19 ALEJANDRA N. PAULINO, ESQ., Secretary

1 P R O C E E D I N G S

2 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The Senate
3 will come to order.

4 I ask everyone present to please
5 rise and repeat with me the Pledge of Allegiance.

6 (Whereupon, the assemblage recited
7 the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.)

8 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Reverend 9 Alonzo Jordan, pastor of Greater Covenant
10 Ministries in Jamaica, will deliver today's 11 invocation.

12 Reverend Jordan.

13 REVEREND JORDAN: Shall we pray?

14 Eternal God, creator of the heavens
15 and the earth, we come to You today to beseech
16 Your knowledge, wisdom and understanding in order 17 to form a more perfect union.

18 Endow and impart each legislator and 19 their staff with the integrity to govern our fair 20 state with Your holy spirit. Let them be 21 ever-mindful that they are their brother's and 22 sister's keeper, despite their political 23 differences.

24 We pray for a unified spirit, one 25 nation under God, indivisible with liberty and

1 justice for all. One Lord, one faith, and one 2 baptism.

3 Purify our hearts and minds, that we 4 may see clearly Your perfect will for the 5 citizens of New York State.

6 Grant each Senator grace, 7 temperance, moral fortitude, political fervor and 8 acumen, as well as the common touch in these 9 perilous times we know we now live in.

10 In the name of the Father, the Son,
11 the Holy Spirit, let all God's children say amen.

12 (Response of "Amen.")

3                   Senator Gianaris.

4                   SENATOR GIANARIS:    Madam President, 5   can we begin by taking up Resolution 1385, by 6   Leader Stewart-Cousins.  This is the resolution
7   recognizing the Women of Distinction.

8                   By agreement of both the Majority 9   and Minority, and consistent with practice, we're 10  going to have only one member from each side 11  speak on this resolution so that we don't spend 12  the entire day here on the floor of the chamber.
13  We of course have the ceremony after session, 14  where we will hear more about the various 15  honorees.

16                   So please have that resolution read 17  in its entirety, and recognize Senator Salazar to 18  speak on it.

19                   ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    The 20  Secretary will read.

21                   THE SECRETARY:    Senate Resolution

13 "RESOLVED, That copies of this 14 resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to 15 the aforementioned Women of Distinction."

16 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
17 Salazar on the resolution.

18 SENATOR SALAZAR: Thank you, Madam
19 President.

20 I'm proud to recognize the 2019
21 New York State Senate Women of Distinction
22 honorees and welcome them to Albany.

23 This is an important tradition in 24 the State Senate that honors incredible New York 25 women who have contributed tremendously to our

1 state and who have helped improve the lives of 2 their fellow New Yorkers.

3           These Women of Distinction are 4 trailblazers who have taken on leadership roles
5 in their industries and their communities
6 throughout the 63 State Senate districts that 7 they come from.

8           Today is so important because it 9 offers this legislative body an opportunity to 10 recognize the work of these incredible women.
11 Unfortunately, we are well aware that far too 12 often women's accomplishments are not given the 13 recognition and appreciation they deserve. That 14 is why I must take a moment to recognize our own 15 Woman of Distinction for New York's 18th State 16 Senate District.

17           Michelle Neugebauer grew up in our 18 district, in Bushwick, where she experienced 19 firsthand the struggles that our community has 20 faced. Michelle is the executive director of 21 Cyprus Hills Local Development Corporation.
22 She's worked relentlessly with CHLDC and 23 community residents to build a strong and 24 equitable East New York, through educational 25 programs for youth and adults and fighting to 1 secure and preserve affordable housing in 2 Brooklyn.

3 It's inspiring to be in the company
4 of such a diverse group of women of such high
5 achievement. Thank you to all of our fellow
6 Senators for bringing these heroines and role
7 models to Albany to share their incredible
8 journeys and successes with us.

9 Again, to all of our guests, thank 10 you for all of your hard work. I'm so proud to 11 be here to celebrate your accomplishments and 12 applaud you as the 2019 Women of Distinction.

13 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you,
14 Senator Salazar.

15 Senator Little on the resolution.

16 SENATOR LITTLE: Thank you,
17 Madam President.

18 I'm really proud to rise today and 19 honor our Women of Distinction and to talk about 20 them for a few minutes.

21 Certainly the Senators, female 22 Senators who are here join that class of Women of 23 Distinction. And we have many new members this 24 year, so we honor them as well.

25 But we have one particular guest who

1 is in the gallery to honor today, and that's a 2 former Senator of ours who served here for many 3 years. Senator Mary Lou Rath, sitting in the 4 front row of the gallery up here, is joining us
5 today because she is Senator Ranzenhofer's Woman
6 of Distinction. And we all know Mary Lou was a 7 woman of distinction throughout her years in the 8 Senate and continues to be that with her life in 9 Buffalo.

10 Today -- you know, much different
11 than when I was growing up -- women have so many 12 different opportunities. And the women that we 13 are honoring today you will see and hear about 14 come from all kinds of professions, different 15 educational backgrounds, they're being honored 16 for volunteer activities, and they come from all 17 walks of life. But these are women who have put 18 themselves out there, who have done things that 19 they didn't need to do, but things that make 20 their families better, their communities better, 21 and our state better.

22 So today we will honor these 23 leaders. They are leaders not only in their 24 profession and in their place of work, but they 25 are leaders in their family. And as we know,

1 women are the experts in multitasking. I
2 truthfully have to -- I have a new word that I
3 have to say to myself all the time: Focus.
4 Focus on what you're doing. Stop thinking about 5 the next thing you want to be doing.

6 But because they are multitaskers,
7 these women have done many, many things. And I'm 8 really proud to be here and to honor them today, 9 as we all are. And to the many, many women -- 10 some of them are here today -- congratulations.
11 We look forward to hearing your story and seeing 12 you this evening at this great ceremony, which is 13 a New York State tradition -- and it's my 14 favorite.

15 So thank you very much,
16 Madam President.

17 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you,
18 Senator Little.

19 The question is on the resolution.
20 All in favor signify by saying aye.

21 (Response of "Aye.")

22 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Opposed?

23 (No response.)

25 resolution is adopted.

1                   To our guests, our Women of 2                   Distinction, and to former Senator Mary Lou Rath,
3                   thank you for joining us all. We extend to you 4                   the privileges and courtesies of the house.
5                   Please rise and be recognized by our esteemed
6                   colleagues.

7                   (Extended standing ovation.)

9                   Gianaris.

10                  SENATOR GIANARIS:     Madam President, 11                  I know that Leader Stewart-Cousins would like to 12                  open this resolution for cosponsorship.

13                  ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:     The 14                  resolution is open for cosponsorship. Should you 15                  choose not to be a cosponsor of the resolution, 16                  please notify the desk.

17                  Senator Gianaris.

18                  SENATOR GIANARIS:     Can we now move 19                  to Resolution 1382, by Senator Griffo, read that 20                  resolution in its entirety, and recognize Senator
21                  Griffo.

22                  ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:     The
23                  Secretary will read.

24                  THE SECRETARY:     Senate Resolution
25                  1382, by Senator Griffo, celebrating the

1 purposeful life and career of Officer Kevin F.
2 Crossley, and commemorating the one-year
3 anniversary of his death.

4 "WHEREAS, It is the sense of this 5 Legislative Body to convey its grateful
6 appreciation and heartfelt regret in recognition 7 of the loss of courageous individuals who 8 dedicated their purposeful lives and careers to 9 serve and protect; and

10 "WHEREAS, This Legislative Body is 11 moved to celebrate the purposeful life and career
12 of Officer Kevin F. Crossley, and to commemorate 13 the one-year anniversary of his death; and

14 "WHEREAS, Officer Kevin F. Crossley
15 truly lived his life with great dignity and 16 genuine grace, always demonstrating a deep and 17 continuing concern for the welfare of others in 18 the great State of New York; and 19 "WHEREAS, Born on March 11, 1984, in 20 Utica, New York, Kevin F. Crossley graduated from 21 Whitesboro Central High School in 2002; he went 22 on to earn a degree in criminal justice from 23 Mohawk Valley Community College in 2004, and 24 completed the Police Academy at Cazenovia

25 College in 2010; and

1                   "WHEREAS, Kevin F. Crossley
2 fulfilled his lifelong dream of service to his 3 community when he became a police officer; he 4 began his illustrious career in law enforcement
5 with the Town of Whitestown Police Department,
6 before joining the Village of Whitesboro Police 7 Department in 2011; and

8                   "WHEREAS, With a steadfast and 9 unwavering commitment to his community, Officer 10 Kevin F. Crossley was a member of the Sons of the 11 American Legion and Penn Mountain Snow Riders; 12 and

13                  "WHEREAS, Officer Kevin F. Crossley
14 made the ultimate sacrifice on April 11, 2018, 15 while faithfully executing his responsibilities, 16 serving with dedication, loyalty and compassion;
17 and

18                  "WHEREAS, The beloved son of George 19 and Linda, and the proud brother of Michael, 20 Officer Kevin F. Crossley exemplified what it 21 truly means to give of himself in providing vital 22 police services in keeping with the noble mission 23 of the Whitesboro Police Department; and

24                  "WHEREAS, Officer Kevin F.
25 Crossley's life was a portrait of service, a

1 legacy which will long endure the passing of 2 time, and will remain as a comforting memory to 3 all he served and befriended; and

4 "WHEREAS, Officer Kevin F.
5 Crossley's name is synonymous with character,
6 dignity, intellect, depth and humor, qualities 7 evident to his family and to all those who were 8 fortunate enough to have known him; he will be 9 deeply missed and truly merits the grateful 10 tribute of this legislative Body; now, therefore, 11 be it

12 "RESOLVED, That this Legislative 13 Body pause in its deliberations to celebrate the 14 purposeful life and career of Officer Kevin F.
15 Crossley, to commemorate the one-year anniversary 16 of his death, and to express its deepest 17 condolences to his family; and be it further

18 "RESOLVED, That a copy of this
19 resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to 20 the family of Officer Kevin F. Crossley."

