15 Father, we come today in Your

19 we are in need of during this particular time.
20 We ask it in the mighty and matchless name of 21 Jesus the Christ.

22 Father, we ask You that You give us
23 guidance and wisdom. We ask that You bless all 24 the Senators, Assemblymen, elected officials.
25 Give them the wisdom and strength and discernment

1 as they navigate the complexities of their roles.

2 Guide them in making decisions that
3 serve the best interests of their constituents
4 and the state as a whole. We ask it all in Your 5 name.

6 And even when it is difficult that 7 they make the right decisions, we ask that as 8 well. May they be a source of hope, Father, and 9 unity for those they represent.

10 Amen.

16 Thank you, Mr. President, for allowing me to make 17 this introduction.

18 Honorable authorities, esteemed
19 colleagues, cherished Dominican community, 20 friends: It is my honor to welcome today, at the 21 New York State Senate, distinguished government
22 officials and members of the legislative branch
23 of the Dominican Republic. This meeting not only 24 strengthens institutional ties but also serves as 25 a bridge of cooperation and brotherhood between

1 our communities, reflecting the historical and 2 cultural bonds that unite our nations.

3 I am filled with satisfaction and 4 gratitude to be here with you to recognize the 5 effort, dedication, and tireless work of the 6 Dominican leaders who, day after day, commit 7 themselves passionately to the well-being of 8 their communities. Their commitment inspires and 9 leaves a profound impact on those who have the 10 privilege of witnessing their work.

11 Just a few days after the one-month
12 anniversary of the tragic tragedy at the Jet Set 13 nightclub in Santo Domingo, I would like to 14 extend my sincerest gratitude to the brave and 15 efficient emergency authorities of the Dominican 16 Republic.

17 I especially thank General Juan
18 Manuel Méndez, director of the Emergency
19 Operations Center; Colonel Randolpho Rijo, 20 director of the National 911 Emergency and 21 Security Systems; and the director of 22 Civil Defense, Juan Salas, for their swift, 23 coordinated and deeply humane response to the 24 tragedy where 233 people died.

25 Your actions in the face of this

1 tragedy were admirable examples of 2 responsibility, solidarity and commitment. In 3 the midst of uncertainty, pain and anguish, many 4 families held on to hope. With steadfast hearts
5 and committed souls, you became a beacon of light
6 in the darkness. You were a source of confident 7 comfort to those in grief, strength to those who 8 could go no further, and decisive action in 9 moments when fear took hold.

10 Today we recognize you not only for 11 what you did, but for what you represented:
12 Solidarity, bravery, and compassion. In every 13 decision made, in every effort carried out, you 14 showed that human greatness can flourish even in 15 the saddest of circumstances. It comes in 16 silence -- in the form of outstretched hands and 17 a word of encouragement, or in sleepless nights 18 in the service of others.

19 I also want to offer special
20 recognition to the Honorable Senator for the 21 Province of Monseñor Nouel, Hector Acosta. His 22 distinguished career in public service and his 23 unwavering commitment to the development and 24 well-being of his community and the 25 Dominican Republic are worthy of admiration and

1 respect.

2 Monseñor Nouel, a beautiful province
3 located in the heart of the country, has 4 benefited from his visionary leadership and close 5 connection to the people, resulting in real and 6 positive changes in the lives of its citizens.
7 His example inspires all of us who believe in 8 politics as a tool for social transformation.

9 From this honorable chamber in the 10 heart of New York -- a city that is home to the 11 vibrant and hardworking Dominican community -- I 12 reaffirm my commitment to continue strengthening 13 those bonds and to always recognize the greatness
14 of the men and women who work for a better future
15 for our peoples.

16 I thank the President of the 17 Dominican Republic, Ricardo de los Santos
18 Polanco, and the Senator for the province of 19 María Trinidad Sánchez, my brother,
20 Alexis Victoria Yeb, for their constant support
21 and willingness in every legislative initiative
22 we have shared.

23 I also thank my colleagues from both 24 sides of the chamber.

25 (Repeating remarks in Spanish.)

1 "Honorables autoridades, estimados
2 colegas, apreciada comunidad dominicana, amigas y
3 amigos. Es para mí un honor dar la bienvenida
4 hoy, en la sede del Senado del Estado de Nueva
5 York, a distinguidos funcionarios del gobierno y
6 miembros del poder legislativo de la República
7 Dominicana.

