12 First of all, I would like to 13 welcome all of our honoree students, their 14 parents, their grandparents, teachers, and the 15 school administrators that are here today.
16 Eighteen high schools are represented by the best 17 of the best of our students in high school.

18 If you take a second, look at the 19 faces of these students on each side of the 20 gallery. They are the future of America, right 21 here.

22 And we had a program this morning;
23 our Majority Leader came and spoke to them, as 24 well as a representative from Siena College 25 talking a little bit about the transition from

1 high school to college life.

2 And when we're done here, we're 3 going to feed them and they're going to have 4 pictures, we're going to take them on a tour.

5 And I would say to the students I
6 would hope that when you finish your education, 7 you would come and stay in New York, work in 8 New York, raise your family here. We need you to 9 be here to keep our state strong and to keep 10 America strong.

11 Thank you, Mr. President.

12 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank
13 you, Senator Bonacic.

5 "RESOLVED, That a copy of this 6 resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to 7 the colleagues of Angelo Falcon at the National 8 Institute for Latino Policy."

9 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator
10 Rivera.

11 SENATOR RIVERA: Thank you,
12 Mr. President.

13 First things first. If Angelo was 14 around, the first thing he would say about the 15 fact that we are speaking about him on the floor
16 of the Senate is {sound of disgust}. You see, 17 Angelo Falcon, who was a mentor to so many 18 Puerto Rican and Latino activists, scholars, was 19 somebody who cared little for pomp and 20 circumstance. If you ever saw him, he was not -- 21 he didn't necessarily iron his clothes that much, 22 and he didn't necessarily worry about getting 23 places quickly. But he was somebody who was 24 incredibly astute, incredibly smart. In Spanish 25 we would use the word tajante, which would be

1 "cutting."

2 He dedicated his life to finding 3 data, to mining data in government. One of the 4 things that he cared about more than anything 5 else was participation of people of color, 6 particularly Latinos, in public institutions, in 7 government. He believed, as many of us do, that 8 having the representation of -- as diverse a 9 representation as possible in government would 10 lead to better policy and to better government.

11 And therefore, he gathered data, he 12 demanded data, he scoured data, and he gave it to 13 whomever he needed to give it to. People who 14 sometimes didn't like him that much -- because 15 again, he was a cutting man who gave it to you
16 just like he saw it. If he believed that you 17 weren't doing the right thing, he was just going 18 to tell you. People that don't like him, even 19 those folks were forced to respect him.

20 It was kind of a sudden loss just a
21 few weeks ago. And I remember that back when I
22 started working in the Senate back in 2003, I
23 worked in the Senate, as many of you folks know, 24 as a staffer before I was a Senator, long before.
25 And one of the individuals who was responsible

1 for making sure that I am here, Lucia Gomez, who 2 is -- was one of his mentees and used to work for 3 the Senate, I took her job at who was then the 4 Democratic leader's office, David Paterson. That 5 was a while back. And one of the things that she 6 suggested right at the beginning of my tenure was 7 that I should go and sit with Angelo Falcon.

8 I went and sat with him in a dark
9 office in the southern part of Manhattan,
10 surrounded by books and papers, and he gave me 11 this look that told me the only reason he was 12 talking to me was because Lucia had suggested 13 that he sit with me. He took my questions in 14 stride, and he educated me about the work that he 15 had been doing for years and about the work that 16 unfortunately government wasn't doing to have 17 true representation of Latinos in different 18 levels of power.

19 And since then, I learned so much
20 from him over the years. And more importantly, I 21 worked with so many folks who respected him who 22 were his mentees -- I know that some of my 23 colleagues are going to share some of their 24 experiences. But bottom line is that this person 25 who we called guerrero, or a warrior -- who cared

1 very little, again, for pomp and circumstance.
2 He would -- like if he was still here with us and 3 I told him I was going to do a resolution on his 4 behalf, he would not come in and sit in the room.
5 He would never have done that. He would have 6 watched it from home and gone like {sound of 7 disgust}, watched it halfway through and turned 8 it off.

