REGULAR SESSION

SENATOR SHELLEY B. MAYER, Acting President

ALEJANDRA N. PAULINO, ESQ., Secretary

P R O C E E D I N G S

ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The Senate will come to order.

I ask everyone present to please rise and recite the Pledge of Allegiance.

(Whereupon, the assemblage recited the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.)

ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The Right Reverend Dr. Abraham Mar Paulos Episcopa, of St. Thomas Malankara Orthodox Church in Levittown, New York, will deliver today's invocation.

RT. REV. DR. ABRAHAM MAR PAULOS EPISCOPA: Good afternoon. Warm greetings to all of you.

It is a great privilege and honor to be here, particularly on this Malayali Heritage Celebration Day. So we express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all the honorable Senators, particularly Senator Kevin Thomas, our proud Malayali son.

And I am going to say this invocation prayer first in Malayalam, then in English.

Let us pray.

{In Malayalam.}

Eternal and great God, with hearts of gratitude we embrace You this day for the beauty of the earth and all creation, for people of all lands and cultures, for this country and the State of New York.

As we honor and celebrate Malayali heritage, we commit the people from Kerala, India, who live and work in this land, into Your gracious hands. We thank You for the rich cultural diversity in our community, and pray that harmony continues to exist and flourish.

O Lord, we thank You for the many gifts and blessings You have bestowed upon us: The gift of life, the gift of family and friends, and the gift of the sacred opportunity to serve You.

Open our hearts, O Lord, to discern Your will and to be receptive to Your guidance. Open our eyes to see the needs of those around us, and grant us wisdom to act with great compassion and care. We pray that both individually and corporately we will strive to live honorably, in unity, love and peace.

You are the wisdom from on high.

Grant now Your wisdom to our leaders, our Senators and those in authority, that they may govern righteously, that our land might prosper, that our people might be safe.

Give our leaders discerning hearts as they seek to uphold the dignity of all humanity. Protect our leaders, instruct them in their service, and enable them to make wise decisions for the good of Your people and for the glory of God.

Forgive our shortcomings and continue to heal our world. We give thanks to You, O Lord, for You are good. Your mercy endures forever. In Your holy name we humbly pray.

Amen.

SENATOR GIANARIS: Now let's move on to resolutions, beginning with previously adopted Resolution 1623, by Senator Thomas. Read its title and recognize Senator Thomas.

ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The Secretary will read.

THE SECRETARY: Resolution 1623, by Senator Thomas, memorializing Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim May 2024 as Malayalee Heritage Month in the State of New York.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Senator Thomas on the resolution.

SENATOR THOMAS: Thank you, Madam President.

{In Malayalam} I am so happy and proud to stand here one last time to introduce a resolution honoring Malayali heritage here in this great State of New York.

I am proud to be the first and only Malayali in the New York State Legislature. So when I first got here, I knew that recognizing my Malayali heritage here in New York State would be an opportunity to lift my community and highlight our rich heritage. And I'm very proud and grateful that we kept up this tradition in this amazing chamber for the past six years.

My roots lie in the beautiful state of Kerala, in southern India. Known for its scenic landscapes and warm-hearted people, this is a land where elephants march across towns and rivers surge with massive 100-feet-long snake boats during festival season.

Our festivals celebrate the traditions passed down by our ancestors. Be it Onam, Eid or Christmas, all of Kerala rejoices with one spirit, to bring the entire coastal state to life. We are made up of a tapestry of customs, traditions, art and cuisine that have thrived for over a thousand years. The Arabs, the Portuguese, and even the British had a lot of influence over our language and our food because of the trade routes. Some of you might even want to visit.

Here in New York we are a community that values education, hard work, and service. We are found in every sector. We are nurses, we are doctors, we are lawyers, we are judges, we are elected officials, businesspeople, teachers, and even in the entertainment industry. We make New York great.

So thank you to all who have made it up today. I want to especially recognize Ajit Abraham. I want to recognize Biju Chacko. Clergy from various Mar Thoma Churches. Our lovely bishop for doing that amazing job with the opening prayer. Tennyson, who manages one of my favorite Malayali restaurants here, Karavalli. We have members of labor here -- Benson, who is out there from 1199.

We have Dr. Aney Paul, from the Rockland County Legislature; Leela Maret; Sibi David; Sibu Nair; George David; and a retiring diplomat from the Indian Consulate, Vijayakrishnan.