8 "Este encuentro no solo fortalece
9 los lazos institucionales, sino que también
10 representa un puente de cooperación y hermandad 11 entre nuestras comunidades, reflejando los 12 vínculos históricos y culturales que unen a 13 nuestros países.

14 "Me llena de satisfacción y gratitud
15 estar aquí con ustedes para reconocer el 16 esfuerzo, la dedicación y el trabajo incansable
17 de líderes dominicanos que, día tras día, se 18 entregan con pasión al bienestar de su comunidad.
19 Su compromiso inspira y deja huellas profundas en 20 quienes tienen el privilegio de conocer su labor.
21 A pocos días de cumplirse un mes de la lamentable
22 tragedia ocurrida en la discoteca Jet Set de
23 Santo Domingo, quiero extender un sincero
24 reconocimiento a las valientes y eficientes
25 autoridades de emergencia de la República

1 Dominicana.

2 "Agradezco especialmente al general
3 Juan Manuel Méndez, director del Centro de
4 Operaciones de Emergencias; al coronel Randolpho
5 Rijo, director del Sistema Nacional de Atención a 6 Emergencias y Seguridad 9-1-1 y al director de la
7 Defensa Civil, licenciado Juan Salas, por su
8 respuesta rápida, coordinada y profundamente
9 humana ante la tragedia ocurrida en la discoteca
10 Jet Set, en la que fallecieron 233 personas.

11 "Su labor en este lamentable suceso
12 fue un ejemplo admirable de responsabilidad,
13 solidaridad y compromiso. En medio de la
14 incertidumbre, el dolor y la angustia, muchas
15 familias se aferraban a la esperanza. Con el 16 corazón firme y el alma comprometida, ustedes se 17 convirtieron en la luz en medio de la oscuridad.
18 Fueron consuelo para quienes sufrían, fuerza para
19 los que ya no podían más, y acción decidida
20 cuando el miedo paralizaba.

21 "Hoy queremos reconocerlos no solo
22 por lo que hicieron, sino por lo que
23 representaron: Solidaridad, valentía y
24 compasión. En cada decisión que tomaron, en cada
25 esfuerzo que realizaron, demostraron que la

1 grandeza humana florece incluso en los escenarios
2 más tristes. Nos recordaron que el heroísmo no
3 siempre lleva uniforme ni espera aplausos; a
4 veces llega en silencio, en forma de una mano
5 extendida, de una palabra de aliento o de una 6 jornada sin descanso.

7 "De igual modo, quiero reconocer de
8 manera especial a este grand senador por la
9 provincia Monseñor Nouel, Héctor Acosta conocido
10 en el mundo El Torito. Su destacada trayectoria
11 en el servicio público, así como su firme
12 compromiso con el desarrollo y bienestar de su
13 comunidad, y la Republica Dominicana, constituyen
14 un ejemplo digno de admiración y respeto.

15 "Monseñor Nouel, una hermosa
16 provincia ubicada en el corazón del país, ha
17 contado con su liderazgo visionario y cercano al
18 pueblo, lo cual ha generado cambios reales y
19 positivos en la vida de sus ciudadanos. Su
20 ejemplo inspira a todos los que creemos en la
21 política como herramienta de transformación 22 social.

23 "Desde esta honorable Cámara en el
24 corazón de Nueva York, una ciudad que también es
25 hogar de una vibrante y trabajadora comunidad

1 dominicana, reitero mi compromiso de seguir
2 fortaleciendo estos Lazos y de reconocer siempre
3 la grandeza de los hombres y mujeres que trabajan
4 por un mejor futuro para nuestros pueblos.

5 "Agradezco al presidente del Senado
6 de la República Dominicana, Ricardo de los Santos
7 Polanco, y al senador de la provincia María
8 Trinidad Sánchez, Alexis Victoria Yeb, por el 9 respaldo constante y la disposición demostrada en
10 cada una de las iniciativas legislativas que 11 hemos compartido.

12 "Asimismo, agradezco a mis colegas
13 de ambas cámaras por unirse a este evento."

14 Thank you very much. Muchas
15 gracias.

16 ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Thank
17 you, Senator Sepúlveda.

18 To our guests, I welcome you on 19 behalf of the Senate. Bienvenidos al Senado. We 20 extend to you all of the privileges and 21 courtesies of this house.

