NEW YORK STATE SENATE

THE STENOGRAPHIC RECORD

ALBANY, NEW YORK

March 3, 2025

3:34 p.m.

REGULAR SESSION

SENATOR SHELLEY B. MAYER, Acting President

ALEJANDRA N. PAULINO, ESQ., Secretary

1 P R O C E E D I N G S

2 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The Senate
3 will come to order.

4 I ask everyone to please rise and 5 recite the Pledge of Allegiance.

6 (Whereupon, the assemblage recited
7 the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.)

8 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Before we 9 have the invocation, I would ask that we have a 10 moment of silence in memory of Dr. Hazel Dukes,
11 president of the New York State NAACP Conference
12 for nearly 50 years, who passed away last week.

13 (Whereupon, the assemblage respected 14 a moment of silence.)

15 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you.

16 Today Pastor Jim O'Hanlon, of 17 St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in my 18 district in Rye Brook, New York, will deliver the 19 invocation.

20 Pastor.

21 PASTOR O'HANLON: I invite us all to 22 draw a deep, healthy breath and dwell in 23 stillness. And I share this prayer.

24 Divine God, You created humanity in 25 a splendid rainbow of diversity -- faces,

1 languages, cultures and beliefs. This rainbow is 2 but a fraction of the infinite colors and hues
3 that are You, as we are created in Your image.

4 Bless us with wisdom to respect and 5 cherish and protect our diversity. This week 6 Christians begin a solemn season of Lent, and our 7 Muslim neighbors begin a solemn month of Ramadan.
8 Next week our Jewish neighbors will remember the 9 courage of Esther, who faced a terrifying tyrant.

10 As these legislators begin their 11 deliberations, may they -- may all of us -- give 12 thanks for the wondrous world You have with a 13 beautiful, diverse collection of peoples. May 14 they, and we, listen for and seek the greatest 15 good.

16 Bless them. Bless their staffs,
17 their families. Bless all who work in this 18 complex, especially the essential workers and 19 service providers.

20 May we all seek to live with each
21 other and with all creation with kindness and a 22 keen awareness of the needs awaiting our 23 assistance.

24 Amen.

25 (Response of "Amen.")

1 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you
2 so much, Pastor.

3 And as a moment of personal 4 privilege, let me just salute our pastor, who has 5 been a leader in the fight for social justice, 6 the building of interfaith coalitions, and 7 support for equal opportunity throughout the 8 New York suburbs and particularly in Port Chester 9 and Rye Brook.

10 He's been a true leader in the 11 efforts to ensure that we do have peace and 12 tranquility between all of us.

13 So thank you, Pastor, for joining 14 us, and thank you for your lovely prayer.

7 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
8 Sanders for an introduction.

9 SENATOR SANDERS: Thank you,
10 Madam President.

11 Madam President, today the Senate
12 recognizes and welcomes Cariol Horne to the 13 State Capitol. Cariol Horne is a former Buffalo 14 police officer known for her courageous act of 15 standing up against all brutality, and this time 16 police brutality.

17 In 2006, while on duty, she 18 intervened to stop her fellow officer from using 19 excessive force during the arrest of a suspect.
20 Horne was subsequently fired from the Buffalo
21 Police Department and faced disciplinary action.

22 But her actions gained her
23 recognition as a symbol of accountability within 24 law enforcement. Over time, she became an 25 advocate for police reform and justice,

1 highlighting the importance of holding officers 2 accountable for misconduct. Horne's story has 3 since inspired many and sparked conversations 4 about the need for change in police practices.

5 The story doesn't end there. In 6 2021, she won her case and got her pension and 7 back pay. And in 2022, Buffalo created
8 Cariol's Law, which requires police to intervene 9 in all different types of crimes, including 10 crimes of blue.

11 I want to thank Ms. Horne for 12 visiting the Senate today.

13 And Madam President, I ask you to 14 extend a welcome of this great body to Ms. Horne.

15 Thank you very much.

16 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you,
17 Senator Sanders.

18 To our guest, Cariol Holloman-Horne,
19 we welcome you on behalf of the Senate. We 20 extend to you the privileges and courtesies of 21 the house. Please rise and be recognized.

22 (Standing ovation.)

23 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
24 Gianaris.

25 SENATOR GIANARIS: Now please

1 recognize Senator O'Mara for another
2 introduction.

3 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
4 O'Mara for an introduction.