9 But there's many of us who recognize 10 that without the advocacy that he made throughout 11 his entire career, without the push that he made 12 to government entities -- who sometimes still 13 don't respond the way that they're supposed to, 14 who still don't have the representation they're 15 supposed to have -- it is individuals like him, 16 who -- certainly a curmudgeon, he can certainly 17 be described as that. But he was a wise one, and 18 I'm going to miss him greatly.

19 I think that the Puerto Rican
20 community, the Latino community, the advocacy
21 community mourns for this man, who many of us 22 again called a warrior, a guerrero. I think he's 23 been an important part of who the Latino and 24 Puerto Rican community is in the State of 25 New York. And I will miss him greatly. I thank

1 him for his efforts. I thank his family members
2 for lending him to us as much as they did.

3 And I look forward to continuing his 4 work and, based on the work that he's done over 5 the years, to make sure that we never forget that 6 government should respond to the interests of all 7 people, and having a diverse workforce and a 8 diverse representation at all levels of 9 government is necessary and important. He taught 10 me that, he taught many of us that. And I will 11 miss him greatly.

12 Thank you, Mr. President.

13 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank
14 you, Senator Rivera.

15 Senator Sanders.

16 SENATOR SANDERS: Thank you,
17 Mr. President.

18 I too must rise because sometimes we 19 fail to recognize that some people are rising 20 above and they're exceeding their bonds. And 21 Angelo Falcon was one of those people who, by 22 focusing on the Latino community in general and 23 the Puerto Rican community in particular, Angelo 24 aided the human community. Angelo aided all of 25 us.

1 He was against injustice. He 2 pointed it out and fought it, and if you didn't 3 like, he didn't care. He really did not care.
4 In fact, I suspect he took a special delight if 5 you didn't like it, because he would tell you the 6 truth in season or out of season.

7 And we all have benefited from 8 people like this. And every community has these 9 type of folk who, you know, will spend their 10 lives trying to find and root out injustice and 11 things of that nature. And I think that we all 12 have a debt to pay to these types of every 13 community.

14 So I'm just here to celebrate the 15 life of Mr. Falcon and look forward to the next 16 Falcon arising and -- falcon arising, hmm -- the 17 next one that comes out and realizes that the 18 work is not over. As long as there is injustice, 19 somebody needs to do something about it.

20 So I'm grateful that he did, and I'm 21 grateful that his family allowed it. And I look 22 forward to greeting the next one, whatever 23 religion, ethnic, race that they all -- or 24 sex that they come in. Or faith. Or anything
25 else that I have left out that they appear in. I

1 look forward to it.

2 Thank you, Mr. President.

3 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank
4 you, Senator Sanders.

5 Senator Serrano.

6 SENATOR SERRANO: Thank you very 7 much, Mr. President.

8 And I want to give my gratitude to 9 Senator Rivera for bringing this resolution
10 forward and honoring the life and legacy of a 11 great man, Angelo Falcon.

12 He's a person who I refer to as a 13 pioneer. In the Latino community, in the cause 14 for social justice in our community and 15 empowerment from a political standpoint, in ways 16 that are representative of the communities and 17 constituencies that have very large Latino 18 population, we have pioneers, those who many 19 years ago, long before I or Senator Rivera came 20 into the world of government and politics, they 21 were the ones demanding a seat at the table.
22 They were the ones who, in the case of Angelo 23 Falcon, was very professorial and encyclopedic in 24 his analysis of data and using that to speak 25 truth to power.

1 And I think that that is such a
2 fundamental benefit when crafting policy. When 3 crafting initiatives that are important to any 4 community, but in my case the Latino community, 5 having reliable data, having a reliable
6 foundation of which to balance and create policy
7 is of the utmost importance.