22 Griffo.

23 SENATOR GRIFFO: Thank you,
24 Madam President.

25 Today is equally an important day.

1 We celebrate Women of Distinction, but we also 2 come today to commemorate, on Law Enforcement
3 Memorial Day, with ceremonies that took place 4 earlier today, those who have made and paid the 5 ultimate sacrifice.

6 It's a very sad and heartbreaking
7 time for many families and many of us who have 8 lost someone special who have served our great 9 state and our communities. This particular 10 instance today, we have the opportunity to 11 recognize a young life, 34-year-old Kevin 12 Crossley, who was killed on April 11th, lost his 13 life on April 11, 2018.

14 We're honored here today to have 15 with us members of his family -- his parents, 16 George and Linda; his brother Michael and 17 Michael's girlfriend Natalie -- along with the 18 police chief of the Village of Whitesboro, 19 Dominick Hiffa, and Sergeant Jason Buley and 20 other members of the Whitesboro Police
21 Department. I also know the mayor is here -- I 22 think I saw the mayor earlier, and I'm not sure 23 if he's still with us.

24 But this was so important today, and 25 I appreciate that this resolution was presented,

1 because it's significant for us not only to 2 reflect on a life lost -- and it's so difficult 3 for these family members to continually gain the 4 courage necessary to participate in events like 5 this. And they recognize it's important because 6 we are truly paying tribute to his memory. But 7 it also is difficult, as you try to heal these 8 difficult scars as a result of that loss of life, 9 that young loss of life.

10               So we reflect today, but we also 11 have an opportunity to express our respect and 12 our appreciation for a sense of duty and 13 responsibility for this young man who gave and 14 paid the ultimate sacrifice because he cared so 15 much about the community that he lived in and the 16 people that he wanted to serve.

17               And it's also an opportunity to 18 celebrate his life. It's an opportunity for all 19 of us to remember this young vibrant man who 20 really chose this career because he had such a 21 great passion for it, who had great likes, like 22 others. He loved his Harley and he was a great 23 fan of NASCAR. And he just was somebody who had 24 great passion and concern for others, who lived 25 by the great motto that he would give a portion

1 of himself in order to benefit others in our 2 community that he served.

3 That is the ultimate that anyone can 4 say of anyone, that he's made his community a 5 better place, that he's made the lives he's 6 touched better because of his presence. So as 7 difficult as today is to the Crossley family and 8 the members of the department that are here 9 today, we appreciate you being here, because it's 10 so important to celebrate Kevin, who he was, what 11 he represented.

12 As difficult and challenging as this 13 is -- because it is heartbreaking, and no words 14 can adequately express or convey what we would 15 like to express and what you would feel -- but 16 know that we do care, we do respect him, and we 17 do appreciate his service. And today this 18 resolution is one way to demonstrate that, as 19 well as a bill that will be before the house 20 where we will be naming a portion of a highway in 21 the Mohawk Valley in his name and honor.

22 So Madam President, I thank you for 23 the opportunity.

24 And God bless you.

25 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you.

1                   The question is on the resolution.

2   All in favor signify by saying aye.

3                   (Response of "Aye.")

4                   ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    Opposed?

5                   (No response.)

7   resolution is adopted.

8                   To our guests, the family and 9   colleagues of Officer Crossley, we welcome you on 10   behalf of the Senate, extend to you our 11   condolences, but also the privileges and 12   courtesies of this house.

13                  Please rise and be honored by our 14   colleagues.

15                  (Standing ovation.)

16                  ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    Senator
17   Gianaris.

18                  SENATOR GIANARIS:    Madam President,
19   at the request of Senator Griffo, this resolution 20   is open for cosponsorship.

21                  And I'd also ask, because we do have 22   several resolutions to come, that I believe all 23   of them are open for cosponsorship at the 24   sponsor's request.

25                  ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    This

1 resolution and all of the other resolutions we 2 are considering today are open for cosponsorship.
3 Should you choose not to be a cosponsor of the 4 resolutions, please notify the desk.

5 Senator Gianaris.

6 SENATOR GIANARIS: Can we now take 7 up Resolution 1126, by Senator Metzger, read that 8 resolution in its entirety, and recognize 9 Senator Metzger.

10 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The
11 Secretary will read.

12 THE SECRETARY: Senate Resolution
13 1126, by Senator Metzger, commemorating the 14 50th Anniversary of the launching of the

9 the birth of Beacon resident, world-renowned folk 10 singer/songwriter and environmental activist 11 Pete Seeger falls on May 3, 2019; and

12 "WHEREAS, Pete and Toshi Seeger
13 cofounded the Hudson River Sloop Restoration in 14 1966, which built the Hudson River Sloop

16 with a mission to preserve and protect the Hudson 17 River, its tributaries and related bodies of 18 water; and

13 on-land education programs; and

14                  "WHEREAS, In 1993, the landmark 15 document 'Hudson River Angler Survey: A report
16 on the adherence to fish consumption health
17 advisories among Hudson River anglers,' 18 investigated and authored by Bridget Barclay, 19 Clearwater's environmental action director, 20 became an important turning point in the 21 Hudson River PCB Superfund site case by showing 22 the nexus between PCB contamination of 23 Hudson River water and sediment and human health 24 by actively demonstrating that humans were 25 unaware of and/or ignoring health advisories and

1 consuming PCB-containing fish; and

2 "WHEREAS, In 1998, the Hudson was 13 nation's most important environmental conflicts'; 14 and

15 "WHEREAS, In 2010, as part of 16 Clearwater's Green Cities program, Clearwater 17 undertook a groundbreaking Community-Based 18 Environmental Justice Inventory for the City of 20 pollution, disparate impacts on vulnerable

21 populations, and offering a range of suggested 22 solutions; and

23 "WHEREAS, Two years later,
24 Clearwater began a Climate Justice initiative in 25 four Hudson Valley cities to assess potential

4 Poughkeepsie, Beacon, and Peekskill, each of 5 which have waterfronts vulnerable to sea-level 6 rise along their shorelines; and

7 "WHEREAS, Clearwater has created and 8 fostered environmental programs and musical 9 celebrations, including the renowned annual

15 Clearwater was designed to and continues to keep 16 alive an important era of New York State history, 17 reminding us of the days when commerce, 18 recreation and travel centered along the 19 waterfront; and

20 "WHEREAS, Pete Seeger's legacy lives
21 on through education programs, advocacy work and 22 special events like the Great Hudson River 23 Revival, and the Hudson River Sloop Clearwater is

7 Seeger; and be it further

8 "RESOLVED, That this Legislative 9 Body pauses further to applaud and commend the 10 contributions of Clearwater in its untiring work
11 to preserve the Hudson River and its watershed

13 "RESOLVED, That a copy of this
15 the Hudson River Sloop Clearwater, Inc., Beacon, 16 New York."

17 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
18 Metzger on the resolution.

19 SENATOR METZGER: Thank you,
20 Madam President.

21 It is an incredible honor to 22 introduce this resolution to commemorate the 23 50th anniversary of the launching of the 24 Hudson River Sloop Clearwater and to celebrate 25 the 100th anniversary of the birth of

1 Pete Seeger, a man who fought for the rights and 2 well-being of working people -- of all people.
3 He's a hero of the labor movement, a hero of the 4 environmental movement, and a hero of mine.

5 We all grew up on his music. His 6 songs were as popular in summer camps and 7 elementary school chorus classes as they were at 8 political rallies and marches. Pete was born in 9 New York, and we in the Hudson Valley felt very 10 fortunate when Pete and his wife Toshi decided to 11 settle in our beautiful valley.

12 The Hudson River Sloop Clearwater is 13 part of Pete's important legacy. I am so pleased 14 to welcome to this chamber Steve Smith, the 15 chairman of the board of Hudson River Sloop
16 Clearwater, and Manna Jo Greene, Clearwater
17 environmental director as well as a dear old 18 friend.

19 The resolution that was just read
20 really gives the entire history, so I won't 21 repeat it. But I just want to say that the work 22 that Clearwater has done over the decades to 23 protect the Hudson River -- which is an 24 incredible treasure to us all -- and the 25 environment, and to fight for environmental

1 justice has been so important and so personally 2 formative for me and for our entire region and 3 really the State of New York.

4 And I'm very proud to recognize 5 Pete Seeger and his legacy. Thank you very much.

6 And I'd ask that you,
7 Madam President, extend the privileges and 8 courtesies of the house to our guests.

9 Thank you.

10 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The 11 question is on the resolution. All in favor 12 signify by saying aye.

14 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Opposed?

15 (No response.)

16 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The
17 resolution is adopted.

18 To our guests, I welcome you on 19 behalf of the Senate. We extend to you the 20 privileges and courtesies of the house. Please
21 rise and be recognized.

22 (Standing ovation.)

23 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
24 Gianaris.

25 SENATOR GIANARIS: Can we now

1 please take up Resolution 1115, also by 2 Senator Metzger, read its title only, and 3 recognize Senator Metzger again.

4 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The
5 Secretary shall read.

6 THE SECRETARY: Senate Resolution
7 1115, by Senator Metzger, commemorating the 8 20th Annual World Falun Dafa Day celebration, to 9 be observed May 13, 2019.

11 Metzger on the resolution.

12 SENATOR METZGER: Thank you,
13 Madam President.

14 I'm pleased to continue the 15 tradition of my predecessor, Senator Bonacic, and 16 sponsor a resolution recognizing May 13th as the 17 20th Annual World Falun Dafa Day.

18 I want to welcome Helena Cheng,
19 Yu Chen, and two of my constituents, Angela Lee, 20 of Port Jervis, and James H. Smith, of 21 Middletown, to this chamber.

22 Falun Dafa, also known as Falun
23 Gong, is a self-improvement technique practiced 24 by millions of people around the world.
25 Practitioners undertake the search for

1 truthfulness, compassion and tolerance, something 2 we all need, through meditation and a series of 3 four physical exercises.

4 Practitioners of Falun Gong have 5 said that they experience improvements to mind
6 and body, health and happiness, and an increase 7 in inner peace.