We also have a number of organizations being represented here: KCANA, Kerala Samajam, FOKANA, World Malayali Council, and Indian Nurses Association.

There are many more from Long Island, Queens, Westchester, Albany, all coming together today. And together, we can and will champion causes that matter to us, advocate for equality, celebrate our diversity, and create a better future for the generations to come.

So I hope you will join me in celebrating my Malayali heritage today with all of us. Thank you.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Senator Mayer on the resolution.

SENATOR MAYER: Thank you, Madam President.

It really is an honor to follow my colleague Senator Thomas in this important resolution. And I'm so proud to see so many of my friends and my constituents and the entire sort of Malayali community, leadership community of Westchester and Rockland here today.

I so appreciate that Senator Thomas has made it his prerogative to ensure that we recognize, celebrate, and honor this incredible culture, learnedness, food, and all of the wonderful things that come from Kerala, which I have been blessed to learn about in my time representing Yonkers and Westchester.

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to celebrate together. Thank you for being here as part of our wonderful democratic tradition here. And let us celebrate together Malayali culture, the contributions to our state, and the remarkable part of our diverse community that this community represents here today.

I proudly vote aye.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Thank you, Senator.

Senator Liu on the resolution.

SENATOR LIU: Thank you, Madam President.

I too join Senator Mayer and Senator Thomas in, number one, welcoming our friends from the Malayali community. I know there's a large contingent from Queens as well as I suppose from Westchester and also Long Island. In fact, many parts of the state boast a community of people of Malayali descent, and are proud of it.

And I think when you look at Senator Thomas, who has faithfully brought this resolution every year for six years since he's been in the Senate, he is an incredible example of how outstanding the Malayali community continues to provide the State of New York.

And so I want to thank Senator Thomas for this resolution. He really represents not only the best of New York but certainly the best of the Malayali community, of which he is a proud son.

So welcome. And Senator Thomas, we thank you once again.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Thank you.

Senator Stavisky on the resolution.

SENATOR STAVISKY: Yes, thank you, Madam President.

And welcome. And I too want to thank Senator Thomas for enriching our cultural lives. I believe he is one of the few representatives of the South Asian community, and I am so proud to represent so many South Asian individuals in my district in Queens.

And we welcome you to Albany. I know, I recognize some of the names of the people who were introduced. And this is I hope going to continue for many years to come. And welcome back. This is your other home, and we're glad to have you.

Thank you, Madam President.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Thank you.

Senator Cooney on the resolution.

SENATOR COONEY: Thank you, Madam President.

I'm just so proud of my colleague Senator Thomas for his historic representation, and I wanted to note it on the record.

I truly believe that government works best when it represents the diversity of its constituents. Senator Thomas has been doing that his entire tenure in the Senate. This resolution is just another example of how his pride in his culture and his heritage bleeds through his work as a public servant.

And I am grateful to have him as a colleague and grateful to welcome our community here today.

Thank you, Madam President.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Thank you.

To our guests, I welcome you on behalf of the Senate. We extend to you the privileges and courtesies of this house.

Please rise and be recognized.

(Standing ovation.)

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Senator Gianaris.

SENATOR GIANARIS: Madam President, we're now going to simultaneously call a meeting of the Rules Committee in Room 332 and continue with the resolutions.

So please call an immediate meeting of the Rules Committee and move to previously adopted Resolution 2486, by Senator Cooney, read that resolution's title, and recognize Senator Cooney.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: The previous resolution was adopted on January 17th.

There will be an immediate meeting of the Rules Committee in Room 332.

The Secretary will read.

THE SECRETARY: Resolution 2486, by Senator Cooney, memorializing Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim June 2024 as Alzheimer's and Brain Awareness Month in the State of New York.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Senator Cooney on the resolution.

SENATOR COONEY: Thank you, Madam President.

Over 400,000 New Yorkers currently live with Alzheimer's and dementia, a number, sadly, only expected to increase in the coming years. That's why I was proud to work with Senator Rolison to officially recognize this month of June in New York State as Alzheimer's and Brain Awareness Month.

It's about providing support to those suffering from this disease, but it's also a time to recognize and focus on the good habits of New Yorkers, the good habits that can help prevent this disease from spreading without knowledge, by continuing to make critical investments in research, by continuing to raise awareness about the supportive services available across New York for loved ones and caretakers of people who are suffering from these traumatic brain injuries and dementias.