22 Personal point of privilege: Dios,
23 Patria y Libertad.

24 Please rise and be recognized.

25 (Standing ovation.)

1                   ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY:    Senator
2    Serrano.

3                   SENATOR SERRANO:    Thank you,
4    Mr. President.

5                   There is a privileged resolution at 6    the desk. I ask that you please take that up and 7    recognize Senator Addabbo.

8                   ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY:    The 9    Secretary will read.

10                  THE SECRETARY:    Resolution 904, by 11    Senator Addabbo, recognizing the atrocities of 12    the Thomas Indian School and the impact it had on 13    Indigenous communities.

14                  ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY:    Senator
15    Addabbo on the resolution.

16                  SENATOR ADDABBO:    Thank you,
17    Mr. President.

18                  Good afternoon, everyone.

19                  I believe in order to resolve and to 20    address bad behavior and disrespect, we first 21    have to acknowledge it. As chair of the 22    Subcommittee for the State-Native American 23    Relations, I, along with Senator Borrello, 24    introduced this resolution to acknowledge the 25    horrific treatment that the Native American

1 children and families experienced at the 2 Thomas Indian School back in the 1800s -- also 3 known as the Thomas Asylum for Orphaned and 4 Destitute Indian Children.

5           Founded in Irving, New York, in 6 1855, the initially good intentioned site turned 7 ugly when the state took it over in 1875, 8 resulting in children being taken away from their 9 families and these children being stripped of 10 their language, their native language, and their 11 culture.

12           The emotional and psychological
13 impact of this mistreatment done by the Thomas 14 Indian School over 150 years ago is still being 15 felt by the Native Americans today.

16           With us today are some of the 17 Nations behind me in the gallery. This 18 resolution seeks to raise awareness, acknowledge 19 the unacceptable behavior, and learn from it as 20 we go forward, showing the respect that the 21 Native Americans deserve, and we work with them 22 to address this issue.

23           Mr. President, I'll be voting yes on 24 this resolution. Thank you.

25           ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Thank

1 you, Senator Addabbo.

2 Senator Borrello on the resolution.

3 SENATOR BORRELLO: Thank you,
4 Mr. President.

5 I rise in solemn support of this 6 resolution. And I do so not only as a member of 7 this legislative body, but as a representative of 8 a district that includes the sovereign
9 territories of the Seneca Nation of Indians. The 10 Cattaraugus Territory of the Seneca Nation is 11 located in the southwestern corner of New York
12 State, along the Cattaraugus Creek from Gowanda
13 to Lake Erie. It spans parts of Cattaraugus, 14 Chautauqua, and Erie counties.

15 The Allegany Territory is also 16 within Cattaraugus County and includes the City
17 of Salamanca.

18 These are not just places on a map.
19 These are communities with deep historical roots
20 and an enduring cultural legacy.

21 The Seneca Nation has contributed
22 enormously to the fabric of Western New York.
23 Despite centuries of policies aimed at their 24 erasure, the Seneca people have never surrendered 25 their identity. They have fought tirelessly to

1 preserve their language, their customs, and their 2 sovereignty, even as the forces of assimilation
3 bore down on them.

4 The Thomas Indian School, located on 5 the Cattaraugus Territory, stands as a stark and 6 shameful reminder of a chapter in American 7 history that saw government power used to strip 8 away language, culture and identity from the 9 Native children.

10 It's been called a school, but as 11 this resolution rightly says, it was not a haven.
12 It was a tool of forced assimilation. It was 13 part of a system designed to "kill the Indian and 14 save the man." That's in quotes. That's what 15 their mission was stated as, to "kill the Indian 16 and save the man." Those words still echo with 17 horror today.

18 This ideology and the institutions
19 it gave rise to inflicted wounds that didn't just 20 last a generation -- they have echoed across 21 time. They have shaped lives, stolen futures, 22 and fractured families. What happened at the 23 Thomas Indian School and places like it was not 24 just child abuse, it was cultural erasure, and it 25 was sanctioned by the government.

1                   As legislators, we're often called 2                   to look forward, to create policies for tomorrow.
3                   But sometimes the most meaningful thing we can do 4                   is pause and confront the full truth of our past.
5                   That's what this resolution does. And while 6                   words alone are never enough, words matter.
7                   Acknowledgment matters. Dignity matters.

8                   We cannot undo the harm done, but we 9                   can and must support the Seneca people and all of 10                  the Haudenosaunee Nation in their pursuits of 11                  healing.