8 Introduced in 1992 to the general
9 public by Mr. Li Hongzhi, also known as Master 10 Li, today Falun Dafa is practiced in more than 11 70 countries and in 41 languages. Falun Gong has 12 spread through workshops and trainings offered 13 free to participants.

14 New York opened its doors to the 15 Falun Dafa community in 1996, offering an 16 opportunity to introduce the practice to people.

17 In 2017, more than 10,000
18 practitioners from 57 countries gathered at 19 celebrations around New York for Falun Dafa Day
20 events, including parades, dancing and music.
21 There is a large community of practitioners in my 22 district in Middletown and Port Jervis, where 23 they've created a film studio, which I visited 24 last week, a high school, and a college for arts
25 where they educate young artists. The art school

1 is also home to five Shen Yun dance troops, who 2 travel the globe performing elaborate and 3 acrobatic choreography. The school's mission is 4 to provide an exceptionally positive, encouraging 5 and wholesome environment for learning and 6 self-improvement.

7 Central to all of this are the 8 tenets of Falun Dafa: Truth, compassion, and 9 tolerance.

10 They have also put on several public
11 festivals in my district, including the Moon
12 Festival and the upcoming Family Festival, as a 13 way to share their culture and traditions with 14 the surrounding community.

15 On this World Falun Dafa Day, we 16 recognize the practitioners of Falun Gong and the 17 positive and peaceful attributes they encourage.

18 Thank you very much, Madam
19 President. I ask that you extend to our guests 20 the courtesies and privileges of the house.

22 Senator Metzger.

23 Senator Stavisky on the resolution.

24 SENATOR STAVISKY: Thank you.

25 And thank you, Senator Metzger, for

1 sponsoring this resolution recognizing an 2 important segment of the Asian-American 3 community.

4 As you know, I represent a large 5 number of Asian-Americans in Queens County, and 6 we recognize the contributions that everybody has 7 made to make our state a better place, and we 8 thank everybody for their contributions.

9 Thank you.

10 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you.

11 The question is on the resolution.

12 All in favor signify by saying aye.

14 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Opposed?

15 (No response.)

16 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The
17 resolution is adopted.

18 To our guests, I welcome you on
19 behalf of the Senate. We extend to you the 20 privileges and courtesies of the house. Please
21 rise and be recognized.

22 (Standing ovation.)

23 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
24 Gianaris.

25 SENATOR GIANARIS: Thank you,

1 Madam President.

2 Can we now move to on Resolution
3 1368, by Senator Little, read its title only, and 4 recognize Senator Little.

6 Secretary shall read.

7 THE SECRETARY: Senate Resolution
8 1368, by Senator Little, memorializing Governor
9 Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim May 5th through 12th, 10 2019, as Fibromyalgia Awareness Week in the State
11 of New York.

12 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
13 Little on the resolution.

14 SENATOR LITTLE: Thank you,
15 Madam President.

16 For a number of years I have 17 supported this resolution on fibromyalgia. And 18 it is very important. There are over 10 million 19 people in the United States that have been 20 diagnosed with fibromyalgia. Even though the 21 majority are women, it still affects children and 22 men. And this year a focus is on pediatric 23 fibromyalgia, which is pretty sad.

24 The average time to actually be 25 diagnosed with fibromyalgia takes about five

1 years. And in that five-year period there is a 2 lot of distress, pain, questioning and just 3 really being unsettled, not knowing what you have 4 and how you're going to be able to get it taken 5 care of.

6 Treating it is a team approach,
7 including traditional and complementary 8 therapies. So far some of the therapies are not 9 covered by insurance, which is difficult for 10 patients. And so far they have not been allowed 11 to have medical marijuana, which is not covered 12 by insurance either, but it's something they 13 would like to see happen at some point.

14 The Fibromyalgia Task Force is 15 focusing on three things this year. They are 16 continuing to pass out their report, which they 17 have done. So far they've distributed 6500 18 copies of that report around the state and 19 country. And they are creating continuing 20 education materials for physicians as well as 21 working to create an Integrative Center for 22 Fibromyalgia and Chronic Pain.

23 We're joined today by folks from the 24 Fibromyalgia Task Force of the International 25 Institute for Human Empowerment. Once again

1 joining us is Dr. Sue Shipe, who is founder and 2 chair, and a fibromyalgia patient, and her
3 husband, Brian Hart. Also Dr. Phil Albrecht, a 4 medical researcher in pain and fibromyalgia at 5 Intidyn, is here with us, and Ms. Lisa Houck, who 6 is a disability person helping people who have 7 this disease.

8 I'm also happy to say that a lot of 9 this takes place right here in the Capital 10 District at Albany Medical.

11 So I would ask you, Madam President, 12 if you would give them the courtesies of the 13 house and welcome them today. And, you know, 14 hopefully we all think about and know a little 15 bit more about fibromyalgia.

16 Thank you.

17 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you,
18 Senator Little.

19 The question is on the resolution.
20 All in favor signify by saying aye.

22 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Opposed?

23 (No response.)

25 resolution is adopted.

1           To our guests, we welcome you on
2   behalf of the Senate. We extend to you the
3   privileges and courtesies of the house. Please
4   rise and be recognized.

5           (Standing ovation.)

7   Gianaris.

8           SENATOR GIANARIS:    Madam President,
9   please take up Resolution 794, by Senator Serino, 10  read its title only, and recognize Senator 11  Serino.

12          ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    The
13  Secretary will read.

14          THE SECRETARY:    Senate Resolution
15  794, by Senator Serino, memorializing Governor
16  Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim May 2019 as Lyme 17  Disease Awareness Month in the State of New York.

19  Serino on the resolution.

20          SENATOR SERINO:    Thank you,
21  Madam President.

22          May is Lyme Disease Awareness Month, 23  and I would just like to take a moment to 24  recognize a couple that I call true champions in 25  the fight on Lyme: Jill and Ira Auerbach. Many

1 of you might recognize them, because they've been 2 traveling the state to spread the message, talk 3 about education as the key to prevention. And 4 they've been so helpful with helping with 5 legislation. So thank you from the bottom of my 6 heart. Thank you.

7               Since taking office, I have been 8 honored to have the opportunity to stand and 9 raise awareness for a problem that has been 10 plaguing our state for far too long. New York
11 has been considered the epicenter for the Lyme 12 and tick-borne disease epidemic that is sweeping
13 the Northeast. Over 400,000 new cases of Lyme 14 disease are diagnosed each year, and 25 percent 15 of those cases are reported right here in 16 New York State.

17              It's important to note that the 18 statistic is based on reported cases of Lyme.
19 And even our state's health commissioner has 20 testified to the fact that we know countless 21 cases actually go unreported.

22              Last year I noted when I rose that I
23 was doing so with a greater sense of urgency, 24 given a report that had just been released by the 25 CDC which found that the rates of illness caused

1 by ticks, fleas and mosquitoes has tripled since 2 the early 2000s. That's a scary thought. That 3 report went on to note that the U.S. is wholly 4 unprepared to contain the spread.

5 At the time, we were optimistic that 6 New York was moving in the right direction,
7 directing critical resources and unprecedented
8 funding toward this issue and passing legislation
9 to protect New Yorkers and raise critical 10 awareness.

11 Today, if it's possible, I rise with 12 an even greater sense of urgency. New York faces 13 a critical tipping point, and inaction at the 14 state level threatens to take us backwards at a 15 time when the risk is clearly on the rise. And I
16 and thousands of New Yorkers who suffer from Lyme 17 and tick-borne diseases were very disappointed 18 that the money that we fought for the past few 19 years that was put in the budget was eliminated 20 this year.

21 I urge my colleagues to take up this 22 fight. You know, there's been a lot of talk 23 right now that there's state funding still 24 available. So today my colleagues and I sent a 25 letter to the Governor urging him to make Lyme

1 disease a priority should funding become 2 available, and I hope my colleagues sign on.

3           What was long considered a downstate
4 problem is now a major statewide issue. And 5 every one of us in this chamber has a duty to our 6 constituents to ensure that it remains a top
7 priority. There are many issues we come across 8 that transcend politics, and combating Lyme and 9 tick-borne diseases is absolutely one of them.

10           Today, in honor of Lyme Disease
11 Awareness Month, I'm urging my colleagues on both 12 sides of the aisle to hear the voices of our 13 constituents who are suffering and to ensure that 14 tackling ticks remains a priority, not only 15 during the month of May but every day.

16           Thank you.

17           ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you.

18           Senator Helming on the resolution.

19           SENATOR HELMING: Thank you, Madam
20 President.

21           And I just want to comment that it's 22 so good to see a woman serving as President
23 Pro Tem today on the day that we recognize women.
24 Welcome.

25           I reside today to commemorate Lyme

1 Disease Awareness Month. I want to thank the 2 sponsor of this resolution, Senator Sue Serino, 3 who has truly been the legislative leader on this 4 issue for a number of years now.

5 New York State continues to be a
6 hotbed for Lyme and tick-borne diseases. The CDC 7 reports our state has the third-highest number of 8 confirmed diseases. In 2017, New York State had 9 more than 8,700 cases reported.

10 In 2018, the Senate passed a budget
11 that provided historic funding to address this 12 public health threat. This funding continues to 13 be leveraged today to support research, increase 14 public awareness through our local public health 15 departments, and increase tick collection sites 16 through the State Department of Health. In the 17 past we've also enacted measures aimed at 18 preventing and treating these illnesses.

19 Sadly, the budget that we passed 20 this year in 2019 includes no new funding to 21 continue this important work.

22 At the local level I've had the 23 opportunity to host roundtables on this issue and 24 to attend support group meetings. The stories I 25 hear I find, as a human being, are just

1     heartbreaking and tragic. As a state legislator, 2     these stories I find to be just so incredibly 3     frustrating.

