team, Green
6 Tech. Thank you for being with us, and 7 congratulations.

8 Senator Libous.

9 SENATOR LIBOUS: Thank you,
10 Mr. President.

11 I believe there's a privileged
12 resolution at the desk by Senator Klein, 13 Number 4672. May we have the resolution read in 14 its entirety, and before its adoption if you 15 could call on Senator Klein.

16 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: May I
17 have some order in the chamber, please.

18 The Secretary will read.

19 THE SECRETARY: Legislative
20 Resolution Number 4672, by Senator Klein,
21 commemorating the 2nd Annual Bronx Day in Albany 22 celebration upon the occasion of marking the 23 centennial of the incorporation of Bronx County.

24 "WHEREAS, Each and every city, town,

1 resonates with the rich and noble history of the 2 State of New York; and

3 "WHEREAS, It is the sense of this
4 Legislative Body to recognize those events which 5 foster civic pride and highlight the 6 contributions of the communities which comprise 7 the noble body of this great Empire State to the 8 progression and development of our society; and

9 "WHEREAS, Attendant to such 10 concerns, and in full accord with its 11 long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body
12 is justly proud to commemorate the 2nd Annual

14 of marking the centennial of the incorporation of 15 Bronx County; this festive affair will take place
16 on Monday, April 28, 2014, at The Egg in Albany, 17 New York; and

18 "WHEREAS, The purpose of the annual 19 Bronx Day in Albany celebration is to promote 20 Bronx pride, and allow Bronxites to share their 21 vision for the future of their borough, as well
22 as introduce their products and services; 2014
23 celebration activities include tours of the 24 Capitol; a small business forum for Bronx
25 businesses; a luncheon; and a 'Taste of the

1 Bronx' evening reception featuring music from 2 local Bronx bands and a showcase of the best food 3 of the borough; and

4 "WHEREAS, The Bronx was incorporated
5 in 1914, the last of New York State's 62 counties
6 to be established; however, this diverse 7 municipality has played a noteworthy role in the 8 evolution of New York from its early beginnings;
9 and

10 "WHEREAS, Forty-two square miles in 11 size, and the only section of New York City on 12 the mainland, The Bronx is named in memory of 14 its earliest settlement was in 1639 along the 15 Harlem River in what is now Mott Haven; and

16 "WHEREAS, The Bronx was originally 17 part of Westchester County and, in 1841, the 18 New York and Harlem Railroad began regular 19 commuter service between The Bronx and Manhattan;
20 by 1895, the area had become a part of New York 21 City; and

22 "WHEREAS, At the turn of the 23 century, the quiet suburban streets and farms of 24 The Bronx began to yield to rapidly expanding 25 factories and urban neighborhoods; in 1914, its

1 main thoroughfare, the Grand Concourse, was 2 completed, and by the 1920s, the Fordham
3 Road-Grand Concourse intersection was a great 4 commercial nexus and a center of tree-lined
5 avenues, with luxurious homes and apartment
6 buildings designed in the latest Art Deco and 7 modernist styles; and

8 "WHEREAS, Over the last decade of 9 the 19th century and the first quarter of the 10 20th century, many of the great landmarks which 11 continue to draw hundreds of thousands of 12 visitors to The Bronx every year were developed,
13 including the Bronx Zoo, one of the largest zoos
14 in the world; the beautiful park-like New York
15 Botanical Garden; the Hall of Fame for Great 16 Americans at Bronx Community College (the former 17 campus of New York University); and Yankee 18 Stadium; and

19 "WHEREAS, By the late 2000s,
20 The Bronx's bridges, highways, and railroads were 21 more heavily traveled than those of any other 22 part of the United States, and it is the home of 23 12 colleges and universities, including Fordham
24 University, the Maritime College of the State 25 University of New York, and three branches of the

1 City University of New York: Lehman College,
2 Bronx Community College, and Hostos Community
3 College; almost 24 percent of the land area is 4 parkland, including Pelham Bay Park, which, at 5 2,772 acres, is the largest park in the city; and