Like so many others in our state, it's a month that means a lot to me personally, as my mother suffered from dementia for many years. And I'm very grateful to work in a bipartisan way in this Senate chamber to call attention to the ongoing need to provide more funds, more research, and more awareness and support services for families dealing with Alzheimer's and dementia.

Madam President, I vote aye.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Thank you, Senator.

Senator Rolison on the resolution.

SENATOR ROLISON: Thank you, Madam President.

And I want to thank my colleague and friend Senator Cooney for bringing this resolution forward.

Madam President, as he said, there are 400,000 individuals right now in our great state dealing with a very difficult and terrible illness, and it's estimated by 2025 that that number will grow to 460,000 people.

But I wanted to focus this afternoon, Madam President, on someone who is here today, who is dealing with this very illness as we speak. And he is a dear friend. He is a former colleague of mine in the Town of Poughkeepsie Police Department, where we worked together for close to 20 years serving in various capacities. But the best part of my career was when I worked with Chris Davies, Jr., in the detective bureau. We worked on the same detective quad.

And Chris, like I, retired to go on to do different things. They moved up here to the Saratoga region, he and his wife Cheri, who is here in the gallery. And then in 2018 he was diagnosed with the younger onset of Alzheimer's, at the age of 51. And I remember when I heard this, as all of my friends and colleagues did. We were devastated. We were quite frankly in shock and wanting to do something immediately, as cops generally want to do -- other than giving him all the love that he always got and will continue to get, and the support that he needed and Cheri needed, and their son Aidan.

But what we saw in a very short period of time was that Chris and Cheri made the decision that they were going to meet this disease head on. And the work that they did within their community and with the Alzheimer's Association was, What do you do at age 51? Do you just kind of mail it in and wait for something to continually get worse? No, that's not what Chris Davies did. He and Cheri became the voice for younger individuals who are now afflicted with this terrible situation.

Cheri has written words about this, and there's a chapter in this book called "The Grief Experience," which talks about how it happened, what they did, and then, most importantly, what do you do?

You make a plan. You make a plan while you still can. And that is what Chris and Cheri have done, and that's what they have encouraged us -- they've been -- throughout the media, they've been recognized by all kinds of organizations dedicated to these types of illnesses to actually go out and prepare for the future while in many respects you still have the opportunity to do so.

So when I got elected in 2022, and knowing that Chris and Cheri were not far from here, I wanted to have them down. And then knowing that this was the week that we were going to recognize this terrible situation that so many people, 460,000 -- or 400,000, soon to be 460 -- are going to find themselves in, Chris and Cheri came down today.

And I know he knows this, and I know that Cheri knows this, but I love them both very dearly. And the time that we spent together as cops is something that I'll always cherish. Christopher was an excellent police officer, an excellent husband, an excellent dad, and a great community person.

And, Madam Chair, if you would extend the courtesies of this house to my good Chris Davies, Jr., and his wife Cheri, I really would appreciate that.

And I proudly, Madam Chair -- Madam President, excuse me -- vote aye.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Thank you, Senator.

To our guests, Chris and Cheri, I welcome you on behalf of the Senate. We extend to you the privileges and courtesies of this house.

Please rise and be recognized.

(Standing ovation.)

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: The resolution was adopted on May 21st.

Senator Liu.

SENATOR LIU: Madam President, please take up previously adopted Resolution 1762, by Senator Tedisco, read the resolution in title only, and recognize Senator Tedisco.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: The Secretary will read.

THE SECRETARY: Resolution 1762, by Senator Tedisco, congratulating Mia Collins of Ballston Spa High School upon the occasion of capturing the 2024 New York State Public High School Athletic Association Girls Wrestling Championship title in the 132-pound Division on January 26, 2024.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Senator Tedisco on the resolution.

SENATOR TEDISCO: Thank you, Madam President.

Madam President, I'm pleased to welcome a wrestling champion and a trailblazer out of Ballston Spa High School to the chamber today.

Now, it's only appropriate that we would honor and recognize an outstanding athlete because, as you know, it is Sneakers Day in the Senate. But I wouldn't -- I hope you'd not have wrestling sneakers on and want to challenge her, because you wouldn't do very well.