4                 I want to talk for a moment about 5     Liv Keller, a recent high school graduate. Two 6     years ago I recognized her as a New York State 7     Senate Youth Leader. At that time she was an 8     outstanding student athlete, someone who was 9     committed to helping her community in a number of 10    ways. Liv was on her way to college, and she had 11    plans to go on to medical school. That was all 12    put on hold when suddenly she became deathly ill
13    with Lyme disease.

14                Liv has suffered horribly for an 15    extended time. And if it wasn't for the tenacity 16    of her mother and her constant digging and 17    pushing for answers, I'm not sure what Liv's 18    status would be today.

19                Liv shared with me something that 20    I'd like to share with this body today. She 21    says: "Nobody asks for illness. Nobody wants to 22    spend their lives trying to seek validation, 23    answers and proper treatment from the medical 24    community for unexplained illness." When 25    symptoms as bizarre as Lyme disease and other

1 tick-borne illness cannot be explained because a 2 test fails to accurately paint a picture of what 3 is going on in the human body, medicine fails us.

4           Due to the strongly intertwined
5 relationship that exists between medicine, Big 6 Pharma and politics, creating a wave of change of 7 any kind can seem daunting and impossible. But 8 Lyme disease is real and can affect anyone, 9 regardless of race, gender, religion or social 10 status. This is an issue bigger than all of us.
11 It will continue to plague our society if more 12 funding for prevention, treatment and coverage, 13 and education isn't found.

14           So to my colleagues here today, I 15 offer this. Lyme and tick-borne diseases are 16 impacting thousands of New Yorkers. We must make 17 it a priority to work together to pass 18 legislation and to provide funding to guide the 19 development of strategies to address this 20 ever-increasing risk.

21           I respectfully urge members of this 22 body, especially those in the Majority, to 23 restore funding and to show those suffering from 24 Lyme and tick-borne diseases, people like Liv, 25 that we care about putting an end to this

1     horrible illness and that we won't allow politics
2     to stand in the way.

3                     Thank you, Madam President.

4                     ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    Thank you.

5                     Senator Metzger on the resolution.

6                     SENATOR METZGER:    Thank you,
7     Madam President.

8                     I would like to commemorate Lyme 9     Disease Awareness Month, as someone who has had 10    Lyme disease five times.  And I consider myself
11    lucky because I got -- in four of the five cases, 12    got that telltale bull's-eye early and was able 13    to catch it before I got too sick.  The one time
14    I didn't get it, I ended up in the emergency 15    room.  I know in the Hudson Valley, and now as 16    our previous speakers have said, it's everywhere.
17    It used -- but it's a fact of life in rural 18    communities.  And it is a public health crisis 19    that we have to address at every level -- state 20    regional, local.

21                    As chair of the Agriculture
22    Committee, I am acutely aware of how this disease 23    is affecting farmers and farmworkers, who are 24    particularly vulnerable to it.  So I know my 25    colleagues share my concern for this issue, and

1 we will be working together on legislation and 2 also to identify the resources to put to this 3 public health crisis.

4 Thank you very much.

5 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you.

6 The question is on the resolution.

7 All in favor signify by saying aye.

9 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Opposed?

15 the Senate. We extend to you the privileges and 16 courtesies of the house. Please rise and be

7                   (The Secretary called the roll.)

9   Gaughran to explain his vote.

10                  SENATOR GAUGHRAN:    Thank you,
11   Madam President.

12                  Over the next few years this state 13   will be paying billions of dollars to assist 14   public local water entities and municipalities 15   all over this state to deal with pollution in the 16   water supply -- pollutants that are already there 17   and recognized by the State of New York as 18   contaminated, others that are emerging that the 19   state will soon impose new regulations on.

20                  This bill is very simple.  It pushes 21   the burden, as much as it can, onto the polluters 22   and away from the taxpayers.  It has been 23   estimated that just to meet the new emerging 24   contaminants with these new regulations, and just 25   on Long Island, public water entities are going

1 to have to pay over $840 million to deal with 2 this burden.

3 So I thank the leadership for 4 allowing this bill to move forward and my 5 colleagues for supporting it, because this is 6 really vital to protect the taxpayers of this 7 entire state. And I vote in the affirmative.

9 Gaughran in the affirmative.

11 THE SECRETARY: Ayes, 61.

12 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The bill
13 is passed.

16 act to amend the Retirement and Social Security 17 Law.

19 last section.

21 act shall take effect immediately.

23 roll.

5                   ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    Call the 6   roll.

8                   ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    Senator
9   Rivera to explain his vote.

10                  SENATOR RIVERA:    Thank you,
11   Madam President.

12                  I want to thank both Senator
13   Sepúlveda for putting this on the agenda, as well 14   as my leader for moving it to the floor.

15                  Now, this is an expansion of a 16   charitable bail organization bill that I passed 17   all the way back in 2012.  I'm very proud of this 18   piece of legislation.  It made possible the 19   existence of charitable bail organizations like 20   the Bronx Freedom Fund that exists in the Bronx 21   and was actually the first one that existed in 22   the state.

23                  It allows for organizations, 24   nonprofit organizations to post bail on behalf of 25   indigent individuals.  Now, we have done much as

1 it relates to bail this year, but this would 2 actually expand the charitable bail bill to make 3 sure that for those individuals that are not 4 covered by some of the changes that we achieved 5 during the budget, they actually get to be 6 considered.

7 Now again, just to talk just for a
8 second about what the Bronx Freedom Fund has been 9 able to achieve. In the three years it has been 10 in effect, the bill, 96 percent of the Bronx 11 Freedom Fund's clients have returned for every 12 single court date. And remember, again, what 13 bail is. It's not supposed to be punishment, it 14 is supposed to be a way to make sure that you 15 come back to court.

16 So 96 percent of the people that the 17 Bronx Freedom Fund have posted on behalf of have 18 had their day in court and have been able to go 19 back home so they do not lose access to jobs or 20 housing or custody of their children. And 55
21 percent of those for whom the Bronx Freedom Fund
22 has posted bail have actually had their cases 23 dismissed of all charges.

24 So this works. I am glad that we're 25 able to expand it today, Madam President, and I

1 will be voting in the affirmative.

2 Thank you.

3 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
4 Rivera to be recorded in the affirmative.

5 Senator Sepúlveda to explain his
6 vote.

7 SENATOR SEPÚLVEDA: Thank you,
8 Madam President, for allowing me to explain my 9 vote.

10 First I want to thank Senator
11 Rivera, Majority Leader Stewart-Cousins, and my 12 colleagues. I am so proud to be a cosponsor of 13 this bill.

14 The bill will amend the Insurance
15 Law to enable charitable bail organizations to 16 provide more effective assistance to indigent
17 persons. It would reduce the certification fee
18 required for nonprofit organizations from $1,000 19 to $500, to raise the monetary amount that such 20 organizations may provide in bail assistance, and 21 remove the geographic restrictions that an 22 organization may only bail in one county.

23 The system is already unfair, the 24 cash bail system is already unfair to poor 25 defendants. Bail greatly influences case

1 outcomes, especially for poor people. People who 2 are released pretrial are more likely to be 3 acquitted than those who are not. They are less 4 likely to take plea deals as a way to get out of 5 jail.

6 Millions of Americans are 7 incarcerated while awaiting trial, sometimes for 8 very lengthy, unjustified periods, including 9 45,000 people in New York City alone. They are 10 in jail simply because they don't have the funds 11 to post bail.

12 Charitable organizations can help 13 assist with cash bail and help keep people out of 14 jail. Your stay in prison should not be 15 dependent on the amount of money that you have, 16 or your parents, or the zip code that you come 17 from.

18 As a result of pretrial
19 incarceration, individuals may lose their 20 employment and housing, and this bill seeks to 21 alleviate those possible consequences by enabling 22 more nonprofit organizations to establish bail 23 funds in the state and to provide assistance to 24 individuals in need.

25 I vote affirmatively. Thank you.

1                   ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    Senator
2   Sepúlveda will be recorded in the affirmative.

3                   Senator Bailey to explain his vote.

4                   SENATOR BAILEY:    Thank you,
5   Madam President.

6                   I would echo the same sentiments of 7   Senator Sepúlveda.

8                   And Senator Rivera, thank you for 9   not only introducing this bill but being a 10   champion of it here and also back in our home
11   borough of the Bronx.  We appreciate the work 12   that you've been doing.

13                   To Leader Stewart-Cousins, thank you 14   for allowing this to get to the floor.

15                   The statistics that were shared by 16   Senator Sepúlveda, I will not belabor the point, 17   but I will simply state that this is another 18   great step that we need to take in our state.
19   Wealth-based detention is abhorrent, and people 20   should not be in jail based upon their inability 21   to pay to get out of jail.  This simply allows 22   more organizations to be able to do more for more 23   people.

24                   And if we are in the business of 25   helping people, we should be supporting pieces of 1       legislation just like this.

2                       I vote in the affirmative,

3       Madam President. Thank you.

4                       ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:     Senator

5       Bailey will be recorded in the affirmative.

6                       Announce the results.

7                       THE SECRETARY:     In relation to 8       Calendar Number 460, those Senators voting in the 9       negative are Senators Akshar, Amedore, Antonacci, 10      Flanagan, Gallivan, Griffio, Helming, Jacobs, 11      Jordan, Lanza, LaValle, Little, Martinez, O'Mara, 12      Ortt, Ranzenhofer, Ritchie, Robach, Serino, 13      Seward and Tedisco.

21      last section.

17   Gallivan, Helming, Jacobs, Jordan, O'Mara, Ortt, 18   Ranzenhofer, Serino and Seward.

19                   Ayes, 50.   Nays, 11.

20                   ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:   The bill
21   is passed.

22                   Senator Gianaris, that completes the 23   reading of today's calendar.

25   take up the reading of the controversial

1 calendar.

3 Secretary will ring the bell.

4 The Secretary will read.

5 THE SECRETARY: Calendar Number 57, 6 Senate Print 221A, by Senator Benjamin, an act to 7 amend the Judiciary Law.

8 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
9 Griffo, why do you rise?

10 SENATOR GRIFFO: Madam President, I
11 believe there is an amendment before the desk. I 12 would waive the reading of that amendment and ask 13 that Senator Akshar be heard on that.