12                  That means respecting their 13                  ceremonies, honoring their efforts to bring their 14                  lost children home, and ensuring that history is 15                  taught honestly for future generations. It's 16                  about standing with those who endured the 17                  unimaginable and saying, clearly and without 18                  condition: We see you, we acknowledge you, and 19                  we will not forget.

20                  I want to thank Senator Addabbo and 21                  my fellow sponsors of this resolution. I thank 22                  the survivors and the descendants of the 23                  Thomas Indian School for their courage. And I 24                  respectfully urge my colleagues to join me in 25                  this solemn support.

1                   I want to thank President JC Seneca,
2 my friend; First Lady Nicole Seneca; the members
3 of the Tribal Council that are here, and everyone 4 who has fought hard to bring this forward, to 5 acknowledge what has happened, to ensure that it
6 never happens again. And to my friends, Nya:wëh.

7                   (Responses from gallery.)

8                   SENATOR BORRELLO: Thank you.

9                   ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Thank 10 you, Senator Borrello.

11                   Senator Gallivan on the resolution.

12                   SENATOR GALLIVAN: Thank you,
13 Mr. President.

14                   I too rise to condemn something that 15 should have never taken place. I am grateful 16 that Senator Addabbo, Senator Borrello brought 17 this resolution forward that's been a long time 18 coming. I'm certainly glad we're past those 19 types of actions.

20                   And I'm very glad and grateful to 21 have President Seneca, members of the 22 Tribal Council and other members of the Nation 23 here today. Proud to represent a portion of the 24 Cattaraugus Territory. Proud to have had a 25 relationship with so many in their government for

1 so many years.

2                   And it's because of relationships --
3 I'd like to thank my relationship, Senator
4 Borrello's relationship -- other governments, 5 working together with the Senecas, were able to 6 do better things for our community. Certainly 7 not at types of things that were done in the 8 past, the negative things. But working together
9 in a positive manner to make Western New York a 10 better place.

11                   So I am grateful for our 12 relationship, grateful for our friendship, and 13 very proud to stand here today where we are 14 condemning what took place.

15                   Thank you, Mr. President.

16                   ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Thank
17 you, Senator Gallivan.

18                   To our guests in the chamber -- but 19 we are guests on your land -- I welcome you on 20 behalf of the Senate. We extend to you the 21 privileges and courtesies of this house.

22                   Please rise and be recognized.

23                   (Extended standing ovation.)

24                   ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Senator
25 Serrano.

1 SENATOR SERRANO: Thank you --

2 ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Excuse
3 me, I'm sorry.

4 The question is on the resolution.
5 All in favor please signify by saying aye.

6 (Response of "Aye.")

7 ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Opposed,
8 nay.

9 (No response.)

10 ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: I didn't 11 think so.

12 The resolution is adopted.

13 Senator Serrano.

14 SENATOR SERRANO: Thank you very 15 much, Mr. President.

16 Please take up previously adopted
17 Resolution 905, by Senator Baskin, read the 18 resolution title only, and recognize 19 Senator Baskin.

20 ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: The
21 Secretary will read.

22 THE SECRETARY: Resolution 905, by
23 Senator Baskin, recognizing May 2025 as 24 Apraxia Awareness Month in the State of New York.

25 ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Senator

1 Baskin on the resolution.

2 SENATOR BASKIN: Thank you,
3 Mr. President.

4 I rise today to welcome my good
5 friends from the Western New York region, the 6 Malicki family, as we acknowledge and celebrate 7 Apraxia Awareness Month.

8 It's wonderful to have the Malicki
9 family join us here in Albany as we honor you for 10 raising awareness about apraxia, a rare and 11 serious speech disorder.

12 Back home, Mom Courtney is a 13 Buffalo public school special ed teacher at 14 Lorraine Elementary, and Richard, Dad, works in 15 sales. They're proud and busy parents of 16 Matthew, who is here today; Andrew, who is here
17 today; and my good friend Jack.

18 The Malickis have been tireless
19 advocates as they educate our community about 20 apraxia, which Jack was diagnosed with at 21 5 years old, at the Robert Wagner Center at 22 Oishei Children's Hospital in my district.

23 Now, Jack, who's 8 years old, is a
24 student at Blasdell Elementary. He is receiving 25 intensive speech and therapy sessions, and he is

1 doing great.