Let me tell you a little bit about Mia Collins. Mia Collins captured the 2024 New York State Public High School Athletic Association Girls Wrestling Championship title in the 132-pound division over top-seeded Alexa Doxey of Newfane High School at the Syracuse Research Corporation Arena and Event Center in Syracuse on Friday, January 26th, of this year.

Prior to the final match, Mia recorded a 38-second pin in her first match, a reversal with 17 seconds remaining, to win a six-four decision in her quarterfinal bout, and then put together a second-period pin in the semifinals. Mia's victory capped off an undefeated season record of 10 wins and zero, no losses whatsoever.

Along with being the first New York State Girls Wrestling Champion from Ballston Spa High School, but I'm very sure will not the last -- in fact, she is the only junior, so you just might see her here again next year.

In light of her recent accomplishment, Mia Collins has garnered a national ranking of eighth in her weight class and, though only a junior, she finished third at the Fargo Nationals in North Dakota -- a tremendous achievement for a young lady who's a junior. Or anyone, for that fact.

While coaching plays a role in the success of any athlete, Mia is joined in the gallery by perhaps the greatest support system any champion or athlete can have: Her loving and supportive family. Here with Mia today are her grandmother Barbara, her grandfather Jeff, her father, Todd.

Madam President, would you please extended a warm welcome to this outstanding student athlete and her family and give them all the cordialities of this august body. We're proud of her.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Thank you, Senator.

To our guests, Mia Collins and your family, I welcome you on behalf of the Senate and extend to you the cordialities of this house.

Please rise and be recognized.

(Standing ovation.)

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: The resolution was adopted on February 6th.

Senator Liu.

SENATOR LIU: Madam President, please recognize Senator Webb -- Lea Webb! -- for an introduction.

(Laughter.)

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Senator Webb for an introduction.

SENATOR WEBB: Thank you, Madam President.

I rise proudly to welcome a remarkable guest from my district to our chamber. I'm deeply honored to introduce Maria Dibble, who has demonstrated profound and personal triumph, unwavering resolve, and remarkable professional achievement over the course of her life.

Maria was born visually impaired and has faced many challenges and obstacles over the course of her life and career, but has worked tirelessly as an advocate for the disability community, dedicating herself to changing societal attitudes, dismantling barriers to inclusion, and promoting acceptance.

Maria is a fellow alum of my alma mater, Binghamton University, and 40 years ago she cofounded an organization that has served the Southern Tier of New York disability community, providing services to individuals of all ages with all types of disabilities, with the goal of empowering people with disabilities to live an independent life.

Maria has also been an unapologetic and staunch advocate for disability rights at the national level, particularly during the battle for the passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act. She built upon the momentum of the ADA to further key aspects of the independent living mission, including deinstitutionalization, supported employment, and consumer directed personal assistance, also known as CDPAP.

In 2004 Maria led the creation of the Children's Mental Health Task Force to address the service gap for individuals with both developmental disabilities and mental health challenges.

And if that wasn't enough, in 2019 Maria was inducted into the New York State Disability Rights Hall of Fame.

Maria, today we not only celebrate your retirement -- well-deserved retirement, I may add -- after 40 years of service to your community, but we also want to thank you for your continued leadership, your dedication to improving the lives of countless individuals. You have and continue to set an example for all of us in public service, and I include myself in that number.

And with that, Madam President, I ask that you join me in congratulating Maria Dibble on her retirement after 40 years of devoted service to the disability community. Please welcome Maria to our chamber.

Thank you, Madam President.

ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you, Senator Webb.

To our guest Maria Dibble, congratulations on your retirement. We welcome you on behalf of the Senate. We extend to you the privileges and courtesies of the house.

Please rise and be recognized.

(Standing ovation.)

Senator Gianaris, that completes the reading of today's supplemental calendar.

SENATOR GIANARIS: Going back to resolutions, can we take up previously adopted Resolution 2527, by Senator Canzoneri-Fitzpatrick, please read its title and recognize Senator Canzoneri-Fitzpatrick.

ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The Secretary will read.

THE SECRETARY: Resolution 2527, by Senator Canzoneri-Fitzpatrick, commemorating the 100th Anniversary of the Franklin Square & Munson Fire Department.

ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator

Canzoneri-Fitzpatrick on the resolution.

SENATOR CANZONERI-FITZPATRICK: Thank you, Madam President.

I proudly rise to recognize the Franklin Square & Munson Fire Department for providing a century of service and dedication to the community of Franklin Square. I had the pleasure of joining with the dedicated volunteers from this department over this weekend for a parade and celebration.