14 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you,
15 Senator Griffo.

16 Upon review of the amendment, in 17 accordance with Rule 6, Section 4B, I rule it 18 nongermane and out of order at this time.

19 SENATOR GRIFFO: Accordingly,
20 Madam President, I would appeal that ruling and 21 ask that you recognize Senator Akshar to be heard 22 on the appeal.

23 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The appeal
24 has been made and recognized, and Senator Akshar 25 may be heard.

1                   SENATOR AKSHAR:     Madam President,
2     thank you very much.  At the end of the day, I
3     know we'll probably disagree, but nonetheless I 4     appreciate your indulgence.

5                   I believe that this amendment is in 6     fact germane to the bill-in-chief because this 7     amendment, along with the bill-in-chief, deals 8     directly with the court system.

9                   By classifying all offenses against 10    law enforcement officers, firefighters,
11    correction officers, and EMT personnel as hate 12    crimes when specifically targeted, the amendment 13    would provide enhanced protections at a time when 14    we have seen an increase in violence against 15    these individuals simply because of the uniform 16    that they're wearing.

17                  The current law correctly provides 18    additional penalties for individuals who target 19    another solely based on their race, their color, 20    their national origin, their ancestry, their 21    gender, their religion, age, disability and 22    sexual orientation.

23                  I believe that these additional 24    penalties should be applied to law enforcement 25    members, firefighters, corrections officers and

1 EMTs who are specifically targeted simply for 2 doing their job.

3 And quite frankly, Madam President,
4 I can think of no better day to pass this 5 legislation than on the day when we have the 6 Police Officers Remembrance Memorial that many of 7 us were at.

8 For everyone in this room who says
9 they support our first responders, now is the 10 time to walk the walk and simply not just talk 11 the talk. I urge all of my colleagues to vote 12 yes for this amendment.

13 Thank you, Madam President.

14 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you,
15 Senator.

16 I want to remind the house that the 17 vote is on the procedures of the house and the 18 ruling of the chair. Those in favor of 19 overruling the chair signify by saying aye.

20 (Response of "Aye.")

21 SENATOR GRIFFO: Request a show of 22 hands.

23 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: A show of 24 hands has been requested and so ordered.

25 (Show of hands.)

1 THE SECRETARY: Ayes, 21.

2 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The ruling
3 of the chair stands, and the bill-in-chief is 4 before the house.

5 Are there any other Senators wishing 6 to be heard?

7 Seeing and hearing none, debate is 8 closed.

9 The Secretary will ring the bell.

10 Senator Gianaris.

11 SENATOR GIANARIS: Madam President,
12 without objection, can we restore this bill to 13 the noncontroversial calendar.

14 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Without 15 objection, so ordered.

16 Read the last section.

17 THE SECRETARY: Section 2. This
18 act shall take effect immediately.

20 roll.

22 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
23 Gallivan to explain his vote.

24 SENATOR GALLIVAN: Thank you,
25 Madam President.

1                   Earlier today, as Senator Akshar
2 mentioned, we honored 63 members -- 63 police
3 officers who died in the line of duty whose names
4 were added to the New York Police Officers
5 Memorial. And it was a wonderful ceremony. Many 6 of our colleagues in the room attended. Senator 7 Brooks represented the Majority Leader and the 8 Senate and did an outstanding job in speaking to 9 the families and honoring those that made the 10 ultimate sacrifice on behalf of all our 11 communities across this state.

12                   When you add these names to the 13 memorial, the number now totals 1567 names of 14 police officers who have been killed in the line
15 of duty across the State of New York protecting 16 all of us and protecting all of our communities.

17                   There's four names I want to mention
18 that are on there: Joseph Piagentini, Waverly 19 Jones, Edward O'Grady, and Waverly Brown. They 20 are Herman Bell and Judith Clark's victims.

21                   Today it's my belief we're going in 22 the wrong direction. We are, several hours 23 earlier, honoring those who are protecting all of 24 us, and today we're giving rights to their 25 killers. I vote no.

1                   ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    Senator
2   Gallivan will be recorded in the negative.

3                   Senator Akshar to explain his vote.

4                   SENATOR AKSHAR:    Madam President, I
5   wholeheartedly agree with Senator Gallivan.  We 6   are going in the wrong direction.

7                   And today, quite frankly, is another
8   sad day for the people of this great state.

9                   The scales of justice should always 10   be balanced.  And what we are seeing today is the 11   exact opposite, by the policies that we are 12   seeing come from across the aisle.  In fact, I 13   would respectfully offer that the policies that 14   we're putting forth have our fingers on the 15   scales of justice -- for criminals, not 16   law-abiding citizens.  And it's doing nothing but 17   deluding the current criminal justice system.

18                   I am truly beginning to wonder, as I 19   sit in this body, if we are working for the 20   taxpayer, if we are working for the law-abiding 21   citizens, or if we're working for those who are 22   incarcerated and those who violate law-abiding 23   citizens.

24                   Today, the Police Memorial 25   Remembrance Ceremony, it was a somber reminder

1     that there are men and women who have in fact 2     laid their lives down for their communities:
3     1,567 names, 1,567 people who have been killed
4     protecting the people of this great state.

5             And on this very day when we 6     remember them, what does this body do? I'll tell 7     you what some of you did. You rejected the 8     amendment and you doubled down on your support 9     for criminals. We rejected an amendment that 10    would have really showed our first responders
11    that we have their back. It would have really 12    showed the first responders that we appreciate 13    them, that we stand up for them, and that we, 14    this very body, ensure that they are protected.
15    But no, the Majority couldn't be bothered.

16            Today I'm proudly standing with my 17    brothers and sisters in blue and am voting no on 18    this bill.

19            Thank you, Madam President.

20            ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    Senator
21    Akshar to be recorded in the negative.

22            Senator Sepúlveda to explain his
23    vote.

24            SENATOR SEPÚLVEDA:    Thank you,
25    Madam President, for allowing me to explain my

1 vote.

2 I want to thank Senator Benjamin,
3 our leader, and my colleagues.

4 I'm also very proud to cosponsor
5 this legislation. This legislation relates to 6 removing the lifetime ban on jury duty for 7 convicted felons who have completed their 8 sentencing. Most states already allow convicted 9 felons who have finished their sentence to 10 participate in jury duty.

11 If a person has completed their 12 sentence, that person should be considered 13 rehabilitated and given an opportunity to have 14 their full rights of citizenship restored, 15 including their rights to serve on a jury. When 16 we start to take away those rights, we impair our 17 democratic principles.

18 Today an estimated 19.8 million 19 people, which is roughly about 9 percent of the 20 U.S. population, currently live with a felony
21 conviction record. That is 19.8 million 22 Americans who cannot serve on juries and take 23 part in our justice system.

24 A study was conducted in the State
25 of Maine, which is the U.S. jurisdiction that

1 does not restrict a convicted felon's opportunity 2 to serve as a juror, and it revealed that 3 convicted felons displayed a dedicated view to 4 serve on juries, stressing a commitment to serve
5 conscientiously. Inclusion in the jury process 6 facilitated pro-social identity shifts by 7 mitigating the felon label, and helped former 8 offenders find personal value. The study also 9 demonstrates that serving on a jury can help 10 reintegrate them into society by helping build 11 their self-confidence and view themselves as 12 equal to other citizens, findings that suggest 13 that felon-jurors thoughtfully engage in jury 14 deliberations and their presence may lead to more 15 just jury outcomes.

16 We should be encouraging everything
17 as policy that would help them become productive 18 members of society and reintegrate themselves in 19 our country.

20 Thank you.

21 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
22 Sepúlveda to be recorded in the affirmative.

23 Senator Bailey to explain his vote.

24 SENATOR BAILEY: Thank you,
25 Madam President.

1           I wasn't going to speak on this one,
2   but I first want to say I appreciate the service
3   of Senator Gallivan and Senator Akshar as members 4   of law enforcement.

5           But in reading this bill, felons
6   being able to serve on juries doesn't -- I don't 7   see the direct connection with not respecting 8   police or not being in appreciation of our men 9   and women in blue or doing something that is an 10  affront to them. I don't see that correlation.

11          What I see is that if you look in 12  the Penal Code, that felons are not just violent, 13  they're not just murderers, they are people who 14  are convicted of nonviolent things. Imagine 15  that, nonviolent felons. So if a nonviolent 16  felon who has been convicted and served their 17  time cannot reenter and not serve on a jury -- I 18  just don't see the opposition to something that 19  simple.

20          Again, these are rights about people 21  who have gone through the process. And the 22  assumption is that after you've gone through the 23  process, you have been rehabilitated, or to the 24  best of the ability that the system currently 25  allows.

1                   But when people go through that 2                   system, they should be allowed to reenter
3                   society. And we talk about being a society of 4                   second chances, but I guess second chances depend 5                   on certain zip codes to some folks, I don't know.

6                   Second chances matter. Allowing 7                   people to participate in a jury pool -- which 8                   again, if you speak to a layperson, people are 9                   calling up the county clerk's offices trying to 10                  get out of jury duty. Why shouldn't we allow 11                  people the opportunity to serve? That's a 12                  question I would posit rhetorically to any of my 13                  colleagues, regardless of side of the aisle.

14                  Madam President, I vote aye.
15                  Senator Benjamin, thank you for advancing this 16                  legislation.

17                  ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    Senator
18                  Bailey to be recorded in the affirmative.

19                  Senator Parker to explain his vote.

20                  SENATOR PARKER:    Thank you, Madam
21                  President, to explain my vote.

22                  First let me begin by thanking 23                  Senator Benjamin for putting forward this 24                  important legislation. I agree with Senator 25                  Bailey when he says that America is a place of

1 second chances, and certainly the State of 2 New York ought to be a place of second chances.

3 We should not be throwing people
4 away. People make mistakes. Some people make 5 grievous mistakes and shouldn't be returned to 6 society. But that's not our decision; that's the 7 decision of our criminal justice system. That's 8 the decision of judges and juries. And when they 9 make those decisions, then in fact we should 10 abide by those decisions.