2 I first met this amazing family when 3 I served in the Erie County Legislature. And 4 while apraxia may not be a well-known term
5 amongst us, many others are now learning about it 6 because of this family's tireless advocacy.

7 Courtney and her family speak to 8 people across our state, and even throughout 9 Canada, about how they can help their loved ones 10 who struggle with apraxia. Through their 11 determination and advocacy, they are lending a 12 helping hand to individuals locally and beyond.
13 After all, every child deserves a voice.

14 The Malickis' efforts have lit up
15 our area, and I mean that quite literally. A 16 couple of examples are on May 16th, the 17 Peace Bridge in Buffalo, New York, which connects 18 the United States to Canada, will be lit up blue.
19 And one day later, in Niagara Falls, on both the 20 American and Canadian sides, it will also be 21 illuminated in blue, in celebration of apraxia 22 awareness.

23 Mr. President, I've had the 24 privilege of celebrating this month with this 25 family year after year after year in my previous

1 role. And I have to say that as much as I like 2 them, I'm a fearless advocate for people who 3 struggle with different abilities. I admire that 4 about this family.

5 But the day after Mother's Day, I
6 have to highlight Courtney, because what I admire
7 most is her advocacy as a mother. I'm a mother, 8 and nobody, nobody can advocate for my children,
9 nobody can advocate for my baby like me. And I
10 see that in you, Courtney.

11 I am so proud to see Jack, after all
12 of these years, had nearly a full-fledged
13 conversation with me, which I don't think he's 14 ever been able to do before. But he's talking up 15 a storm. And this different way of learning is 16 certainly not going to hold him back.

17 So it is a privilege, in my first 18 year as a Senator, to welcome them in my new 19 capacity here in Albany. And I am so grateful 20 for all that this family does.

21 Happy Mother's Day, Courtney. And 22 may so many women and mothers across our region 23 learn to fight for their babies the way you have.

24 Thank you, Mr. President.

25 ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Thank

1 you, Senator Baskin.

2 Senator Gallivan on the resolution.

3 SENATOR GALLIVAN: Thank you,
4 Mr. President.

5 I too rise to recognize the 6 Malicki family, welcome them to Albany, and thank 7 Senator Baskin for bringing this resolution
8 forward. And more importantly, thank the 9 Malicki family for standing up. Certainly -- oh, 10 you're going to get to stand up later, but --

11 (Laughter.)

12 SENATOR GALLIVAN: You can stand up
13 if you want. I meant for standing up and 14 advocating.

15 (Laughter.)

16 SENATOR GALLIVAN: For standing up
17 and advocating for others.

18 And certainly you stand up and we 19 hear about Mother's Day and how a mother will 20 stand up for her children. We know fathers will 21 stand up for their children as well. But very 22 few people are willing to have the courage and 23 the energy to stand up and try to help others and 24 educate people about something that many of us do 25 not know very much about.

1                   This is something I just learned,
2                   thanks to Senator Baskin, thanks to you. And I
3                   hope all of us here continue to advocate for this 4                   to help educate people so that we can help others 5                   throughout the state.

6                   But today is your day, Jack. I'm 7                   thrilled that you're here.

8                   And I thank you, Mr. President, for 9                   your time.

10                  ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Thank
11                  you, Senator Gallivan.

12                  To the Malicki family, especially 13                  Jack --

14                  (Laughter.)

15                  ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: -- I 16                  welcome you on behalf of the Senate. I extend to 17                  you all of the privileges and courtesies of this 18                  house.

19                  Now, please rise and be recognized.

20                  (Standing ovation.)

21                  ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: The 22                  resolution was adopted on May 6th.

23                  Senator Serrano.

24                  SENATOR SERRANO: At the request of 25                  the sponsors, the resolutions are open for

1 cosponsorship.

2                   ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY:    These 3 resolutions are open for cosponsorship.  Should 4 you choose not to be a cosponsor, please notify 5 the desk.

6                   Senator Serrano.

7                   SENATOR SERRANO:    Please take up
8 the reading of the calendar.

9                   ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY:    The
10 Secretary will read.

11                   THE SECRETARY:    Calendar Number 12 114, Senate Print 1811, by Senator Fernandez, an 13 act to amend the Executive Law.

14                   ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY:    Read the 15 last section.

16                   THE SECRETARY:    Section 2.  This 17 act shall take effect immediately.

18                   ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY:    Call the 19 roll.