5 SENATOR O'MARA: Thank you,
6 Madam President.

7 I have a group I would like to 8 introduce that's here today from the Tioga County 9 Future Farmers of America. I understand we're 10 doing a resolution on behalf of FFA, but not till 11 tomorrow. They're here visiting us today, 12 talking about the future of agriculture, their 13 involvement as youth in the importance of 14 agriculture.

15 They're all here from Tioga County,
16 so I'll identify them, ask you to please stand 17 up. We have students Mason Hill, Mariana Slocum,
18 Jessica Baumbach, Grayden Stanton, Mikayla
19 Wilbur, Mahayla Walsh, Kayla Coppage, Mary Cox.
20 Two advisors: Derek Hill and Susan Armstrong.
21 And FFA Chairman and Tioga County Farm Bureau
22 President Cub Frisbie.

23 Thank you. Thank you for being 24 here, and welcome.

25 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you,

1 Senator O'Mara.

2 To our guests from Tioga County FFA,
3 we welcome you on behalf of the Senate. We
4 extend to you the privileges and courtesies of 5 the house. Please stay standing and be 6 recognized.

7 (Standing ovation.)

8 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
9 Gianaris.

10 SENATOR GIANARIS: Let's take up
11 previously adopted Resolution 391, by 12 Senator Persaud, read that resolution's title, 13 and recognize Senator Persaud.

14 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: The 15 Secretary will read.

16 THE SECRETARY: Resolution 391, by 17 Senator Persaud, memorializing Governor Kathy 18 Hochul to proclaim March 3-7, 2025, as 19 School Breakfast Week in the State of New York.

20 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER:
21 Senator Persaud on the resolution.

22 SENATOR PERSAUD: Thank you,
23 Madam President.

24 I stand today to celebrate the 25 importance of a nutritious school breakfast in

1 setting students up for success as we recognize 2 School Breakfast Week, taking place from 3 March 3rd to March 7th in New York State.

4 Here in New York, 19 percent of 5 children are food-insecure. Think of that. In 6 New York State, 19 percent of children are 7 food-insecure.

8 School-aged children who experience
9 hunger are more likely to miss school, struggle 10 academically, and face health challenges -- 11 something that should not be occurring in our 12 state or our country.

13 Every child deserves to start their 14 day with a nutritious breakfast. Eating 15 breakfast improves children's overall diets, 16 builds healthy lifelong eating habits, and 17 enhances their ability to learn and perform 18 academically.

19 Making breakfast a part of the 20 school day at no cost to families is an important 21 and effective way to ensure children reap the 22 benefits of breakfast.

23 In 2024, more than 152 million
24 breakfast meals were served in New York State, 25 reaching more than 876,000 students, with more

1 than 1200 schools participating in the New York
2 State breakfast program.

3 I want to remind us to continue our 4 commitment to expanding access to and improving 5 current school breakfast programs to ensure our 6 children are properly fed and have the tools they 7 need to succeed.

8 Today in our chamber we have our 9 guest, Rachel Sabella. She's the director of 10 New York No Kid Hungry. And they are strong 11 advocates for school lunch programs and breakfast 12 programs.

13 So, Madam President, I ask you to 14 please extend the cordialities of the house to 15 No Kid Hungry so that we continue to fight to 16 ensure that no kid across the State of New York 17 goes hungry.

18 Thank you.

19 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you,
20 Senator Persaud.

21 Senator Bailey on the resolution.

22 SENATOR BAILEY: Thank you,
23 Madam President.

24 I just want to thank Senator Persaud
25 for introducing this incredibly important

1 resolution.

2 Those of us who are adults often
3 opine about how we can't get our day started
4 without coffee. And those of us who are drivers 5 would never dare to drive a vehicle without gas.
6 Well, how can you expect a child to learn 7 optimally if we don't give them the fuel that 8 they need?

9 Studies show, as Senator Persaud 10 illuminated that, that our kids do better when 11 they're full. When they have a full stomach, 12 they can have a fuller mind. With so many kids 13 facing so many different things in society, from 14 not just food insecurity, to housing insecurity, 15 to clothing insecurity, making sure that within 16 our school buildings that there is a safe haven, 17 there is a respite for these children. That they 18 have the beginning of their day to start.

19 And while I am, you know, admittedly
20 no fan of breakfast myself -- that's a choice 21 that I can make as an adult -- the choice should 22 not be made for these children. They should have 23 the ability and the full plates in front of them 24 so that they can learn.

25 The Breakfast Club should be more

1 than a regaled '80s movie or a group of people on 2 a radio station that talk about things. It 3 should be what each of our children in every 4 school throughout this state have the opportunity 5 to have.