6 "WHEREAS, With a population of more
7 than 1.4 million people, The Bronx is one of the 8 most racially and ethnically diverse communities
9 in the United States, and its vibrant
10 neighborhoods, industrious civic groups and 11 robust small business sector have long provided 12 both a haven and a steppingstone for hardworking 13 immigrants from all over the globe; and

14 "WHEREAS, Remaining fruitful over
15 the ebb and flow of decades of growth and change, 16 Bronx County continues its commitment to 17 enhancing the quality of life of its residents,
18 ensuring a progressive business, institutional
19 and educational climate, providing essential 20 services, and retaining the cultural vitality and 21 environment that make it a positive place in 22 which to live, work and visit; now, therefore, be 23 it

24 "RESOLVED, That this Legislative 25 Body pause in its deliberations to commemorate

1 the 2nd Annual Bronx Day in Albany celebration
2 upon the occasion of marking the centennial of 3 the incorporation of Bronx County, in proud
4 recognition of the significance of its continuing 5 role in the life of the community of the State of 6 New York; and be it further

7 "RESOLVED, That copies of this
8 resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to 9 the Bronx Chamber of Commerce and the 10 Bronx County Historical Society."

11 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator
12 Klein.

13 SENATOR KLEIN: Thank you,
14 Mr. President.

15 I'm very proud to be able to stand
16 here in celebration with so many of my fellow 17 Bronxites today -- many of them are up in the 18 gallery today -- to celebrate the Second Annual 19 Bronx Day in Albany and commemorate the Bronx 20 centennial.

21 Today is a real showcase of just 22 what makes the Bronx a fantastic borough. The 23 Bronx is made better every single day because of 24 the hard work, commitment and service that so 25 many Bronxites have to their neighbors and

1 communities, but more importantly because of 2 their love for the place we all call home.

3 Because of its strategic location,
4 since 1914 the Bronx has not only served as a 5 transportation gateway and small business hub of 6 New York City, but is a destination borough 7 marked by its natural beauty, cultural 8 institutions and treasured landmarks. We are 9 home to some of the best of what New York City 10 has to offer -- the Bronx Zoo, Bronx Historical 11 Society, Wildlife Conservation Society, New York
12 Botanical Gardens, many state-of-the-art medical 13 facilities, Fordham University, and of course
14 Yankee Stadium.

15 The Bronx is the best of both
16 worlds. We are both a busy and vibrant
17 commercial and business sector with quiet
18 enclaves of untouched landscape and tight-knit
19 communities. We are made up of so many cultures 20 and ethnicities and known as one of the most 21 diverse places in world, while also sharing a 22 common civic pride and shared vision for how we 23 can make the Bronx better, brighter, and 24 stronger.

25 Our borough really has it all and is

1 made richer every day by the small business
2 owners, the hardworking moms and dads, the loyal 3 seniors, the dedicated educators and medical 4 professionals, the disciplined athletes and the 5 noble ordinary residents whose pride and love for 6 the Bronx can light up any neighborhood.

7 In closing, I just want to say how 8 grateful that I was born, raised, continue to 9 live in the Bronx. And I invite everyone to come
10 and see what the Bronx has to offer.

11 Thank you, Mr. President.

12 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank
13 you, Senator Klein.

14 Senator Hassell-Thompson.

15 SENATOR HASSELL-THOMPSON: Thank 16 you, Mr. President.

17 I rise to commend Senator Klein on 18 his resolution celebrating the Bronx. I was 19 privileged to serve the Bronx for the last 20 14 years. And even though I am a resident of 21 Mount Vernon, I still think that you belong to 22 us, and therefore I treat you as one of my 23 favorite children, not stepchildren.

24 I'm also pleased that our business
25 community and our citizens and students have come

1 today to be here in the Capitol with us as we 2 celebrate the successful 100 years going into our 3 second centennial of development of the Bronx.

4 Everybody knew the Bronx when it was 5 burning. Very few people really know the Bronx 6 now that it has become the renaissance -- as our 7 borough president is famous for saying, "God's 8 country," because we have been blessed to grow
9 and to thrive and to really become a major entity
10 and are no longer the stepchild of the five 11 boroughs.