11 When in fact people are given
12 sentences and then allowed to return to society, 13 then we should integrate those people back into 14 society. Right? And we have parole boards, 15 right, that make determinations about that. And 16 so here, once we've allowed somebody to return 17 into society, we should allow them to recoup 18 their rights. And certainly this is a basic 19 right. It will increase our jury pools and will 20 certainly do much to make sure that people are 21 not returning to prison because they'll feel more 22 responsible to their communities.

23 And certainly we certainly 24 understand that this kind of false dichotomy
25 between reintegrating people who have served

1 their time to society and have been released
2 through the proper channels to society, returning 3 their rights is -- has no opposition to 4 supporting our first responders or law
5 enforcement.

6           The reality is that we respect our 7 law enforcement, we need them to protect our 8 communities. And once they've done their job -- 9 and we commend them on the job they've done -- 10 and we've prosecuted people, to then allow those 11 people, once they've paid their debt to society, 12 to be returned to rights is no conflict.

13           I vote aye on this bill and am 14 looking forward to more work that we can do to 15 help, you know, reinvest people in our 16 communities and make this state the kind of state 17 that we'd be proud to live in.

18           ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you.
19 Senator Parker to be recorded in the affirmative.

20           Senator Myrie to explain his vote.

21           SENATOR MYRIE: Thank you,
22 Madam President.

23           I'd like to thank the sponsor of the 24 bill, Senator Benjamin, my colleague.

25           I, like Senator Bailey, did not plan

1 to speak on this bill, but I think it is 2 important to address what is being discussed in 3 this chamber. Consider the choice that our 4 friends on the other side of the aisle are asking
5 us to make: Either you support law enforcement
6 or you support the rights of individuals. You 7 cannot do both at the same time.

8 That is a discussion that is being 9 put forth in this chamber, and it is a dangerous 10 one. Because this is not the first time that we 11 will be expanding the rights and it is not the 12 last time that we will be expanding the rights of 13 those that are entitled to it.

14 We support our first responders. We 15 live with our first responders. Our first 16 responders live amongst us. We interact with 17 them on a daily basis, so we have a profound 18 respect for the work that they do.

19 But we also have a profound 20 respect for the rights that individuals are 21 entitled to. And the rehabilitation and 22 reintegration of those who have made mistakes in 23 their lives is paramount to public safety -- 24 public safety that my friends claim to want to 25 uphold.

1                   So I proudly vote in the affirmative
2                   for this bill today, because the integration of 3                   those who have made mistakes is critical to the 4                   success of our communities, and we can do that 5                   while supporting our first responders at the same 6                   time.

7                   Thank you, Madam President.

8                   ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    Senator
9                   Myrie to be recorded in the affirmative.

10                  Senator Jackson to explain his vote.

11                  SENATOR JACKSON:    Thank you, 12                  Madam President and my colleagues.  I rise to 13                  support our colleague Senator Benjamin and this 14                  bill.

15                  I've served on many juries.  And as 16                  you know, when you enter the pool, attorneys have 17                  the right to question you to determine whether or 18                  not, in their opinion, you're fit to serve or 19                  whether they want to challenge you as a juror in 20                  order to try to excuse you.  That's part of the 21                  law.  That's part of the process.

22                  And I agree with my colleague
23                  Senator Myrie.  This is not about law enforcement 24                  versus people's rights.  People have rights, and 25                  we expect them to, you know, to abide by those

1 rights. And we expect law enforcement to respect 2 that, just like we respect them.

3 I served in the City Council. I
4 have received cufflinks from the commissioner of 5 the Police Department and the commissioner of the 6 Fire Department, and I wear them sometimes one
7 blue and one red, for NYPD and FDNY. And why do 8 I wear them? Because when we as citizens, we 9 have an emergency, we dial 911.

10 And I say to all of you, this is not 11 one versus the other. This is about respecting 12 the men and women in blue and all of the first 13 responders and also giving people what their 14 rights are after they've served their time in 15 prison and they're coming back to their 16 communities to live their lives. And that's what 17 this is about.

18 So Senator, thank you for putting 19 forward the bill, and I vote yes on this bill.

20 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
21 Jackson to be recorded in the affirmative.

22 Senator Hoylman to explain his vote.

23 SENATOR HOYLMAN: Thank you,
24 Madam President.

25 I wanted to thank Senator Benjamin

1 for this legislation, which I was happy to move
2 through the Judiciary Committee.

3           You know, I am overwhelmed by the 4 amount of sanctimony coming from our friends
5 across the aisle. And the notion that somehow 6 our conference is doing the bidding of criminals, 7 as it was said, is absolutely ludicrous. It's 8 ludicrous, Madam President, because for the last 9 decade -- for the last decade, our friends across 10 the aisle blocked the Child Victims Act. For the 11 last decade, our friends across the aisle took 12 every step, procedural and otherwise, to make 13 certain that the survivors of child sexual abuse, 14 the victims of the most heinous crimes in our 15 society, were not afforded justice in the State
16 of New York.

17           I am appalled that there would be a 18 suggestion that somehow you now have the moral 19 high ground when it comes to victims' rights.

20           Madam President, I vote aye.

21           ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    Senator
22 Hoylman to be recorded in the affirmative.

23           Senator Savino to explain her vote.

24           SENATOR SAVINO:    Thank you,
25 Madam President.

1           I also was not going to speak on the 2 bill, but I think it's important that we do set 3 that record straight.

4           You know, as they say, it's okay to 5 disagree without being disagreeable. And I don't 6 think that we should equate these issues to 7 suggest for one minute that the restoration of 8 the ability to serve on a jury -- and let's think 9 about this. More and more of us fight every day 10 to get out of jury duty, Senators, you know, and 11 felons alike. Nobody wants to serve on jury 12 duty.

13           I think Senator Jackson mentioned 14 how attorneys on both sides of this issue will 15 probably vigorously object to anyone who had a 16 felony conviction who had their rights restored 17 to be able to serve on jury duty from even 18 serving on that jury. So in some respects maybe 19 none of these people will ever serve on a jury.
20 And I would guarantee you they don't want to, 21 anymore than the rest of us do.

22           But convicted felons, after they've 23 served their time and they've met their 24 sentencing requirements, are entitled to request 25 the restoration of a whole lot of rights --

1 voting rights, if they've had a license revoked,
2 they can apply for that. There's a lot of things
3 you get the right to have restored to you if you 4 have served your time and paid your price to 5 society.

6 So why not let them sit on jury duty
7 too? None of the rest of us want to do it.

8 But I will say I'm not going to 9 allow you to get away with saying that we don't 10 care about men and women in law enforcement. I'm 11 just not going to let you do that. In fact, I 12 voted for your bill when it was on the floor in 13 this house when it passed. I voted for it 14 yesterday in the Judiciary Committee. I was 15 criticized then, and I'm going to get criticized 16 today for not voting for a hostile amendment.

17 But to suggest that if we think it's 18 okay for people who don't want to serve on jury 19 duty to be able to have that right restored to 20 them, somehow that means we don't care about men 21 and women who are serving in uniform? I'm not 22 going to let you do that. Because you know
23 that's not true. You know that's not true. You 24 know that's not true. You all know that's not 25 true.

1                   Vote against the bill because you
2           don't think felons should have the wisdom or the 3           ability to sit and judge people or judge a jury.
4           I accept that. But don't vote against the bill
5           because somehow or other you think we're opposed 6           to law enforcement and we're empowering 7           criminals.

8                   I vote in favor of the bill,
9           Madam President.

10                   ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you.
11           Senator Savino to be recorded in the affirmative.

12                   Senator May to explain her vote.

13                   SENATOR MAY: Thank you,
14           Madam President.

15                   And thank you, Senator Benjamin, for 16           this bill.

17                   I would like to invite my colleagues 18           across the aisle to join me on a walk with 19           OG's Against Gun Violence, which is an incredible 20           group in Syracuse started by a true hero, 21           Cliff Ryan, who served time and doesn't want 22           anyone else to serve time. And so he walks to 23           the most dangerous spots in town, the places 24           where violence is most likely to break out, and 25           he intervenes and he stops young people from 1 getting involved in gun violence.

2 He has stepped in between people who 3 were about to shoot each other, and he has been 4 injured numerous times. He now trains a lot of 5 other former felons to do the same thing, to walk
6 around and talk to young people and teach them 7 about right and wrong, about the consequences of 8 their actions, and to keep them from harm.

9 It is incredibly beautiful and 10 powerful to watch him at work and go out with him
11 and walk the streets. I would trust no one more 12 than Cliff Ryan to sit on a jury and make wise 13 decisions about right and wrong, as I said, and 14 about what the consequences should be of our 15 actions.

16 I really do believe that this bill 17 honors life experience that we should honor and 18 we should respect, people who have served their 19 time and been rehabilitated and want to serve 20 society again.

21 So I proudly vote in favor of this 22 bill. Thank you.

23 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
24 May to be recorded in the affirmative.

25 Senator Amedore to explain his vote.

1                   SENATOR AMEDORE:    Thank you,
2   Madam President.

3                   I think we're getting lost in the 4   narrative in the -- we're starting to get into 5   the partisan politics here.  Let's think about 6   what we're talking about with this bill.

7                   We're talking about individuals who 8   are convicted felons, who made mistakes, whether 9   it was violent or nonviolent.  They went to jail, 10  they paid their price.  Now we're talking about 11  having them reenter back into society as 12  law-abiding citizens, hopefully, because they 13  paid the price, because maybe they learned and 14  they asked for forgiveness and they got 15  rehabilitated.  But they're still labeled as a 16  felon and they still do not have the rights 17  because they are labeled "felon."

18                  So this bill singles out one 19  specific right or the ability for a felon to 20  basically enjoy their freedoms and liberties or 21  their rights as a citizen of this country, the 22  right to -- because it removes the lifetime ban 23  on jury duty.

24                  The sponsor of this bill or the 25  Majority is not, is not removing all the other

1 lifetime bans that a felon has to live with when 2 he or she is convicted a felon.