6 So I'm incredibly honored to be able 7 to speak on the resolution. I'm incredibly 8 grateful for the work that Rachel and No Kid 9 Hungry are doing throughout the great State of 10 New York to make sure that we have everything 11 that our kids need, because they are the most 12 important thing that we can ever invest in.

13 So I proudly vote aye on the 14 resolution, Madam President. Thank you.

15 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you,
16 Senator Bailey.

17 Senator Hinchey on the resolution.

18 SENATOR HINCHEY: Thank you,
19 Madam President.

20 I would like to rise and thank 21 Senator Persaud for bringing this resolution to 22 the floor today.

23 As was said, you cannot teach a
24 hungry student. No student should have to worry 25 about where their next meal is going to come

1 from.

2 And yet for too many kids across our 3 state, school is where they get fed. And so
4 making sure that they have two healthy meals a 5 day is critical. That way they can focus on 6 their studies, they can focus on social and 7 emotional learning. And it's something that the 8 teachers then can be committed -- or already be 9 committed to and know that they can just focus on 10 teaching students and not have to worry about if 11 anyone is hungry in their classroom.

12 One thing to note as well is 13 New York is an ag state. And so it's incumbent 14 upon us to make sure that the food that our 15 students are getting in their schools is locally 16 sourced, healthy food. And I want to thank the 17 students here from FFA, because that's the next 18 generation.

19 And this body has done a lot of work
20 not just to ensure that we have universal school 21 meals across all of our schools in this state, 22 but also that we can add breakfast to the Farm to 23 School program so that every student is actually 24 getting locally sourced food. It's one thing to 25 talk about it. It's another to actually make

1 sure that that's a reality.

2 And so, Senator Persaud, thank you
3 for bringing this to the floor. And I look 4 forward to working with all of my colleagues to 5 ensure that these programs stay well into the 6 future.

7 Thank you.

8 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you,
9 Senator Hinchey.

10 Senator Murray on the resolution.

11 SENATOR MURRAY: Thank you,
12 Madam President.

13 I'd like to echo my colleagues in 14 thanking Senator Persaud for bringing this to the 15 floor and bringing attention and keeping 16 attention on the important issue of making sure 17 our children are fed properly in school.

18 As one who, when I was a child
19 growing up, I was on the free and reduced meal
20 program, and I would come in for my free meals.
21 But the teasing and everything, and the bullying,
22 got so bad that I frankly stopped eating. And it 23 affected me.

24 And so the fact that we are bringing 25 attention to this issue, the fact that we are

1 pushing hard to make sure that every child in 2 this state will get a meal, will not be in school 3 hungry, will not be suffering -- I cannot 4 overstate the importance of that.

5 So thank you, Senator Persaud.

6 Thank you to my colleagues. I proudly vote aye.

7 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you,
8 Senator Murray.

9 Senator Oberacker on the resolution.

10 SENATOR OBERACKER: Thank you,
11 Madam President.

12 I think those of you that know when 13 I stand up when it comes to food -- it is a very 14 strong and a very passionate subject for me. So 15 Senator Persaud, thank you for bringing this very 16 important resolution to the floor.

17 You know, my dad, who grew up under 18 postwar Germany conditions, when he immigrated to 19 the United States was in the food industry.

20 And I'll always remember a certain 21 time, and this was back when I was actually 22 playing Little League, and I had an extremely 23 good game. And he was talking -- my dad was 24 there, and he was talking to a friend of his, and 25 the friend of his said, "I'll bet you that you're

1 so proud of your son and that you wish that he 2 would become a professional ballplayer."

3 And I'll always remember this. My 4 dad said, "No. My wish for my son is that he 5 never has to go to bed hungry."

6 It has stuck with me all these 7 years. It has stuck to me all these years.

8 So, Senator Persaud, you're 9 100 percent on-mark. Well done. And any time
10 that we can feed the children, we have done a 11 great thing. So I proudly, proudly vote aye.

12 Thank you.

13 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Thank you.

14 To our guests from No Kid Hungry, we 15 welcome you on behalf of the Senate. We extend 16 to you the privileges and courtesies of the 17 house.

18 Please rise and be recognized.

19 (Standing ovation.)

20 ACTING PRESIDENT MAYER: Senator
21 Gianaris.

22 SENATOR GIANARIS: Madam President,
23 Senator Oberacker would like to make sure that

3 of Senator Persaud, that resolution is open for 4 cosponsorship.