20                   (The Secretary called the roll.)

21                   ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY:    Senator
22 Fernandez to explain her vote.

23                   SENATOR FERNANDEZ:    Thank you,
24 Mr. President.

25                   This legislation introduced is a

1 solemn recognition of a crisis that has touched
2 every corner of our state. By designating
3 May 9th as Opioid Awareness Day, we are naming a 4 truth that too many families already know. This 5 epidemic is still with us, and it's still costing 6 us lives.

7           We are remembering the sons, the 8 daughters, the neighbors, the friends gone too 9 soon from overdose. We are honoring those in 10 recovery who have made it through another day, 11 and those who are still trying.

12           We are thanking the harm reduction 13 workers, the EMTs, the grief counselors, and the 14 parents who have lost -- who have turned loss 15 into action.

16           Awareness is a commitment to 17 education, to prevention, and to care that meets 18 people where they are. It's a recognition that 19 stigma kills and that silence is not an option.

20           So let this day be a starting point, 21 a day where we tell the truth about what opioids 22 are doing to our communities. A day where we 23 reject shame and choose compassion. A day where 24 we remember that every life has value and that no 25 one is disposable.

1 I urge my colleagues to support this 2 bill because awareness is the first step, and the 3 lives we have tomorrow may depend on the actions
4 that we choose to take today.

5 Thank you.

6 ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Senator
7 Fernandez to be recorded in the affirmative.

8 Senator Webb to explain her vote.

9 SENATOR WEBB: Thank you,
10 Mr. President.

11 I want to thank our esteemed chair
12 of Substance Use Disorder here in the Senate,
13 Senator Fernandez, who has been a tireless 14 advocate for this important issue.

15 This legislation that we are doing
16 today is not a symbolic gesture, it is a call to 17 action. It is a declaration that we as a state
18 will no longer look away, we will no longer speak 19 of the opioid crisis in hushed tones and most 20 certainly in secret conversations, or leave 21 families to grieve in silence.

22 Every corner of our state has felt 23 the weight of this epidemic and continues to feel 24 it. From rural towns to urban centers, opioid 25 addiction has claimed lives, shattered families,

1 and left communities reeling. Behind every 2 overdose statistic it is someone's child, their 3 son, their daughter, a parent, an aunt and an 4 uncle, a cousin, someone they went to school
5 with, a coworker. These are people whose lives 6 mattered and who should still be here.

7           May 9th will serve as a solemn 8 reminder of the lives that were lost, and as a 9 moment for education, conversation and ultimately 10 prevention. It will give voice to families who 11 have suffered in silence. It will encourage those 12 who are battling addiction to seek help without 13 shame. And it will remind us as policymakers 14 that year after year our work is far from done on 15 this important issue.

16           Mr. President, awareness is not just 17 simply a passive act, it is a commitment. It is 18 a foundation for action. When we understand the 19 scope of this crisis, when we humanize it, we 20 make better policy.

21           We must fund and continue to fund
22 better treatment, and we must continue to build 23 compassionate systems.

24           I vote aye and encourage our 25 colleagues to do the same.

1 Thank you, Mr. President.

2 ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Senator
3 Webb to be recorded in the affirmative.

4 Senator Scarcella-Spanton to explain
5 her vote.

6 SENATOR SCARCELLA-SPANTON: Thank 7 you, Mr. President.

8 And thank you, Senator Fernandez,
9 for your work in designating May 9th as Opioid 10 Awareness Day, and for all of the work that 11 you're doing through your committee.

12 The stark reality is that opioid
13 addiction continues to devastate our communities 14 here in New York State. Staten Island in 15 particular has faced an unrelenting opioid crisis
16 with overdose rates disproportionately high 17 compared to other parts of the state.

18 These sobering statistics are not 19 just numbers. They represent real people whose 20 lives were cut shortly, families left shattered, 21 and communities left grieving.

22 But beyond these statistics, I speak
23 from personal experience. I've lost more friends
24 than I can count due to overdoses, including one 25 as early as last week.

1                   To keep the privacy of some of the 2 people who have overdosed, I will read some of 3 their first names. I spoke with their families
4 to make sure that's okay.

5                   But just in the last few years:
6 Anastasia, Michael, Brandon, Michael, Julie,
7 Peter, Matthew, John, Robert, Tommy. And of 8 course I always make mention of one of my closest
9 friends, Joey Fellini. Everything I do up here 10 on this, I do for him and for all the ones that 11 we have lost.