3 Where is there the restoration of 4 the right to go and get your job back and trade
5 on the security market if you're a convicted
6 felon? Where is there the right to your Second 7 Amendment, that you can get your guns or your 8 firearms back? Or driver's license back? Or 9 specific rights and liberties that they lost 10 because they are a felon?

11 This bill doesn't do that. This 12 bill allows a felon to sit on jury duty. That's 13 it. I don't think if we're going to restore the 14 rights of men and women who paid the price and 15 went through the harsh incarceration, comes back 16 into society, I think then we should be 17 discussing how are we going to bring them back 18 into society as a whole American citizen and not 19 just a felon that has a right just to do one 20 special duty, to sit on a jury.

21 And that's why, Madam President, I 22 vote no.

23 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
24 Amedore to be recorded in the negative.

25 Senator Krueger to explain her vote.

1                   SENATOR KRUEGER:    Thank you,
2   Madam President.

3                   So I suggest Senator Amedore submit 4   a bill removing all these lifetime bans that he 5   thinks felons have to live under in New York 6   State. I actually can't find too many when I was 7   just doing a Google search, certainly not ones
8   that you can't petition a court to get resolved 9   for yourself.

10                  But it is clear, from listening to 11   my colleagues on both sides of the aisle, that 12   this is not really an argument about what it's 13   about. So thank you, Senator Savino, for 14   pointing out that no party gets to declare the 15   other party doesn't care about law enforcement or 16   first responders. That is insulting and absurd, 17   and everyone knows that.

18                  But also thank you to Senator
19   Benjamin for putting this bill on the floor 20   today.

21                  Many people commit felonies. The 22   vast majority do their time and don't recommit 23   and don't go back to jail. And the best way to 24   make sure that people don't become recidivist
25   criminals is to ensure that when they complete

1 doing their time and they have shown an ability
2 for rehabilitation, that you welcome them back 3 into a society, that you support their ability to 4 return to their families, to get jobs, to pay 5 taxes, to be a full member of our society.

6 And that means, in the United States
7 of America, the right to sit on a jury of your 8 peers.

9 And guess what? If 7 or 8 percent
10 of the population ends up with felony 11 convictions, then a jury of your peers would 12 probably need to reflect 7 or 8 percent of the 13 members of juries having been through that 14 experience themselves. Because I'm not sure what 15 can teach you better the path you ought to be 16 taking versus not taking than having to go 17 through the experience of going to jail yourself.

18 So the research shows that people 19 who committed felonies and were allowed to be 20 jurors actually proved to be exceptionally good 21 jurors. As we are hearing from colleagues today, 22 there are too many people who don't want to serve 23 on juries, avoid it at all costs. And the fact 24 that you'll have some subuniverse of people with 25 felonies who don't feel the exact same way and

1 want to do their duty as a citizen of this 2 country to participate in juries -- I applaud 3 them.

4                   And I see no reason why anyone would 5 want to stand in the way of making sure that we 6 do treat people who have done their time with the 7 full respect and belief that they can be moved 8 forward as our colleagues, our neighbors, our 9 family members, and our jury partners.

10                   Thank you. I vote yes,
11 Madam President.

12                   ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
13 Krueger to be recorded in the affirmative.

14                   Senator Lanza to explain his vote.

15                   SENATOR LANZA: Thank you,
16 Madam President.

17                   You know what? I agree with a lot 18 of what has been said on both sides of the aisle, 19 and I disagree with some things that have been 20 said by each.

21                   I agree, for example, with 22 Senator Parker that we ought not throw human 23 beings away. I was raised to believe that one of 24 the best things we can do, as brothers and 25 sisters, is to forgive each other. It's 1 important.

2 I agree with Senator Amedore that if 3 we're going to do that, though, that we've got to 4 exercise good judgment. Why is it that a lawyer 5 who commits a felony can never practice his or 6 her trade again? Maybe that is something we 7 ought to look at when we do this.

8 I was going to support this; I'm not 9 at this time. I think we ought to -- Senator
10 Benjamin is a person that always does the right 11 thing, in my experience with him. The fact that 12 it is he who is the author of this goes a long 13 way for me in believing that it is a something -- 14 a step in the right direction.

15 But I heard this -- the door opened 16 about this side not caring about kids because of 17 the Child Victims Act. You know, the truth of 18 the matter is for years that bill only cared 19 about you as a victim if the perpetrator was part 20 of a religious organization. And that's the 21 truth.

22 I know the communications person
23 again is going to say, well, that's not true, our 24 bill included everyone. Well, it didn't, because 25 it was changed only a week before we passed it

1 here. And if you believe that the statute of 2 limitations is something that prevents justice 3 from occurring, then you ought to get rid of the 4 statute of limitations for everything if that's 5 the reason why people can't obtain justice.

6 But we have this all-or-nothing
7 approach here in Albany: My bill or the highway.
8 I think there's plenty of room here on an issue
9 like this where we can look at felony 10 classifications and say, hey, yeah, there's 11 something that someone did that really doesn't 12 bear on their judgment, really, in terms of once 13 they've paid their due and now they're back in 14 the community.

15 But, you know, I listened to Senator
16 Hoylman and he made me think of the fact that, 17 for instance, you know, a man who rapes a little 18 boy is probably a person we should never have 19 serve on a jury, ever. I can forgive, but I 20 can't forget when it comes to certain things like 21 that.

22 So maybe we ought to get past this 23 all-or-nothing approach and really sit down and 24 talk and say, hey, we're with you 80 percent, 25 90 percent on this bill, but would you at least

1 consider some of the concerns we have, and maybe
2 we'd have more bipartisan support for legislation 3 here in Albany, which I think would be a good 4 thing.

5                   Madam President, sadly, I vote in 6 the negative.

7                   ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:    Senator
8 Lanza to be recorded in the negative.

9                   Senator Montgomery to explain her
10 vote.

11                  SENATOR MONTGOMERY:    Yes, thank 12 you, Madam President.

13                  I just want to say for my 14 colleagues, if you ever want to see a program 15 that is run for formerly incarcerated people for 16 the purposes of helping them to have a successful 17 reentry, I have any number of organizations that 18 do exceptional work, and 90 percent of them are 19 run by formerly incarcerated people.

20                  So I find people who have the 21 experience to be experts in this particular area.
22 So I just want to offer you that bit of 23 information.

24                  And I agree with Senator Amedore. I 25 wish we were doing more, Senator Amedore. You're

1 right, there are many more things that we need to 2 be doing. But I find that this particular bill 3 is for a very specific issue, and that is to 4 remove the lifetime ban for anyone who wants to 5 serve on jury duty to be eligible to serve on 6 jury duty even though they were formerly 7 incarcerated.

8                   It establishes the same standards as 9 we have for other areas of reentry -- i.e., 10 voting privileges. So that's why I'm very much 11 in favor of this bill. Thank you very much,
12 Senator Benjamin, for taking us one step more 13 into successful reentry.

14                   And certainly we do not want to lose 15 the benefit of people who have the keenest sense 16 of understanding of people who might come before 17 them and be on a jury, because they've been there 18 and they understand, like perhaps many of us 19 would not have the same sensitivity and 20 understanding as people who actually have been 21 through it and have lived it.

22                   So I'm very much in favor of this.
23 And I hope that as Senator Amedore has pointed 24 out, we can take this as an indication that we 25 need to go further. And I'm saying this right

1 here and now, this was a Republican suggestion
2 that it's time for us to do more to help people 3 successfully reenter through this process of 4 restoring their rights as citizens.

5 So Madam President, I vote aye.

6 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
7 Montgomery to be recorded in the affirmative.

8 Senator Rivera to explain his vote.

9 SENATOR RIVERA: Thank you,
10 Madam President.

11 There's many points that have been 12 made incredibly well by many of my colleagues -- 13 Senator Bailey, Senator Myrie. So I will only 14 reiterate that everything that they've said is 15 absolutely 1000 percent on point.

16 I thank Senator Benjamin for 17 bringing this to the floor. And I actually want 18 to thank Senator Montgomery, because she 19 actually -- one of the points that I was going to 20 make -- I'm going to make two points, and one of 21 them was actually covered by Senator Montgomery.

22 The reality is that on this floor we 23 have been referring to those people as felons, 24 inmates, as prisoners. And this is a battle that 25 I'm probably not going to win with most folks in

1     this room, but I would like to posit to all of 2     you that, much like I did many weeks back when we 3     were referring to "illegals" and the way that 4     many folks across the aisle -- and sometimes on 5     my side -- use those words, it is a way to 6     dehumanize individuals.

7                 Senator Montgomery used the term
8     "formerly incarcerated," which was actually 9     taught to me by people who were actually formerly 10    incarcerated, individuals who have served their 11    time, who have done the responsible thing, who 12    have accepted responsibility for the actions that 13    they've taken and now have tried to reenter
14    society. And many of them, much like the ones
15    that Senator Montgomery describes, have done
16    amazing work in some of our districts and yours 17    as well.

18                So I would suggest -- again, I'm 19    pretty sure I'm going to lose on this. But I 20    would suggest that when you think about these 21    individuals, they are people too. And that using 22    the term "felon" or "prisoner" or "inmate" is a 23    way to dehumanize those individuals, and that is 24    a bad place to start.

25                Second, I would suggest particularly

1 to my colleagues across the aisle if you are into 2 some reading, maybe you'd like to pick up a book
3 called The New Jim Crow. There is an amazing
4 author by the name of Michelle Alexander, all the 5 way back in 2010, who wrote a book called The New 6 Jim Crow: Mass Incarceration in the Age of Color
7 Blindness. And what she pointed out
8 magnificently in this book was the fact that 9 unlike the view that many folks might share that 10 the system of justice is perfect and that 11 therefore those people -- those felons, as many 12 folks in this room have referred to them -- who 13 have committed mistakes, those are different from 14 us, and so we must put them away someplace and 15 maybe not do anything to rehabilitate them, 16 et cetera, et cetera.