The Franklin Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 of Munson was the first fire company to provide fire coverage to the community and was formed in 1907 after several large fires occurred in the community. Any time there was a fire, they would ring a large bell that was donated from the local schoolhouse, and that would send a signal to the local firefighters to respond. The first to hitch their horse to the ladder cart would get a reward.

The Franklin Square Hose & Chemical Company was eventually formed in 1923 to accommodate the growing community, and they had the benefit of acquiring a motorized fire engine. However, the next year they joined with the Franklin Hook and Ladder Company of Munson to form the Franklin Square & Munson Fire Department, which still serves the community to this day, 100 years later.

This volunteer department protects approximately three square miles, including Franklin Square, Garden City South, and parts of West Hempstead, serving about 30,000 people and responding to more than 1,000 fire and medical emergencies each year.

I would like to personally thank these dedicated volunteers of Franklin Square & Munson Fire Department for their 100 years of continuous service to our community. I am proud to support this resolution to recognize their exemplary service.

Thank you, Madam President.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Thank you, Senator.

The resolution was adopted on May 21st.

Senator Gianaris.

SENATOR GIANARIS: Madam President, please recognize Senator Comrie for an introduction.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Senator Comrie for an introduction.

SENATOR COMRIE: Thank you, Madam President.

I stand and rise today to welcome various Caribbean consul generals who are here: From Barbados, Rudy Grant. Alsion Wilson from the Island of Jamaica. Marie Andree Amy, from Haiti. And -- I hope this is right -- Rondy McIntosh from St. Vincent.

They are here today visiting in Albany so they can see what we do in government here, how do we handle ourselves in the Senate and the Assembly. The Assembly side kept them, but they got here just in time to be recognized before we close for the day.

Just to let you know, the collaboration with our Caribbean neighbors is important to the sustenance of many people. As you probably don't know, I'm Jamerican. I was born here to parents that were both born and raised in Jamaica. And from being in Queens, I'm always surrounded by fellow Caribbean Americans from all over the diaspora.

Queens, as you know, is home to a variety of Caribbean nationalities, as we house Trinidadian cuisine, we have one of the largest Haitian communities outside of Haiti in Cambria Heights and Queens Village. We also have a strong Jamaican presence, we have strong -- as my wife likes to say, anybody who's doing anything well has Jamaican heritage in them. So she claims everybody that's doing well, from athletes to professors to college presidents. She's claiming them all.

Guyanese folks tell you that they're the best and the only, from Guyana. People from Grenada in my district always love to tell you who they are as well.

You know, the Caribbean diaspora is a proud diaspora, people that we are honored to have interactions with on a regular basis as much, as well, we have opportunities where we can have the opportunity to experience the taste of home and the taste of the Caribbean as well.

There are a lot of jokes that we have in here, but we're late today, I can't spend the half-hour I wanted to, to talk about everything because I got folk looking at me already because they want to go.

(Laughter.)

SENATOR COMRIE: But I just wanted to say that, you know, we have something that everybody needs to experience in your home countries, is your carnivals. To go to a carnival in the Caribbean is a unique experience unlike any other. I ask you all to go.

In my district I have the honor of holding the Grace Jerk Festival, which is something that the entire -- which encompasses the entire diaspora. You get to come and experience all the cuisine from every Caribbean island. I would invite my colleagues to come. And if you have an opportunity to go visit the Caribbean, please don't hesitate to do so.

Madam President, as we are short on time, I will ask you to please give all the privileges of the house to the Consul Generals that are here.

And thank you for taking the time to stop in our chambers.

Thank you, Madam President.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Thank you, Senator.

To our guests -- representing

Jamaica, Alsion Wilson; Marie Andree Amy, from Haiti; Rudy Grant, Barbados; Rondy McIntosh, Saint Vincent -- I welcome you on behalf of the Senate. We extend to you the privileges and courtesies of this house.

Please rise and be recognized.

(Standing ovation.)

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Senator Gianaris.

SENATOR GIANARIS: Now let's move on to previously adopted Resolution 2307, by Senator Mayer, read its title and recognize Senator Mayer.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: The Secretary will read.

THE SECRETARY: Resolution 2307, by Senator Mayer, memorializing Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim June 2024 as Gun Violence Awareness Month in the State of New York.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Senator Mayer on the resolution.