12 So congratulations to the Bronx, and 13 congratulations to Senator Klein and to all who 14 have come to help us to celebrate today's event.

15 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank you
16 Senator Hassell-Thompson.

17 Senator Díaz.

18 SENATOR DIAZ: Thank you,
19 Mr. President.

20 I wrote some notes here,
21 Mr. President, sitting here today. Ladies and 22 gentlemen and Mr. President, I take this 23 opportunity to thank Senator Klein for bringing 24 this resolution honoring and recognizing the 25 great county of the Bronx.

1 You should know, Mr. President and 2 ladies and gentlemen, you should know that today
3 we are celebrating the Bronx Day in Albany.
4 Under the coordination of Bronx Borough President
5 Ruben Diaz, Jr., who happens to be around here,
6 State Senator Jeff Klein, and my good friend
7 Assemblymember Mark Gjonaj, the Bronx has been 8 recognized today here in Albany for the second 9 year in a row.

10 But, Mr. President and ladies and 11 gentlemen, you should know, my friends, that it 12 was not always like this. You should know that 13 once upon a time the Bronx was the laughingstock
14 of America. Everyone used to show what was wrong
15 in America by singling out the Bronx.

16 Politicians looking to make a name
17 for themselves, they came to the Bronx: Jimmy 18 Carter, Ronald Reagan, Ted Kennedy. They all 19 came to tell you and show the rest of the nation 20 that they, if elected, would save the rest of the 21 nation from going through what the South Bronx 22 was going through.

23 Moviemakers, Mr. President, you
24 should know, ladies and gentlemen, moviemakers
25 from Hollywood came to the Bronx to make their

1 movies: Fort Apache, The Bronx, with Paul Newman
2 and Rachel Ticotin; Bonfire of the Vanities, with 3 Tom Hanks; Wolfen, a 1981 crime horror movie.
4 They were filmed in the Bronx in the rubbish and 5 the destruction to show the world how ugly a 6 place the Bronx used to be.

7 The Bronx, Mr. President, ladies and 8 gentlemen, you should know the Bronx was burnt 9 out to the ground. Every single building in the 10 South Bronx was burnt. The City of New York used 11 to give properties to anyone that wished to for 12 $1, no questions asked. Taken. Only Riverdale
13 stood up in the Bronx, and that was off-limits 14 for the rest of us.

15 Business left. Banks redlined our 16 area. The Bronx was painted as a place full of 17 criminals, drug addicts, prostitution, the worst.

18 But today, today, ladies and 19 gentlemen, today we are here in this chamber
20 recognizing, honoring the Bronx. The Bronx
21 borough president is here. And now, ladies and 22 gentlemen, Mr. President, you should know that 23 everybody wants to come back to the Bronx. The 24 properties in the Bronx are like gold from the 25 Palestine. Everybody wants to come and invest.

1 Donald Trump, FreshDirect, Mark Messier.

2 Everybody loves the Bronx, thanks to 3 those people that stood there. Some of us that 4 never moved, some of us that always stood there.
5 Thanks to good borough presidents Fernando
6 Ferrer, Adolfo Carrion, and the one that we have 7 today. Thanks to Senator Jeff Klein, thanks to 8 people like all the delegation from the Bronx.

9 Today we are proud. Today we're 10 here in Albany telling the whole world, Come to 11 the Bronx. I don't know if there's any more 12 room, but you could try.

13 (Laughter.)

14 SENATOR DIAZ: You could try. The 15 borough president is always -- the door is always 16 open for you to try. Business wants to come
17 back. Banks want to come back. Health industry.
18 Everybody wants to come back to the Bronx, ladies 19 and gentlemen. But it was not always like that.

20 But today, we praise our Lord, we 21 thank our leaders. We thank those that stood 22 there. We thank the borough president. We thank 23 Jeff Klein. We thank Mark Gjonaj. Because 24 today, today is the day that the Lord has made.
25 Rejoice, the Bronx is back.

1 Thank you, Mr. President.

2 (Appause from the gallery.)

3 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Is there
4 any other Senator wishing to be heard?