8 So I think it's so important that we 9 give tribute to people like Angelo Falcon and 10 pioneers like him who make it possible for people 11 like myself to stand here as an elected official, 12 as a State Senator, representing a community that 13 has many challenges but has seen growth 14 throughout the years. And I'm very grateful to 15 him and to all of the pioneers for making that a 16 reality.

17 And on a side note, Senator
18 Sepúlveda, who could not be here, asked if I 19 could convey his condolences to his friends and 20 family as well.

21 Thank you, Mr. President.

22 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank
23 you, Senator Serrano.

24 Senator Parker.

25 SENATOR PARKER: Thank you,

1 Mr. President. On the resolution.

2 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator
3 Parker on the resolution.

4 SENATOR PARKER: First let me begin
5 by thanking Senator Rivera for his very eloquent
6 words. And I think that they certainly summed up
7 the life and the personality of Dr. Angelo
8 Falcon. And I also want to just associate myself 9 with the remarks made by all of my colleagues on 10 this great man's life.

11 Second, let me offer my personal 12 condolences and prayers and comfort to the 13 family. Because there's a lot of people who, 14 although we're acknowledging his life as a 15 scholar and public person, I'm sure there's 16 people in his family who knew a very different 17 Angelo Falcon and are now, you know, missing his 18 presence. And so we want to be -- we want to 19 acknowledge and say that we remember them.

20 Angelo Falcon, you know, was huge,
21 obviously, in the Puerto Rican community, huge in 22 the Latino community nationally as a scholar and 23 as an activist and as somebody who you could 24 always go to for information and knowledge about 25 politics and policy. But he was no less

1 important in the African-American and black 2 communities here in the city. And he was 3 somebody who deeply understood the notion of 4 coalition.

5 And he was no more polite to me than 6 he was to Senator Rivera, but he certainly made 7 time, you know, to talk to me and to give me 8 information. And my interactions with him and 9 the times that I had the honor and the privilege 10 to learn from him certainly were impactful to me.

11 You see that even within the context 12 of developing, you know, the institutes that he 13 developed. And I think there's two things to 14 talk about in the context of these institutes.
15 The first is to understand that he started 16 institution-building in the academic sense for 17 the Latino community before anybody ever thought
18 to do it. And that's when you hear Senator 19 Serrano talk about him as a pioneer. He was 20 certainly an academic pioneer -- not that he was 21 the first to develop Puerto Rican studies or 22 Latino studies, but certainly one of the first, 23 and certainly saw the importance of developing 24 institutions that would live beyond him in 25 developing that understanding.

1 The second thing that I think is 2 critical is the transformation of the Institute
3 on Puerto Rican Policy to the National Institute 4 on Latino Policy, and understanding that as the 5 Latino community has grown and has not been as 6 dominated by Puerto Ricans as it was in the early 7 years, that he became flexible and understood 8 that for politics to influence policy, that in 9 fact it wasn't enough just to be Puerto Rican, 10 that you had to have a larger coalition.

11 That first coalition was with 12 blacks, but then later on the coalition grew to 13 other Latino groups. Right? And I saw that in 14 his work and the things that he was involved in.

15 But his impact on the policy and the 16 politics of New York City and this country is 17 undeniable, it's significant, and it's 18 transcendent. And so for those things we 19 remember him and we honor his memory today.

20 Thank you, Mr. President.

21 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank
22 you, Senator Parker.

23 Senator Krueger.

24 SENATOR KRUEGER: Thank you,
25 Mr. President.

1 I'd like to also rise to give a
2 shout out to the family of Angelo Falcon. What 3 an incredibly valuable member of our community he 4 was for so many years.

5 I got to work with Mr. Falcon
6 probably over 30 years ago on a report on poverty 7 in New York City and its distribution and the 8 impacts it was having. And I remember him 9 educating me at the time that simply defining 10 people as a community because their parents all 11 spoke Spanish was the wrong way to recognize 12 differences and commonalities among different 13 communities in the city.