SENATOR MAYER: Thank you, Madam President.

I rise today in support of this very somber resolution memorializing June as Gun Violence Awareness Month. It coincides with National Gun Violence Awareness Month. And it's truly sad and unfortunate that we have to have such a resolution.

But on June 12th of this year, in neighboring Connecticut, the Newtown High School Class of 2024 should include 20 more young adults graduating with their friends. Instead, we remember the lives of 20 children who were killed before they could even graduate from first grade.

As I'm sure all of us remember, and we swear we will never forget, on December 14, 2012, a gunman brought an AR-15, two semiautomatic pistols, a shotgun and several hundred rounds of ammunition in high-capacity magazines, to Sandy Hook Elementary School. The gunman first killed the principal, Dawn Hochsprung, and school psychologist Mary Sherlach, who tried to stop him in the main office.

Lauren Rousseau, a substitute teacher, was hiding her first-grade students in the bathroom when the gunman entered her classroom and killed her and 14 first-graders. One 6-year-old survived by playing dead.

The shooter then entered the classroom of Victoria Soto, a first-grade teacher. She had hidden her students in the closet and tried to direct the shooter to the school's auditorium. The shooter shot and killed Soto and six students who tried to run from their hiding spot.

The shooter also killed Anne Marie Murphy, a special education aide, who died using her body as a shield, and Rachel Davino, a behavioral specialist.

Two other Sandy Hook staff members were injured, including the vice principal, when they heard shots fired. Within five minutes the shooter killed 20 children between the ages of six and seven, and six staff members.

Since December of 2012 there have been 562 school shootings in the United States.

Our children deserve to be safe in school. Our teachers deserve to be safe at work. Our people deserve to be safe in their workplaces, in their stores, their theaters and their houses of worship.

Yet mass shootings have become so frequent we don't even hear about all of them all the time anymore.

Today, as we commemorate these individual human beings, the victims of mass shootings, and the gun violence that permeates many of our communities, we recommit ourselves to awareness, to education, to intervention and prevention. And we urge the Governor to ensure that this day and this month is recognized in New York State and that we take real steps to combat gun violence.

Thank you, Madam President.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Thank you, Senator.

Senator Bailey on the resolution.

SENATOR BAILEY: Thank you, Madam President.

Thank you, Senator Mayer, for this important resolution.

You know, Senator Mayer mentioned a lot of the shootings that we've heard, they become names that are emblazoned in our mind by just the utterance of the word Newtown, Columbine, the Post, so on and so forth -- so many. But it's not just about those large-scale ones, it is about the ones that happen in Canarsie, Madam President, in the Bronx, in Southeast Queens, in the North Country.

My friends, gun violence is not a partisan issue. Bullets, last time I checked, they don't register to vote. It's not a racial issue, because last time I checked they don't check an identifying box.

Gun violence affects each and every one of us, each of our districts, each of our communities. And the effects of gun violence are generational. They affect not just the person being shot and the person doing the shooting and their families, they create conditions of fear, conditions of reticence, conditions of helplessness.

It is up to us -- regardless of party affiliation, regardless of where we sit, regardless of where we stand -- to stand for something to stop the scourge of gun violence.

Now, we can make sure we start with education, putting down the gun and picking up a book. But stopping, in ridiculous capacity, rifles or bullets or -- excuse me, weapons that have no other condition, military grades -- we don't need those on our streets. Those should be left to the women and men who are defending interests in the military. We don't need that on White Plains Road. Or any other road in any of the states in the United States of America.

So we should recommit ourselves not just because it's Gun Violence Awareness Month, but because we're people of conscience, people of faith, people of hope. So I hope that at some point we really do stop the violence. And I want to thank everybody in this chamber that's doing something to prevent it. Whether it's working with a violence interruption group or funding your local organizations or giving money to some community-based organization that's helping someone out, you are doing something.

It's up to us if we want to prevent the next name that we don't know yet that hasn't happened yet. I don't want to say it will happen but, sadly enough, I'm pretty sure it will.

I just pray that it doesn't happen to any of us in here. But isn't that the hope, Madam President? It's never real until it affects your house, till it -- that was my cousin, that was my kid's school. My, my, my.

It's about us. Life isn't all good until everybody's good. So I say that to say thank you, Senator Mayer, once again for introducing this resolution, and I hope that we can be a part of the solution and not a part of the ever-present problem.