12                   This is a real issue. These are 13 real people. All of these people have families, 14 children, moms, dads, siblings that this has 15 impacted. Truly, again, Senator Fernandez, for 16 my own children growing up on Staten Island, I 17 cannot thank you enough for the work that you're 18 doing through your committee.

19                   So thank you, and I proudly vote 20 aye.

21                   ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Senator
22 Scarcella-Spanton to be recorded in the 23 affirmative.

24                   Senator Martins to explain his vote.

25                   SENATOR MARTINS: Thank you,

1 Mr. President.

2 I also rise to support this bill,
3 and I want to thank the sponsor.

4 It's about time we realize that 5 we're not going to arrest our way through this 6 crisis. It's a mental health crisis that impacts 7 every corner of our state. Although,
8 Mr. President, I'm clear I also don't support
9 injection sites, I also don't support arresting 10 our way through this crisis.

11 When someone overdoses and they are 12 brought back, it's a cry for help. And it's 13 about time we treated it as a mental health
14 crisis. It's about time we made sure that they 15 have the resources that they need so that they 16 can combat the demons that they face each and 17 every day.

18 There isn't a family in this state
19 that hasn't suffered through this crisis. There 20 isn't a community that hasn't felt the grief of 21 having lost loved ones to this crisis.

22 So I'm happy to rise and thank the 23 sponsor and to vote aye, Mr. President. But it's 24 about time we treated it as a mental health
25 crisis and, as a mental health crisis, make sure

1 that each and every one of our friends and 2 colleagues and loved ones receive the help that 3 they deserve.

4 Thank you.

16 Baskin to explain her vote.

17 SENATOR BASKIN: Thank you,
18 Mr. President.

19 I rise in support of my bill to 20 require the state to publish a small business 21 compliance guide online to make it easier for our 22 small businesses to understand the new rules and 23 the regulations of their industry.

24 We know our small businesses are 25 what make our neighborhoods thrive and what keep

1 our economy going. We also know that small 2 businesses don't always have the capacity to keep 3 up with the latest laws and rules that impact 4 them.

5 So as we here in this chamber pass
6 new laws and state agencies create new policies
7 and rules, this bill will make it so that we can 8 clearly communicate these new standards to our 9 small businesses.

10 This guide that we will publish
11 online annually will include all relevant
12 information in laymen's terms. It will include 13 information on permits, licenses, taxes,
14 insurance, workplace safety, workers'
15 compensation, wages, hours and benefits.

16 We want to put our small businesses
17 in a position to succeed. And in order to do 18 that, we need to provide them with the 19 information so that it's easy to understand.
20 This will help our small businesses quickly
21 understand the new information and get them back
22 to the day-to-day tasks to help their businesses 23 grow and make our state thrive.

24 As the chair of the Procurement and 25 Contracts Committee, it is important to me that

1 we engage as many small businesses as possible to 2 benefit from state projects and spending.

3 Making this guide more accessible
4 and easier to read is the first step towards 5 growing our state's relationship with small 6 businesses.

7 Mr. President, I proudly vote in the 8 affirmative, and I encourage my colleagues to do
9 the same. Thank you.

10 ACTING PRESIDENT BAILEY: Senator
11 Baskin to be recorded in the affirmative.

12 Senator Borrello to explain his 13 vote.

14 SENATOR BORRELLO: Thank you,
15 Mr. President.

16 First of all, I want to thank 17 Senator Baskin for bringing this forward. As a 18 small business owner, I can tell you that 19 navigating the complicated web of regulations
20 that change every year is a difficult thing.

21 You know, if you're a big business
22 you've got lawyers, you've got consultants, 23 you've got people telling you -- analyzing the 24 laws and telling you how to proceed. But not a 25 small business owner. It's really up to yourself

1 to figure out for yourself what -- how it's going 2 to impact your business. And oftentimes that 3 results in people unintentionally violating those 4 rules, and there's fines and fees and lawyers 5 fees.

6 So this guide should be I think a 7 step in the right direction so people can at 8 least understand what the new rules are and how 9 they impact their business. I think it's an 10 important step.

11 The best thing we could really do is 12 deregulate more things here in New York State and 13 really just make it easier to do business here.
14 But absent that, a guide on what the new 15 regulations are will certainly help.

16 So I vote aye. Thank you.