14 And he was always a staunch advocate 15 for what he believed and a staunch advocate for 16 using data to prove your point. And he taught 17 many people, many, many important lessons and was 18 a true value to so many different issues that I
19 think we just see and understand differently 20 today compared to when he started his work and 21 his life.

22 So for his family and his friends --
23 and I'm sure that because he gave and was so 24 committed to his work that there was a price to 25 be paid by everyone else sometimes -- that it was

1 not just spitting in the wind, it was actually 2 having a real impact on how policies were 3 understood and translated and the impact on real 4 people's lives.

5 So thank you, Senator Rivera, for 6 thinking enough to bring this resolution to the 7 floor and reminding us all, those who knew Angelo
8 Falcon and those of us who didn't, what a 9 valuable resource he was to us all.

10 Thank you, Mr. President.

11 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank
12 you, Senator Krueger.

25 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator

1 Carlucci to explain his vote.

2 SENATOR CARLUCCI: Thank you,
3 Mr. President.

4 We as legislators have to do
5 everything possible to keep children and families
6 safe, to keep firefighters and first responders 7 out of harm's way wherever possible. But 8 unfortunately, throughout our state we've seen 9 illegal, unsafe housing plaguing communities, 10 because unscrupulous landlords decide to put 11 profits before people and put innocent children 12 and families in harm's way.

13 That's why we have to pass this 14 legislation, to allow our municipalities to 15 really crack down on these unscrupulous
16 landlords, to uphold local zoning and to uphold 17 the integrity of the local code.

18 This legislation will allow 19 municipalities to add unpaid code violations to 20 the property tax levy in a certain time period if 21 they have not paid and upheld their 22 responsibility to uphold the code.

23 This is an important step to make 24 sure we're keeping our end of the deal to do our 25 job. While the first responders and

1 firefighters are always there, running in in 2 harm's way, we have to do everything we can to 3 protect them, to keep them safe. And this 4 legislation will go a long way in doing that, in 5 cracking down on unsafe housing, illegal housing 6 throughout our state.

7 So I'll be supporting this 8 legislation. I want to thank my colleagues in 9 the Senate for doing the same.

10 Thank you, Mr. President.

10 ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator
11 Stavisky to explain her vote.

12 SENATOR STAVISKY: To explain my 13 vote, Mr. President.

14 We recognize that there's a
15 disparity between out-of-state tuition charges 16 and SUNY in particular, but also with CUNY. And 17 I think that this solution is something we've got 18 to take a look at in the future, because SUNY
19 has, in some areas, a declining enrollment.
20 We've got to do what we can to encourage students 21 to come to SUNY from all parts of the state and 22 also from out-of-state students.

23 And I think a study should be 24 undertaken to compare tuition costs in other 25 states compared to New York. Our out-of-state

1 tuition rates are very low.

2 I'm going to vote for this bill,
3 Mr. President, but I caution I don't think this 4 is the ultimate solution.

5 Thank you.

5 THE SECRETARY: In relation to 6 Calendar 1532: Ayes, 60. Nays, 1. Senator
7 Hoylman recorded in the negative.

9 Hoylman to explain his vote.

10 SENATOR HOYLMAN: Thank you,
11 Mr. President.

12 I'm actually voting in support of 13 this bill and wanted to point out that this bill
14 would facilitate the establishment of a red light 15 camera enforcement program in one of the 16 sponsor's towns, of Wallkill.

17 You know, we're trying to do the 18 same thing in New York. Senator Peralta has a 19 very important bill, S6046B, which would allow 20 New York City to install more speed safety 21 cameras. It would allow the expansion of the 22 speed cameras by 150 to the mere 140 existing 23 school locations in New York City that have 24 cameras, for a total of 290 locations.

25 My daughter goes to a local public

1 school in Greenwich Village, and there was a 2 terrible accident there just a couple of years
3 ago. We don't have a red light camera or speed
4 safety camera at the intersection of Sixth Avenue
5 and 11th Street, and we should, to protect my 6 daughter and the thousands of school students
7 across the City of New York.

8 I vote aye. Thank you.