5 Can we have some order, please.

6 Senator Rivera.

7 SENATOR RIVERA: Thank you so much,
8 Mr. President.

9 I wasn't born in the Bronx. I was 10 born in Puerto Rico, I moved up here to New York 11 in 1998, and I had the privilege of moving to the 12 Bronx in 2000. And I lived there -- as a matter
13 of fact, when I was first living in New York, I 14 lived in a dorm room and then I lived in 15 East Harlem for a little bit. I moved up to a 16 three-bedroom that was a thousand dollars in East 17 Harlem. This was back in 1999 or something like 18 that.

19 And then when I had a really bad
20 roommate -- a long story -- I was looking for 21 another place to live. And I tried to find a 22 place that was affordable in the city, in East
23 Harlem, and I couldn't find it.

24 So I went up to the Bronx, got off
25 at the 4 train at the Kingsbridge Road stop, and

1 I was met by a lady that showed me a couple of 2 beautiful apartments in the Bronx. I laughed a
3 little bit at her. I said, "How much do you want 4 for this one?"

5 And I realized, after I moved
6 there -- which at first I moved because it was 7 affordable. But after just a short time I found 8 that this was a place that was a home.

9 I've had the privilege of 10 representing the Bronx for the last four years.
11 And although the district has changed a little 12 bit, whether we're talking about the world-famous 13 Bronx Zoo, the Wildlife Conservation Society,
14 Fordham Road, the third-largest shopping district
15 in the entire city -- whether we're talking about 16 Bronx Community College, one of our very 17 important CUNY institutions, whether we're 18 talking about the Kingsbridge Armory, soon to 19 become the Kingsbridge National Ice Center, the 20 largest ice sports facility in the world -- which 21 I will pause for a second and say certainly if it
22 was not for the efforts of our borough president, 23 would not have happened.

24 This is why the Bronx is changing.
25 And this is why we are celebrating Bronx Day

1 today for the second year in a row. We invite 2 all of you to come, meet our business owners, 3 meet our residents, meet elected officials who 4 are very proud to represent this beautiful 5 borough.

6 As I had the opportunity to tell a
7 couple of years ago, of all people, the 8 vice president of Vietnam actually visited my 9 office. And he did so because there is a sizable 10 population of Cambodian and Vietnamese folks that 11 live in my district.

12 And as I was telling him about the 13 borough and I was telling him that, I had on the 14 wall -- there is this famous afghan, it is like a 15 quilt, that is made by the Bronx Historical 16 Society that has a lot of historical -- it has 17 the Bronx Zoo on it and Yankee Stadium,
18 et cetera. And I was pointing at it, and I kept 19 referring to different things on the afghan,
20 telling him about the borough that I call home.

21 At the end of our conversation, he 22 gave me a gift, it was a model of a drum, a
23 historical drum that has the history of Vietnam
24 carved on it. And I said, "Since you are giving 25 me this from your country, I want to give you

1 something from my hometown." And I pulled down
2 the afghan and I gave it to him, and he took it
3 back home to Vietnam.

4 So hopefully, Mr. Borough President,
5 one day when you visit you'll be able to see in 6 the Vietnamese Presidential Palace the Bronx
7 afghan hanging on the wall.

8 But for the moment, I invite 9 everyone to join us so that you can see how the 10 Bronx is renewed and how we are all, the people 11 that represent the Bronx, incredibly proud to 12 live there, to work there, and to represent it.

13 Thank you, Mr. President.

14 (Applause.)

15 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator
16 Serrano.

17 SENATOR SERRANO: Thank you very 18 much, Mr. President.

19 And I rise to echo the sentiments of 20 my colleagues. And I think Senator Díaz said it
21 quite well, how the Bronx has transformed over 22 the years.

23 And I think it's fitting and I'm 24 very happy that my friend Borough President Ruben
25 Diaz is here in the Senate chamber. He and I

1 have a long Bronx history together. We both went 2 to elementary school together. And we have in 3 our minds and our psyche what it was like growing 4 up in the 1970s in the Bronx.