Thank you, Madam President.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Thank you, Senator.

The resolution was adopted on May 7th.

Senator Gianaris.

SENATOR GIANARIS: As they used to say in Monty Python, and now for something completely different.

Let's stick with Senator Bailey for previously adopted Resolution 2308, by Senator Myrie, read its title and recognize Senator Bailey.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: The Secretary will read.

THE SECRETARY: Resolution 2308, by Senator Myrie, memorializing Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim October 9, 2024, as Sneakers Day in the State of New York.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: Senator

Bailey on Sneaker Day.

SENATOR BAILEY: Thank you, Madam President. Thank you, Madam President.

And so I've just been noticed we've gained a few more viewers at home. So hi, Mara, Giada, Carina and Julian. Just want to make sure I said hello to them.

You know, we gained new viewers on the legislative channel, and we've gained more members of the largest growing caucus in New York State government, the Sneaker Caucus.

Now, since January, whether it be members, whether it be staff members, whether it be lobbyists, whether it be anybody in this building, the number-one question has been, When is Sneaker Day? When is Sneaker Day coming? And this is one of these fun days that we get to have in this chamber that we get to speak about the unity in the house. We get to speak about something a little fun, something not as heavy, something that can bring us all together.

I'm excited that, you know -- and my excuse to buy more sneakers now, Madam President, is that now I have a son. And so like now I have to -- it's my duty to pass down the legacy sneakers to him. It is incumbent upon me to pass the tradition down.

I believe that this is a day that we get a chance to do something and show off our creativity in who we are and what we're wearing.

So, Madam President, today I'm wearing a pair of Air Max 1 '86s, the Jackie Robinson edition. Jackie Robinson is -- was a hero of mine. As you well know, on April 15, 1947, he broke the color barrier in Major League Baseball. And he had a lot of courage. He had a lot of panache, as it was, Madam President, to be able do something in that era that I still don't know if people can do in this era.

So I decided to recognize him today by wearing a pair of sneakers, and the socks too. You know, I have to coordinate, as they say, Madam President. I have to put the sneakers and the socks together. But I just wanted this opportunity to thank Senator Myrie for introducing this resolution, and for all of my colleagues on both sides of the aisle. The Sneaker Caucus has grown.

And also I wanted to make sure I send out a little friendly rivalry shout-out to our friends in D.C. You see, last year we did Sneaker Day because, you know, the Empire State -- as goes New York, so goes the country. And so went the country. They decided to have a Sneaker Day on Capitol Hill -- don't worry, all, they weren't as fresh as us. They didn't do it like we did it. But they talked about it like they were the first ones.

And I wanted to say, look, I respect and appreciate my federal colleagues, but we did it first. Actually, I can't even take credit for it. When I got here, Andy Lanza was wearing sneakers.

(Laughter.)

SENATOR BAILEY: Don't tell the other Republicans that.

But it's not a partisan issue. Some people might watch this or see Sneaker Day, and they say, There are those Democrats that are running Albany into the ground, they're wearing sneakers and they're making a mockery of state government.

Well, I ask you, my friend George Borrello got a new pair of sneakers for Sneaker Day.

(Laughter.)

SENATOR BAILEY: So this is one of those rare occasions, Madam President, to everybody watching, we get a chance to laugh and we get to enjoy the humanity of who we are.

Sneakers, when I was growing up, for me, we didn't have a car, so these were my Rolls Royces. This was my Ferrari. This was my Bentley. This was my Benz. Still can't afford those.

(Laughter.)

SENATOR BAILEY: But this is the importance of Sneaker Day. And there's a culture around it, you know, and it's really, you know, interconnected with hip-hop culture. But you don't have to be hip-hop to be a sneakerhead. Each and every one of you is a sneakerhead. So congratulations on being inducted into the club.

And I will end the same way I ended last year, Madam President. If you're having shoe problems, I feel bad for you, son. I got 99 problems, but my kicks ain't one.

(Laughter; applause.)

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: The resolution was adopted on May 7th.

Senator Gianaris.

SENATOR GIANARIS: Madam President, for the record, I'm wearing my Starsky and Hutch Adidas.

(Laughter.)

SENATOR GIANARIS: At the request of all the sponsors of today's resolutions, they are open for cosponsorship.

ACTING PRESIDENT PERSAUD: The resolutions are open for cosponsorship. Should you choose not to be a cosponsor, please notify the desk.