17 She points out the fact that the 18 entire system -- her theory, which I believe is 19 absolutely accurate, is it's a new way, a new 20 Jim Crow. It's a new way to take people of 21 color, particularly black men and women,
22 particular black young men, and put them into a 23 system in which they are closed off from things 24 that they should have access to in society, like 25 voting, like being part of a jury pool, like

1 living in public housing, et cetera, et cetera, 2 et cetera.

3           So as we continue with bills like 4 Senator Benjamin's -- and I'm very thankful that 5 he introduced it -- and many other ones that we 6 will continue to introduce, that we will continue 7 to pass, we will do so thinking about the fact
8 that we don't have a perfect criminal justice 9 system and that the realities of the outcome of 10 this system is to criminalize poverty, is to 11 criminalize people of color. And we're trying to 12 correct that.

13           In different ways we will do it.
14 First by referring to these folks as individuals, 15 as formerly incarcerated would be one thing.
16 Second, to do a little bit of reading.

17           I vote in the affirmative,
18 Madam President.

19           ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you.
20 Senator Rivera to be recorded in the affirmative.

21           Senator Robach to explain his vote.

22           SENATOR ROBACH: Yes, I appreciate 23 all the dialogue today. I wasn't planning on 24 speaking on this either, but this is fascinating, 25 and there was a lot of relevant things and a lot

1 of different issues.

2 I guess my lens is a little bit
3 different. I want to focus not on law 4 enforcement, not on the offenders, but on the 5 victims for a minute.

6 There's no question to me -- and 7 I've worked in the criminal justice system. I 8 think this bill would be much better if it took 9 out violent felons for a start, not give them 10 more rights. And the reason why I tell you this 11 is -- we may disagree; I'm not sure how this 12 rehabilitates anybody. But I get the 13 dehumanizing part for them. But sometimes, you 14 know, as Berretta said, "If you do the crime, you 15 gotta do the time," and you've got to live up to 16 the responsibility.

17 But here's where Real-Talk Robach,
18 representing a lot of people in the urban 19 community who have had children get killed by 20 offenders and repeat offenders -- and when the 21 sentence comes out and they feel it's too short, 22 I would hate to face that family and say I voted 23 for a bill that let two individuals that already 24 killed somebody, that somehow got on that jury, 25 make that decision. Because they're going to 1 feel the system was stacked against them.

2 And one thing I do agree with 3 Senator Rivera is we do have to make sure the 4 system works as best it can for everybody. But 5 there's more than offenders and people that 6 uphold the law in this system, and that's all the 7 people in our districts and the people that 8 unfortunately get ripped apart by all kinds of 9 crime.

10 And I ask you -- I know I'm not 11 going to change anybody's vote, but let's say it 12 was your family member and you found out that the 13 person that allegedly shot your loved one, and 14 the evidence seemed pretty good, but you didn't 15 get the result you wanted, and then you found out 16 after the fact that they in fact had done that 17 very crime 10 years earlier, I don't think you'd 18 think that was a good system.

19 And that's why this is a bad
20 precedent and a bad bill. I vote no, 21 Mr. President -- or, excuse me, Madam President.

22 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
23 Robach to be recorded in the negative.

24 Senator Ranzenhofer to explain his
25 vote.

1                   SENATOR RANZENHOFER:    Thank you.

2                   Like some of my colleagues, the 3 conversation here has been very interesting. And 4 it's interesting that we are debating a bill to 5 allow people to serve on jury duty when 6 99 percent of the people do all that they can to 7 try to get out of jury duty.

8                   But to Senator Rivera's question 9 about why are we using the word "felons" in our 10 discussion, it's a dehumanizing word -- well, let 11 me just go to the bill. So the title of the bill 12 says it's an act to amend the Judiciary Law in 13 relation to removing the lifetime ban on jury 14 duty for convicted felons who have completed 15 their sentencing.

16                   I mean, that's why we're talking 17 about convicted felons, because that's what is in 18 the bill. That's what the language of the bill 19 says. That's what the bill's sponsor wrote in 20 the law, that's what the bill's sponsor wrote in 21 the memo when describing the purpose, to remove 22 the lifetime ban on jury duty for convicted 23 felons. Not a word that I chose. When I'm using 24 the word "convicted felons," I'm not trying to 25 dehumanize anybody. But that's what the language

1 of the bill says. That's what the sponsor's memo 2 says.

3           So, you know, in answer to your 4 question why are we using this language, why are 5 we using this inflammatory language, a member of 6 the Senate introduced a bill and put that -- what 7 you would call inflammatory language in the bill.
8 That's why we're talking about it. That's the 9 language that's in the law, that's the language
10 that's defined in the bill, that's the language 11 that's in the memo.

12           So I would respectfully disagree
13 with you that anybody on either side of the aisle 14 is trying to inflame the issue by using that 15 language when one of our colleagues is using the 16 language to describe the bill.

17           I wanted to also address the issue 18 of the high moral ground. I heard one of the 19 Senators on the other side mention about the high 20 moral ground, and I keep on hearing what happened 21 over the last decade.

22           So I'm one of two members in this 23 chamber who have been here for exactly one 24 decade. And in the one decade, my first two 25 years, Democrats were in control of the Senate,

1 and the last eight years was Republican. So 2 under the two years that the Democrats were in 3 control and the Child Victims Act was there, it 4 was not brought to the floor for a vote. Not 5 because anybody had better morals than the 6 others, but it was a bad bill at that time. And 7 the last eight years when Republicans were in 8 control, we were dealing with the Child Victims 9 Act. The reason why that bill didn't pass is 10 because it was a bad bill. And most people 11 believed it was a bad bill.

12 And no disrespect to the sponsor, 13 but this year when the bill changed -- because 14 many of us have been on different versions of the 15 Child Victims Act. But this year, finally, when 16 the sponsor amended the bill, when the bill 17 became a fair bill, when the bill finally went 18 from becoming a bad bill to a good bill, it was 19 passed and I think it was passed either nearly 20 unanimously or unanimously.

21 So in conclusion -- and we talk
22 about the right. There is a right for a criminal 23 defendant to have a certain type of jury.
24 There's no right to serve on a jury. That's a 25 privilege that we have in our state. It's a

1 privilege, it's not a right. The right is for 2 the defendant to have a jury of his peers.

3 So the point is, well, who should 4 have that privilege? Just like we decide who 5 should have the privilege of a driver's license, 6 who should have the privilege of a teacher's 7 license. Who should have these privileges?

8 So I believe that there is a 9 distinction. There are certain people that have 10 been convicted of felonies that in my judgment, 11 for the community members that I represent,
12 should never serve on a jury. Now, is that a 13 vast majority of them or a minority? I don't 14 know. But somebody -- as Senator Lanza said, a 15 person that's convicted of raping a child, of 16 someone who kills somebody for hire or in cold 17 blood -- I'm sorry, but in my community that 18 person should never serve on a jury.

19 Now, should somebody who has been 20 convicted of a nonviolent felony and paid their 21 debt to society, should that person be 22 considered? That's another story.

23 But I'm sorry, there are just some 24 crimes that are just so heinous, so serious, so 25 violent, that I do not want to associate my vote

1 with giving the right of a child killer, of 2 someone who murders a police officer -- that 3 person, in my mind, should never sit on a jury no 4 matter -- under any circumstances.

5 I'll be voting no, and thank you for 6 indulging me to explain my vote.

7 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
8 Ranzenhofer to be recorded in the negative.

9 Seeing and hearing no others,
10 Senator Benjamin to explain his vote.

11 SENATOR BENJAMIN: Thank you,
12 Madam President. I am so honored to be here 13 today to vote in favor of my bill.

14 I want to start off with a very 15 important point. Every defendant has the right 16 to be judged by a jury of his or her peers. And 17 when I think about peers, I think about everyone.
18 I don't think of some, I think of all. And it's 19 our job as legislators to create a fair system 20 that allows the maximum amount of people to be 21 able to serve in that capacity.

22 And so -- you know, it's funny when 23 I've been listening to some of the comments from 24 the other side, I hear this comment that it's not 25 being said, but almost being said subtly, which

1 is once a criminal, always a criminal. That 2 somehow our criminal justice system or our 3 correction system does not rehabilitate. Because 4 if it did rehabilitate, once someone has served 5 their time and paid their debt to society, they 6 should not be called a convicted felon or a 7 formerly incarcerated individual, they should be 8 called a citizen.

9 And so to be clear, the only reason 10 why the language had to be "convicted felons" as 11 relates to this bill is because it's a legal 12 term. If it was left to me, I would use the word 13 "citizen," just to be very clear.

14 Also I would like to mention the 15 fact that when we think about -- you know, this 16 is a really a tough one for me, because when I 17 hear this word -- that somehow former felons, 18 former incarcerated individuals, whatever term
19 you want to use, that they somehow don't have a 20 soul or they don't matter as much as the rest of 21 us. So as a result, they should never have the 22 chance to be a full citizen like everyone else.
23 That's what I'm hearing.

24 And so I just want to make sure that 25 we're clear on the message that we're sending

1 here today. The Majority is sending a message
2 today that if you did your time, if you served 3 after you've made a mistake, we're going to do 4 everything in our power to bring you back into 5 society because it's the right thing to do.

6           Lastly, you know, in Maine they 7 allow those who have been convicted to serve on 8 juries, and there are studies that show, if 9 anyone wants to read them, that those who were 10 formerly incarcerated have turned out to be some 11 of the best jurors, they ask some of the most 12 important questions on juries, they're very 13 thoughtful and they bring a lot to the table.

14           This is all about trying to get the 15 best solution for our society. When people serve 16 on juries -- as was mentioned before, not the 17 most -- not something that everyone is knocking 18 themselves out to do. But when you do it, you 19 have to remember that there are people's lives 20 are at stake. I've served on juries before, and 21 people's lives were at stake. I think it's 22 important that as part of that jury pool, there 23 are people who know how much is at stake because 24 they had to live that themselves.

25           I think it's the right thing to do,

1 and I'm glad that we're doing this bill today. I