5 And it was always home, it was 6 always a beautiful place. But to see what it's 7 become over the last few years, it really is an 8 amazing sight. Not only do we have some of the 9 most beautiful streets, like the Grand Concourse,
10 and some of the most historic and old parks, old
11 growth, historic growth parks, like Van Cortlandt 12 and Pelham Bay Park, but we have some of the 13 finest universities and some of the richest
14 cultural heritage that you'll find anywhere else.

15 And our diversity is our strength.
16 Our diversity is what makes us one of the most 17 amazing places to live and raise a family, the 18 way that I'm doing.

19 And one of the interesting stories
20 that I always keep in my mind, one of my fondest 21 memories of one of my closest friends here in the 22 Senate chamber -- someone who's no longer with 23 us, and that's the late Senator Morahan. When I
24 was first elected here to the Senate, I'm meeting
25 everyone -- this was back in 2005 -- and I meet

1 this Senator who represents further north of 2 New York City, up in Orange County, I believe.

3 But I couldn't get over his Bronx
4 accent. I said, Wait a minute, this guy
5 represents upstate, and he's got the heaviest 6 Bronx accent I've ever heard. And sure enough, 7 when I asked him and spoke with him, he was born
8 and raised in the Bronx, went to Cardinal Hayes
9 High School, where I went to school, and 10 eventually moved with his family and became a 11 representative from that area.

12 Not a day goes by when I don't meet
13 someone who traces their roots back to the Bronx.
14 So many people trace their roots back. But I 15 think it's important for folks to know now that 16 whatever images you may think you have, if you
17 haven't been to the Bronx lately, you need to go 18 see it for yourself. Don't be swayed by the 19 myths that you see sometimes in Hollywood, in 20 some of the older movies like Bonfire of the 21 Vanities. It really does not tell an accurate
22 story. It never did, and it certainly doesn't 23 now.

24 See the Bronx now for yourself. See 25 what it's become. And see why it is one of the

1 places that new immigrants love to come. Because 2 they see that diversity, they see that beauty,
3 they see the beauty of the people, and it really 4 is a wonderful place to raise a family.

5 Thank you, Mr. President.

6 (Applause from the gallery.)

7 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank
8 you, Senator Serrano.

9 The question is on the resolution.
10 All in favor signify by saying aye.

11 (Response of "Aye.")

12 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Opposed?

13 (No response.)

14 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The
15 resolution is adopted.

16 We congratulate and welcome everyone
17 from the Borough of the Bronx today.

18 (Applause.)

19 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator
20 Libous.

21 SENATOR LIBOUS: Mr. President,
22 Senator Klein would like to open the resolution 23 up for cosponsorship.

24 So as the policy of the house goes,
25 if for some reason a member chooses not to be on

1 as a cosponsor, just please let the desk know.

2 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The
3 resolution is open for cosponsorship. Should you 4 choose not to be a cosponsor, please notify the 5 desk.

6 Senator Libous.

7 SENATOR LIBOUS: I believe there's 8 a previously adopted resolution by Senator
9 LaValle, Number 4091, that's at the desk. Could 10 we please have the resolution read in its 11 entirety and then call on Senator LaValle.

12 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The
13 Secretary will read.

14 THE SECRETARY: Legislative
15 Resolution Number 4091, by Senator LaValle,
16 honoring Cameron Rothwell upon the occasion of 17 his designation as recipient of a Liberty Medal, 18 the highest honor bestowed upon an individual by 19 the New York State Senate.

20 "WHEREAS, It is incumbent upon the 21 people of the State of New York to recognize and 22 acknowledge those within our midst who have made
23 significant contributions to the quality of life 24 therein; and

25 "WHEREAS, From time to time this

1 Legislative Body takes note of certain
2 extraordinary individuals it wishes to recognize 3 for their valued contributions to the success and 4 progress of society and publicly acknowledge 5 their endeavors which have enhanced the basic 6 humanity among us all; and

7 "WHEREAS, This Legislative Body is 8 justly proud to honor Cameron Rothwell upon the 9 occasion of his designation as recipient of a 10 Liberty Medal, the highest honor bestowed upon an 11 individual by the New York State Senate; and

12 "WHEREAS, The New York State Senate
13 Liberty Medal was established by a resolution in 14 2014 and is awarded to individuals who have 15 merited special commendation for exceptional, 16 heroic, or humanitarian acts on behalf of their 17 fellow New Yorkers; and

18 "WHEREAS, On Tuesday, March 4, 2014,
19 Cameron Rothwell was having lunch in his school,
20 Riley Avenue Elementary School in Calverton, 21 New York, when he noticed his friend sitting with 22 him appeared to be having an allergic reaction to 23 some food he had eaten; and

24 "WHEREAS, Nine year-old Cameron
25 Rothwell asked his friend if he was okay and if

1 he could breathe, and his friend was unable to 2 speak, and only shook his head 'no'; and

3 "WHEREAS, Responding without 4 hesitation, Cameron Rothwell directed another
5 student to alert the lunchroom aide; he then 6 promptly ran his friend to the school nurse's 7 office and explained to the nurse what was 8 happening; and

9 "WHEREAS, Cameron Rothwell, in his 10 spontaneous and heroic act, has so aptly 11 demonstrated his character and compassion for the 12 welfare of others; personifying, by virtue of his 13 action, the collective concern of ordinary
14 citizens across the community of New York State
15 who voluntarily respond without thought of danger 16 or reward when others are in need of help; and

17 "WHEREAS, Individuals such as 18 Cameron Rothwell devoted to improving the quality
19 of life for others, enabling them to build lives 20 of dignity and self-worth are deserving of the 21 highest praise and recognition; now, therefore,
22 be it

23 "RESOLVED, That this Legislative
24 Body pause in its deliberations to honor
25 Cameron Rothwell upon the occasion of his

1 designation as recipient of a Liberty Medal, the 2 highest honor bestowed upon an individual by the 3 New York State Senate; and be it further

4 "RESOLVED, That a copy of this
5 resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to 6 Cameron Rothwell."

7 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator
8 LaValle.

9 SENATOR LaVALLE: Thank you,
10 Mr. President.

11 I want the record to show that 12 Assemblyman Anthony Palumbo is with us, and the 13 Assemblyman sponsored the same resolution in the 14 Assembly.

15 Cameron is standing up at the front
16 of the chamber. And, Cameron, your good deeds, 17 the Liberty Medal stands for deeds that are 18 exceptional, heroic or a humanitarian act.

19 Now, many, many years ago I taught
20 fourth grade. And at that time teachers shared 21 lunch duty with an aide. As you can imagine, as 22 we set the stage for what went on, you're in a 23 lunchroom, there is lots of confusion, lots of 24 noise.

25 And 9-year-old Cameron is talking to

1 his friend Logan, and he notices that Logan,
2 something is just not right. And as we said in 3 the resolution, one, he has the presence of mind
4 to say to a friend, "Let the teacher aide know 5 that something is going wrong here."

6 Lots of confusion going on. It
7 probably was not a day where they were serving 8 pizza, hamburgers or hot dogs. Those are the 9 only days where there is some civility in the 10 lunchroom.

11 (Laughter.)

12 SENATOR LaVALLE: And he sees that 13 his friend Logan is now looking not too good. So
14 he grabs Logan, and off they go to the nurse's 15 room.

16 He also notices that Logan is kind
17 of stumbling, is not steady on his feet. Gets to 18 the nurse's office just in the nick of time, 19 because you know what happens to Logan? He 20 passes out. He is out.

21 And so Logan was in the right place
22 where he could get attention. And you know
23 something, Cameron? Logan is going to live to be 24 age 10, thanks to you. Thanks to you.

25 So it is wonderful. And all of the

1 Senators here go to elementary schools, they go
2 to middle schools, they go to high schools. And 3 I'm always taken by the great things that go on 4 in our schools, and the students. Now, Cameron 5 is 9 going on 20 because of what he did. And we 6 all see this when we go to the elementary
7 schools and so forth. I can never figure out why
8 the people that get the greatest press do bad
9 things. It's maybe one person in a district.

10 His district is the Riverhead School
11 District. He's at the Reilly Avenue School. And 12 good things go on at that elementary school; I've 13 been there.

14 Cameron, this body thanks you for 15 your heroic deed, to have saved a life. And you
16 will always carry with you that you have saved a 17 human life. And that is a wonderful thing.

18 And so the Liberty Award goes to 19 you. You are the youngest person to have 20 received this, in the First Senatorial District.
21 And we wish you much good luck in your life. God
22 bless you.

23 (Standing ovation.)

24 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Cameron,
25 we welcome you to the New York State Senate.

1 We congratulate you on the honor and 2 recognition that you have received, and we 3 appreciate your leadership and compassion. God
4 bless you, and thank you.

5 The resolution was previously
6 adopted on March 20, 2014.

7 Senator Libous.

8 SENATOR LIBOUS: Mr. President, I
9 believe there's a privileged resolution at the 10 desk by Senator Ball, 4376. May we have it read 11 in its entirety and move for its immediate 12 adoption.

13 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The
14 Secretary will read.

15 THE SECRETARY: Legislative
16 Resolution Number 4376, by Senator Ball, 17 commending Brian Avery and Robert Cole for their 18 heroism in rescuing a woman from a burning home.

19 "WHEREAS, It is the sense of this
20 Legislative Body to recognize and commend the 21 caring concern and heroic acts of individuals who 22 take prompt and appropriate action in emergency 23 situations, nobly risking their own lives in an 24 effort to preserve the life of another; and

25 "WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern,

1 and in full accord with its long-standing
2 traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud
3 to commend Brian Avery and Robert Cole for their 4 heroism in rescuing a woman from her burning home
5 on Sunday, November 24, 2013, in Yorktown
6 Heights, New York; and

7 "WHEREAS, Brian Avery, a 48-year-old
8 National Guardsman, husband and father of two,
9 and Robert Cole, a 49-year-old husband and father 10 of two with no firefighting training, saved the 11 life of a 48-year-old wife and mother of three 12 who had just had hip surgery and had been asleep 13 when the fire broke out; and

14 "WHEREAS, Brian Avery saw flames at 15 the house and ran to help; after unsuccessfully 16 attempting to shimmy up a column onto the roof, 17 he ran back to his home to grab a ladder; and

18 "WHEREAS, Robert Cole was driving on 19 his way to a breakfast celebration of his 20 14th wedding anniversary when he saw smoke; he 21 quickly unfastened his seat belt and followed the 22 smoke until he reached the house; and

23 "WHEREAS, After being told there was 24 a woman upstairs, Robert Cole looked up and saw 25 the victim with her head and shoulders jutting

1 out of a bathroom window, smoke billowing all
2 around; he also tried to climb to the home's 3 second floor with no success; and

4 "WHEREAS, Brian Avery made it back
5 to the home with a ladder and saw Robert Cole;
6 with no thought for their own safety, the two 7 strangers swung into action, a model of 8 spontaneous teamwork; and

9 "WHEREAS, Brian Avery climbed up
10 first through dense smoke, followed by 11 Robert Cole, who went onto the roof; together 12 they got the woman out of the bathroom window and 13 Brian Avery guided her down to safety, while 14 Robert Cole remained on the roof to get her 15 securely on the ladder; and

16 "WHEREAS, The smoke was so intense
17 that Robert Cole had to wait until the wind
18 shifted so he could see the top of the ladder; 19 once on the ground, he was overcome by smoke and 20 had to be pulled across the street to safety; and

21 "WHEREAS, Within two minutes of the 22 rescue, the entire home was engulfed in flames;
23 and

24 "WHEREAS, Robert Cole and Brian
25 Avery, through their spontaneous and heroic

1 actions, demonstrated character and compassion
2 for the welfare of others, personifying, by 3 virtue of their behavior, the collective concern 4 of ordinary citizens across the community of the 5 State of New York who voluntarily respond when 6 others are in need of help; now, therefore, be it

7 "RESOLVED, That this Legislative
8 Body pause in its deliberations to commend 9 Brian Avery and Robert Cole for their heroism in 10 rescuing a woman from a burning home, and to 11 convey its tremendous appreciation for their 12 valiant actions; and be it further

13 "RESOLVED, That copies of this
14 resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to 15 Robert Cole and Brian Avery."

16 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator
17 Ball.

18 SENATOR BALL: Thank you very much.

19 Brian, Senior Master Sergeant Avery,
20 who stands behind me -- the Air Force represents 21 today -- he is with the New York Air National 22 Guard. And he is also here with his wife, Diane, 23 and Fallon, his daughter.

24 And Robert, who is one of our heroes
25 today, is joined by Joanne Cole, Alexa and

1 Amanda, and then Elizabeth and Jack are Robert's 2 parents.

3 You know, I remember when I was 4 growing up in a small town called Pawling and 5 hiking through the woods on an offshoot of the 6 Appalachian Trail, and the kids and I would 7 always say, "Well, what would you do if you saw a 8 bear?" I know what I'd do, I'd run. That's what 9 I would do. And I would tell them, "I'm a little 10 bit better runner than you, so I think I'm okay."

11 A lot of people ask, and on the back
12 of my desk there's a picture of a guy named Bobby 13 Kennedy, RFK. And people say, "Why does a 14 conservative Republican have a campaign poster of 15 Bobby Kennedy?" Well, when that man was shot, 16 once in the head and I believe twice in the side 17 by a guy named Sirhan Sirhan, Bobby Kennedy, his 18 last words were, "Is everybody okay?" I think my 19 last words would have been something else.

20 These are the testament of a man or 21 of a woman. And the two men that stand behind me 22 today came together, they never knew each other.
23 They met on the roof, literally. And had it not 24 been for their partnership and their willingness 25 to run into that burning building and to go help

1 this wonderful family, we may have been reading a
2 very tragic account.

3 Also the family is here, Maria, who 4 actually that day was just recovering from a
5 surgery. She's joined by her daughter, Marie, 6 her husband, Giulio, her son Giulio, Jr., and his 7 girlfriend Melissa Dee.

8 So I think it's extremely fitting
9 that we realize what a beautiful community we 10 live in and give honor to these great men. It's 11 always amazing when you meet people like this,
12 they never want to be called heroes. And Brian 13 has been quoted many times talking about how he's 14 not the hero, it's the men and women who serve in 15 combat who never return.

16 But the reality is, Brian and 17 Robert, that you could have never returned that 18 day, as well as those that you saved. So thank 19 you so much, and God bless you each and every one 20 of you.

21 (Applause.)

22 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The
23 question is on the resolution. All in favor 24 signify by saying aye.

25 (Response of "Aye.")

1 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Opposed?

2 (No response.)

3 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The
4 resolution is adopted.

5 We welcome and express our 6 appreciation to Senior Master Sergeant Avery and 7 Mr. Cole and to all the family members also here
8 today. Thank you for being here, and thank you 9 for your heroic efforts.

13 (The Secretary called the roll.)

14 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator
15 Krueger to explain her vote.

16 SENATOR KRUEGER: Thank you. I
17 rise to explain my vote.

18 You know, I have voted for this bill
19 in the past, and then I got an explanation today 20 about how conceptually we passed a law saying we 21 were putting a limit on the size of commercial 22 fishing vessels except we were grandfathering in 23 existing vessels that were bigger than the new 24 law.

25 But now this bill continues a

1 pattern of saying you can replace the boat, you
2 can replace the boat again, and as long as you
3 were a fisherman before X date, you can keep 4 having a bigger vessel.

5 And so I actually think at the end
6 of the day we've created and are continuing an 7 uneven playing field between different commercial 8 fishermen depending on whether they were in the 9 business before a certain date, not anything to 10 keep the ground even for a ship they may already 11 have owned and shouldn't have to give up at this 12 point in time.

13 So I'll be voting no because I
14 actually think it's unfair to the majority of 15 small-business fishermen who may have been 16 entering the business since after 1997.

17 Thank you.

18 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator
19 Krueger, how do you vote?

20 SENATOR KRUEGER: No.

21 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator
22 Krueger to be recorded in the negative.

9 have some order in the chamber, please.

10 We will return to motions and
